Animal Tone Poems:

ANIMALS IN INDIAN ENGLISH POETRY Dr. Gajanan T. Hivale, 2019-06-27 Indian English poetry is not addition of English poetry It is essentially Indian because it portrays Indian cultural and linguistic unity It is an outcome of Indian literature which has been written in various Indian languages Therefore Indian English poetry is one of the parts of Indian English Literature which depicts the socio political religious domestic and economical picture of Indian people Gauri Deshpande states We are right in asserting that we are Indian poets writing in English Our landscape is Indian our thought is moulded by our political social economic and philosophic scene Chindhade p 10 Indian English poetry has accomplished both richness and excellence of craftsmanship Animal Tone Poems Michele Evans, 2004-03 Delightful and imaginative titles are the creative inspiration for the music in this book Each of the ten solos in this collection of tone poems describes various creatures Monarch Butterfly Sea Anemone Black Stallion Fawn Dolphins Crickets Bullfrogs Great White Shark Raccoon and Blue Whale The solos vary in length from short one page vignettes to longer musical depictions Various tempos and meters and moods throughout Keys G C F modal G Flat D F minor E modal A Reading range full keyboard Perf time varies from less than 1 minute to 2 minutes Nature, Environment and Poetry Susanna Lidström, 2015-06-19 The environmental challenges facing humanity in the twenty first century are not only acute and grave they are also unprecedented in kind complexity and scope Nonetheless or therefore the political response to problems such as climate change biodiversity loss and widespread pollution continues to fall short To address these challenges it seems clear that we need new ways of thinking about the relationship between humans and nature local and global and past present and future One place to look for such new ideas is in poetry designed to contain multiple levels of meaning at once challenge the imagination and evoke responses that are based on something more than scientific consensus and rationale This ecocritical book traces the environmental sensibilities of two Anglophone poets Nobel Prize winner Seamus Heaney 1939 2013 and British Poet Laureate Ted Hughes 1930 1998 Drawing on recent and multifarious developments in ecocritical theory it examines how Hughes's and Heaney's respective poetics interact with late twentieth century developments in environmental thought focusing in particular on ideas about ecology and environment in relation to religion time technology colonialism semiotics and globalisation This book is aimed at students of literature and environment the relationship between poetry and environmental humanities and the poetry of Ted Hughes or Seamus Heaney Sonic Transformations of Literary Texts Siglind Bruhn, 2008 Among the possible relationships between art forms that express themselves in different sign systems the pairing of words and images is the one that is most thoroughly explored And in fact the most securely established terminology is found in a field that has experienced a significant revival in recent years ekphrasis The literary topos through which a poem or any other text addresses itself to the visual arts has received much attention in recent years and been subjected to intense scrutiny BOOK JACKET The Figure of the Animal in Modern and Contemporary Poetry Michael Malay, 2018-06-05 This book argues that there are deep connections between poetic thinking and the sensitive recognition of creaturely others It explores this proposition in relation to four poets Marianne Moore Elizabeth Bishop Ted Hughes and Les Murray Through a series of close readings and by paying close attention to issues of sound rhythm simile metaphor and image it explores how poetry cultivates a special openness towards animal others The thinking behind this book is inspired by J M Coetzee's The Lives of Animals In particular it takes up that book's suggestion that poetry invites us to relate to animals in an open ended and sympathetic manner Poets according to Elizabeth Costello the book's protagonist return the living electric being to language and doing so compel us to open our hearts towards animals and the claims they make upon us There are special affinities for her between the music of poetry and the recognition of others But what might it mean to say that poets to return life to language And why might this have any bearing on our relationship with animals Beyond offering many suggestive starting points Elizabeth Costello says very little about the nature of poetry's special relationship with the animal one aim of this study then is to ask of what this relationship consists not least by examining the various ways poets have bodied forth animals in language English
