Animal Thinking:

Animal Thinking Randolph Menzel, Julia Fischer, 2024-03-19 Experts from psychology neuroscience philosophy ecology and evolutionary biology assess the field of animal cognition Do animals have cognitive maps Do they possess knowledge Do they plan for the future Do they understand that others have mental lives of their own This volume provides a state of the art assessment of animal cognition with experts from psychology neuroscience philosophy ecology and evolutionary biology addressing these questions in an integrative fashion It summarizes the latest research identifies areas where consensus has been reached and takes on current controversies Over the last thirty years the field has shifted from the collection of anecdotes and the pursuit of the subjective experience of animals to a rigorous hypothesis driven experimental approach Taking a skeptical stance this volume stresses the notion that in many cases relatively simple rules may account for rather complex and flexible behaviors The book critically evaluates current concepts and puts a strong focus on the psychological mechanisms that underpin animal behavior It offers comparative analyses that reveal common principles as well as adaptations that evolved in particular species in response to specific selective pressures It assesses experimental approaches to the study of animal navigation decision making social cognition and communication and suggests directions for future research The book promotes a research program that seeks to understand animals cognitive abilities and behavioral routines as individuals and as members of social groups

Thinking Across Cultures Donald M. Topping, Doris C. Crowell, Victor N. Kobayashi, 2013-09-05 This volume compares and contrasts contemporary theories of cognition modes of perception and learning from cross cultural perspectives The participants were asked to consider and assess the question of whether people from different cultures think differently Moreover they were asked to consider whether the same approaches to teaching and development of thinking will work in all cultures as well as they do in Western literate societies

