Animal Traps and Trapping James A. Bateman, 2003-10 This is James Bateman's classic account of the history of animal traps which has become the standard work on the history of animal trapping. Animals of all kinds are covered including mammals, birds, insects, fish, and crustaceans. In Cage's work in theatre composition, there is a blurring of the distinctions between music, dance, literature, art, and everyday life. Here William Fetterman examines the majority of those compositions by Cage which are aural as well as visual in content, beginning with his first work in this genre in 1952 and continuing through 1992. Much of the information in this study comes from previously undocumented material discovered among the unpublished scores and notes of Cage and his frequent collaborator David Tudor, as well as author's interviews with Cage and with individuals closely associated with his work, including David Tudor, Merce Cunningham, Bonnie Bird, Mary Caroline Richards, and Ellsworth Snyder. Rat Trap Pandora Pound, 2023-08-28 With devastating logic and clarity, Dr. Pandora Pound, Research Director at Safer Medicines Trust, comprehensively dismantles the case for animal research, bringing to an end the 150-year-old debate about its value, once and for all.
