Annabel Fane:

Bookleggers and Smuthounds Jay A. Gertzman, 2011-09-02 Between the two world wars at a time when both sexual repression and sexual curiosity were commonplace New York was the center of the erotic literature trade in America The market was large and contested encompassing not just what might today be considered pornographic material but also sexually explicit fiction of authors such as James Joyce Theodore Dreiser and D H Lawrence mail order manuals pulp romances and little dirty comics Bookleggers and Smuthounds vividly brings to life this significant chapter in American publishing history revealing the subtle symbiotic relationship between the publishers of erotica and the moralists who attached them and how the existence of both groups depended on the enduring appeal of prurience By keeping intact the association of sex with obscenity and shameful silence distributors of erotica simultaneously provided the antivice crusaders with a public enemy Jay Gertzman offers unforgettable portrayals of the pariah capitalists who shaped the industry and of the individuals organizations and government agencies that sought to control them Among the most compelling personalities we meet are the notorious publisher Samuel Roth the Prometheus of the Unprintable and his nemesis John Sumner head of the New York Society for the Suppression of Vice a man aggressive in his pursuit of pornographers and in his quest for a morally united and ethnically homogeneous America Annabel Fane Anonymous, 1990-04-01 Babes in the Bush Rolf Boldrewood, 2022-06-13 In Babes in the Bush Rolf Boldrewood unfolds the complexities of life in the Australian outback through the lens of romanticized adventure and grim realities Boldrewood employs a narrative tapestry rich in detail and characterized by its vivid evocation of the Australian landscape and the lawless aura of bushrangers Excerpting the inquiry of Rosamond Effingham Boldrewood initiates a discourse on the motives and consequences of emigration and fortune seeking reflecting the broader societal sentiments of the 19th century His prose interweaves the pastoral with the perilous encapsulating the dichotomy of the Australian frontier within a literary context shaped by a rising national identity and romantic escapism nRolf Boldrewood the nom de plume of Thomas Alexander Browne was not only a writer but an active participant in the pioneering enterprise of Australia working as a squatter a gold commissioner and a magistrate These real world experiences grounded Boldrewood s narratives in authenticity and Babes in the Bush is no exception Drawing from his firsthand knowledge of the Australian bush Boldrewood crafts a narrative that resonates with the adventurous spirit and encapsulates the trials of those enticed by the promise of prosperity in a challenging land n Babes in the Bush is recommended for readers intrigued by the fusion of adventure and historical insight Boldrewood s work stands as a significant cultural artefact that provides compelling commentary on the Australian pioneering spirit and the societal dynamics of the time The novel will appeal to enthusiasts of classic literature Australian history and those who seek a narrative that captures the essence of human determination in the face of the rugged and untamed natural world Love and Mistress Annabel, and Other Verses John Shelton Patton, 1927 Tales from the Dark Lord John Preston, 1992

Matheson-Hooker, 2021-10-01 Writing a New Society is the first extended study of the novel in Malay and is a groundbreaking study of the relationship between social change and literary practice The book traces the emergence of the genre from the 1920s and drawing on 26 of Malaysia's best-known novels argues that the form was developed as a vehicle for transforming Malay ideas about themselves and their society Virginia Hooker focuses on the underlying anxiety about racial identity which underpins much of Malay writing and examines how ethnic identity is constructed and expressed In a radical break with the traditional notion of Malay society as being totally dependent on the Sultan the book shows how the novelists centre their writings on descriptions of ordinary Malays and present the household as the primary site of change Here the novels develop and describe a private sphere where Malays who previously had no rights begin to exercise their initiative The concept of social equality which inspires the novelists subverts many of the themes of modern Malay politics Pastoral and Ideology Annabel Patterson, 2023-11-15 Patterson follows the fortunes of Virgil's Eclogues from the Middle Ages to our own century She argues that Virgilian pastoral spoke to the intellectuals of each place and time of their own condition The study reinspects our standard system of periodization in literary and art history and challenges some of the current premises of modernism This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high-quality peer-reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print-on-demand technology This title was originally published in 1987 Ducatus Leodiensis, Or, The Topography of the Ancient and Populous Town
