The Making of a Teenage Service Class Ranita Ray, 2018 Stereotypes of economically marginalized black and brown youth focus on drugs gangs violence and teen parenthood Families schools nonprofit organizations and institutions in poor urban neighborhoods emphasize preventing such risk behaviors In The Making of a Teenage Service Class Ranita Ray uncovers the pernicious consequences of concentrating on risk behaviors as key to targeting poverty Having spent three years among sixteen black and Latina o youth Ray shares their stories of trying to beat the odds of living in poverty Their struggles of hunger homelessness and untreated illnesses are juxtaposed with the perseverance of completing homework finding jobs and spending long hours traveling from work to school to home By focusing on the lives of youth who largely avoid drugs gangs violence and teen parenthood the book challenges the idea that targeting these risk behaviors is key to breaking the cycle of poverty Ray compellingly demonstrates how the disproportionate emphasis on risk behaviors reinforces class and race hierarchies and diverts resources that could support marginalized youth s basic necessities and educational and occupational goals Provided by publisher

Goodlord Ella Frears,2024-06-06 Taking the form of one long email addressed to an estate agent Goodlord is a fictional memoir of habitation a genre defying novelistic text that beautifully evokes the people and places of our lives the spaces of work those that may or may not be home sites of trauma and ecstasy Showing all the control of voice one would expect from a poet of her rare skill Ella Frears has created a book that is as funny as it is harrowing and beautifully skewers the contemporary housing crisis while questioning the fundamental desires drivers and disappointments that lie at the heart of our obsession with property      The Entanglements of Ethnographic Fieldwork in a Violent World Nerina Weiss,Erella Grassiani,Linda Green,2023-02-15 This book focuses on the emotional hazards of conducting fieldwork about or within contexts of violence and provides a forum for field based researchers to tell their stories Increasingly novice and seasoned ethnographers alike whether by choice or chance are working in situations where multidimensional forms of violence conflict and war are facets of everyday life The volume engages with the methodological and ethical issues involved and features a range of expressive writings that reveal personal consequences and dilemmas The contributors use their emotions their scars outrage and sadness alongside their hopes and resilience to give voice to that which is often silenced to make visible the entanglements of fieldwork and its lingering vulnerabilities The book brings to the fore the lived experiences of researchers and their interlocutors alike with the hope of fostering communities of care It will be valuable reading for anthropologists and those from other disciplines who are embarking on ethnographic fieldwork and conducting qualitative empirical research

Recalling Fieldwork Raluca Mateoc, François Ruegg, 2020 The volume addresses reflections on the social conditions in which anthropological research in Eastern European countries under and after socialism was conducted Methodological commonalities and differences for anthropologists coming from specific academic traditions and political contexts are revealed through fresh reflections on the everyday fieldwork Institutional settings of the 70s and 80s challenges in entering the field or engagement with the needs and desires of the studied subjects come out of this web of reflections While some authors recall fieldwork based in single countries others recall journeys through multi sited ethnographies The

Caregivers ,      The Alien in My E-Mail and Other Stories Wolfgang Niesielski, 2012-05 Most of us have encountered frustrating incidents in our lifetimes For humor columnist Wolfgang Niesielski one of his most exasperating moments involves an expensive hotel room a faulty thermostat and a patronizing front desk clerk only to be rescued by two gentlemen who after conferring with each other in hushed tones change their pleasant demeanor into the serious mien of surgeons before a heart transplant operation In this compilation of his humor columns Niesielski provides an amusing take on everyday experiences See what it s like to have an evil cyber presence monopolize your e mail account understand the overwhelming differences between first class and tourist class on an airplane and find out why it s important to choose the right gift for a loved one even if it is a Salad Shooter or an electric nail file buffing system From learning how unforgiving Mother Nature truly is when he forgets how to water the lawn to the moment when he discovers he is a procrastinator in the worst way Niesielski illustrates what fun life can be when one learns to laugh at himself The Alien in My E Mail and Other Stories takes others on a delightful ride through one man s wacky life Salad Shooter and all Shade and the Pure-Blood