Notwithstanding its renowned comprehensive narrative encapsulation of the Indic culture the Mahabharata keeps on posing a challenge to its contemporary readers how do we relate to something over two millennia old in today's context without freezing it in time This volume looks at the problem from diverse periods and standpoints and shows us that this challenge is in fact a legacy of the Mahabharata and the responses to this challenge are what makes the text ever contemporary to different readers of different times and positions It traces the evolution of the Mahabharata from its inception in the fifth century BCE to twenty first century spanning classical Sanskrit tradition Persian and Bengali adaptations the Mahabharata as a serialized TV show to more recent graphic narratives By attempting to analyse this diversity this volume further delves into how the issues in the Mahabharata resonate across time from the world of ancient sages to contemporary struggles of women The essays in this book adopt a dual perspective to appreciate both the Mahabharata's historical context its exploration of war heroes and heroines gender psychology philosophy and its implications for the future This book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of Indian literature ancient literature and philosophy English literature cultural studies visual studies gender studies and translation studies about philosophy is to read philosophy at its best that is what this fascinating anthology offers Staying Alive Marya Schechtman,2014-03 Offers a new way of thinking about the relation between personal identity and practical interests seeing persons as unified loci of practical interaction and defining the identity of a person in terms of the unity of a characteristic kind of life Literature, Science, and Animal Advocacy in Canada Candice Allmark-Kent,2023-11-26 Literature Science and Animal Advocacy in Canada Practical Zoocriticism is the first book length study of animals in Canadian literature Using a historical approach it offers a much needed alternative to existing models of animals as symbols of Canadian victimhood Spanning more than a century the scope of this book includes classic writers Ernest Thompson Seton and Charles G D Roberts as well as popular contemporary authors such as Barbara Gowdy Yann Martel Margaret Atwood and many others By recontextualizing these works with closer attention to contemporary scientific and animal advocacy debates this book offers a fresh new perspective on a wide range of texts Animal Poetics and Literary Thinking Ratul Nandi,2024-11-25 Animal Poetics and Literary Thinking explores and reorients our approach to animal thinking through the intersection between literary fiction continental philosophy and theory This book situates animals and animality as neither a corporeal entity nor a conceptual essence but as a scintillating impossibility that concurrently encourages and overturns our grasping impulse to know animals from their perspectives This framework corresponds with the milieu of literature as poesis which is uniquely connected to a refusal to know By exploring the writings of J M Coetzee Franz Kafka Mary Shelly and Kazuo Ishiguro this volume encounters a template of animal thinking that seeks to uncover the singularity of animals through a sustained exploration of what remains radically unknowable about animality the vestiges of which have their presence in the world of literary fiction Persons, Moral Worth, and Embryos Stephen Napier,2011-06-21 Bioethicists have achieved consensus on two ideas pertaining to beginning of life issues 1 persons are those beings capable of higher order cognition or self consciousness and 2 it is impermissible to kill only persons As a consequence a consensus is reached regarding the permissibility of both destroying human embryos for research purposes and abortion The present collection aims to interact critically with this consensus Authors address various aspects of this orthodoxy Issues discussed include theories of personhood and in particular the role of thought experiments used in support of such theories the notion of an intrinsic potential and the moral relevance of having one new formulations of the virtue argument against abortion rights four dimensionalism and abortion the notion of moral status and who or what has it scientific accounts of what a human being is as well as addressing empirical evidence of fetal consciousness and analysis of the public policy implications given the epistemic status of pro choice arguments Given the issues discussed and that the arguments in critical focus are fairly new the collection provides a novel comprehensive and rigorous analysis of contemporary pro choice arguments Wittgenstein and Davidson on Language, Thought, and Action Claudine Verheggen,2017-10-05 Wittgenstein and Davidson are two of the most influential and controversial figures of twentieth century philosophy However whereas Wittgenstein is often regarded as a deflationary philosopher Davidson is considered to be a theory builder and systematic philosopher par excellence Consequently little work has been devoted to comparing their philosophies with each other In this volume of new essays leading scholars show that in fact there is much that the two share By focusing on the similarities between Wittgenstein and Davidson their essays present compelling defences of their views and develop more coherent and convincing approaches than either philosopher was able to propose on his own They show how philosophically fruitful and constructive reflection on Wittgenstein and Davidson continues to be and how relevant the writings of both philosophers are to current debates in philosophy of mind language and action Unsolved Mysteries of the Mind Vicki Bruce,1996 This textbook is for use by psychology neuroscience and cognitive science undergraduates studying cognition Cognitive Ethology Peter Marler,Carolyn A. Ristau,2013-04-15 This collection of essays was written by former students associates admirers critics and friends of Donald R Griffin the creator of cognitive ethology Stimulated by his work this volume presents ideas and experiments in the field of cognitive ethology the exploration of the mental experiences of animals as they behave in their natural environment during the course of their normal lives Cognitive Ethology discusses the possibility that animals may have abilities to experience communicate reason and plan beyond those usually ascribed to them in a black box or stimulus response interpretation of their behavior Contributions from scientists who have been associated with or influenced by Griffin offer a lively array of views some disparate from one another and some especially selected to present approaches contrary to his States of Brain and Mind HOBSON,2013-12-19 Jews, Gentiles, and Other Animals Mira Wasserman,2017-05-19 In Jews Gentiles and Other Animals Mira Beth Wasserman undertakes a close reading of Avoda Zara arguably the Babylonian Talmud s most scandalous tractate According to Wasserman Avoda Zara is where this Talmud joins the humanities in questioning what it means to be a human Life Valentin Matcas,2014-04-20 You are an intelligent living human being and in order to assure your meaning and success throughout life you have to know everything about life everywhere in all forms and realities You have to learn everything about nature society and organic life about the true origins of life about creating life and about the divine and about your own meaning in life and in the world as an intelligent living human being While these are not random ideas but these specific needs for higher knowledge are embedded continuously within your own higher level intelligent needs and meanings just because this is the case with all intelligent life But is this important knowledge about life actually available to you and everyone else Yes or no since there are many instances to consider Yet when you are capable to find the necessary knowledge about life meaning society and the world you are truly capable to live your life at the intelligent human level While if you cannot find it you keep on searching since your own higher level needs and meanings never leave you alone until you learn everything necessary in life and in the world And so you do otherwise you end up living your life on lower developmental levels addicted in servitude or only intuitively through animal instincts And it certainly matters just because you are an intelligent living human being by nature now forced to live life below your level unfulfilled and even punished intrinsically for your continuous failure But where exactly can you find this important knowledge Who can shine a living light on the accurate truth Do you still wait for science to do so when science had already offered you everything that it knows since high school Throughout this book we model life in all significant details as we study everything alive and intelligent from the smallest cellular components to the entire human body mind and spirit and to all forms of life because everything is alive and meaningful in the world If you want to learn more about life in all forms and realities this book is for you AWIC Series ,1989 The Cognitive Animal Marc Bekoff,Colin Allen,Gordon M. Burghardt,2002-06-21 The fifty seven original essays in this book provide a comprehensive overview of the interdisciplinary field of animal cognition The contributors include cognitive ethologists behavioral ecologists experimental and developmental psychologists behaviorists philosophers neuroscientists computer scientists and modelers field biologists and others The diversity of approaches is both philosophical and methodological with contributors demonstrating various degrees of acceptance or disdain for such terms as consciousness and varying degrees of concern for laboratory experimentation versus naturalistic research In addition to primates particularly the nonhuman great apes the animals discussed include antelopes bees dogs dolphins earthworms fish hyenas parrots prairie dogs rats ravens sea lions snakes spiders and squirrels The topics include but are not limited to definitions of cognition the role of anecdotes in the study of animal cognition anthropomorphism attention perception learning memory thinking consciousness intentionality communication planning play aggression dominance predation recognition assessment of self and others social knowledge empathy conflict resolution reproduction parent young interactions and caregiving ecology evolution kin selection and neuroethology
