Recognising and Responding to Animal Emotion in a Shared World Vicki Hutton, 2023-11-16 How is it that depending on the setting the same cat can be perceived as a homeless annoyance a potential research subject or a thinking and feeling family member The answer is bound up in our perception of non human animals capacity to experience emotions and this book draws on contemporary evidence based research observations interviews and anecdotal case scenarios to explore the growing knowledge base around animal emotion Acknowledging that animals can experience feelings directly affects the way that they are perceived and treated in many settings and the author explores the implications when humans apply or ignore this knowledge selectively between species and within species This information is presented within the unique context of a proposed hierarchy of perceived non human animals emotional abilities often based on human interpretation of the animal s emotional capacity with examples of how this manifests at an emotional spiritual and moral level Implications for specific groups living with caring for or working with non human animals are examined making the book of particular interest to those working studying or researching in the veterinary professions animal ethics law and welfare and zoology biology and animal science This book will also be fascinating reading for anyone interested in simply learning more about the animals with whom we share this planet For some readers it will validate the reciprocal emotional bond they feel for living creatures For others it will raise questions about the moral treatment of sentient non human beings breaking down the human protective barrier of cognitive dissonance and activating a cycle of change

Symbols in Arts, Religion and Culture Farrin Chwalkowski, 2016-12-14 We are a product of nature Every single cell of our body is made of and depends on nature Our inner soul is heavily influenced by nature We feel sad if the sun is not shining for a few days and feel pleasure when drawn to the wonder of flowers and uplifted by the song of birds We came from nature we are part of nature In short we are nature Nature has been an intimate part of the human experience from the earliest times Different religions and cultures from all corners of the world have honoured and worshipped nature in art ritual and literature in their own unique ways This book shows how we learn about our own human nature our own sense of identity and how we fit into the larger scheme of life and spirit when we come to better understand how our human ancestors through art symbol and myth expressed their relationship with the natural world

Sharing with the Gods Suk Fong Jim, 2014 Sharing with the Gods examines one of the most ubiquitous yet little studied aspects of ancient Greek religion the offering of so called first fruits aparchai and tithes dekatai from the Archaic period to the Hellenistic While most existing studies of Greek religion tend to focus on ritual performance this volume investigates questions of religious belief and mentality why the Greeks presented these gifts to the gods and what their behaviour tells us about their religious world view presuppositions and perception of the gods Exploiting an array of ancient sources the author assesses the diverse nature of aparchai and dekatai the complexity of the motivations underlying them the role of individuals in shaping tradition the deployment of this religious custom in politics and the transformation of a voluntary practice into a religious obligation By synthesizing a century of scholarship on first fruits practices in Greek and other religious cultures the author challenges prevailing interpretations of gift exchange with the gods in terms of do ut des and da ut dem which emphasize the reciprocal obligatory and sometimes commercial aspects of the gift and explores hitherto neglected notions including gratitude and thanksgiving Drawing on current approaches to gift giving in anthropology sociology and economics in particular the French anthropologist Godelier's idea of debt the volume offers new perspectives with which to conceptualize human divine relations and challenges traditional views of the nature of gift giving between men and gods in Greek religion Handbook of Research Methods on Intuition Marta Sinclair,2014-06-27 How does one go about studying intuition _ a complex cross disciplinary field which is still developing How can intuition be captured in situ How can a researcher harness their own intuition This book uses method related themes to help an

Spirit Animals and the Wheel of Life Hal Zina Bennett,2001-02-01 Though our ancient ancestors had a deep spiritual connection to the natural world most modern humans have lost that connection resulting in ever increasing ecological assaults on our planet As environmental quality continues to worsen we must find a way to spiritually reconnect with Mother Earth before it is too late Ecospiritualism is a form of spirituality that embraces and takes responsibility for the natural world we live in One of the most practical enjoyable and simple ways of reclaiming our ecospiritual connection with Mother Earth is journeying with the spirits of animals just as our ancestors did thousands of years ago Animals most intimately connect with Mother Earth are the perfect guides to the ancient wisdom we have lost Mole eagle badger wolf bear mountain lion each animal has its place on the sacred medicine wheel each has knowledge vital to the future of our Earth and to rediscovering our rightful place in it In Spirit Animals author Hal Zina Bennett offers an accessible form of spiritual orienteering in which personal power animals are the guides and teachers and shamanism is the means by which we work with and learn from them

History of the New World Called America Edward John Payne, 1892

Priestess, Mother, Sacred Sister Susan Starr Sered, 1996-04-11 Religion is often denounced as one of the tools used by patriarchal societies to maintain the status quo and especially to persuade women to accept subordinate roles. This does not explain however the existence of many religious groups in which women are both leaders and the majority of participants. How are these women's religions different from those dominated by men? What can we learn from them about the special ways in which women experience their unique reality? In this fascinating and pathbreaking work the first comparative study of women's religions Susan Starr Sered seeks answers to these compelling questions. Looking for common threads linking groups as diverse as the ancestral cults of the Black Caribs of Belize, Korean shamanism, Christian Science and the Feminist Spirituality movement, Sered finds that motherhood and motherly concerns play a vital role in these female dominated groups. Nurturing and concern for others are at the center as are healing arts and ways of dealing with illness and the death of children. Religion not only enables women to find sacred meaning in their daily lives from the preparation of food to caring for their families but also offers intense and personal relationships with deities and spirits often through ecstatic possession, trance as well as opportunities to celebrate and mourn with other women. By examining the shared experiences of women across great cultural divides Priestess Mother Sacred Sister offers a new understanding of the role gender plays in determining how individuals grapple with the ultimate questions of existence. In the process it not only highlights the profound differences between men and women but the equally important ways in which we are all alike.

Nature-man-spirit Complex in Tribal India Rann Singh Mann, 1981. Contributed articles. The Peoples of the Great North. Art and Civilisation of Siberia Valentina Gorbacheva, Marina Federova, 2024-01-17 Documents discovered recently in the hidden backrooms of St Petersburg's Ethnological Museum have proved to be of sensational importance. The contents are published for the very first time in this work. Representing photos and descriptions of art and sculpture of everyday utensils and everyday activities all dating from the beginning of the twentieth century these are the archives of ethnic groups in Siberia who for the most part have fought tenaciously to maintain their historical traditions. The authors brilliantly convey their enthusiastic admiration for the peoples who have so successfully and for so long contended against both hostile environment and political dominance.
