

STUDIES IN THE HISTORY OF IRAN AND TURKEY
1000–1700 A.D.

Edited by
Carole Hillenbrand
University of Edinburgh

This series publishes important studies dealing with the history of Iran and Turkey in the period 1000–1700 A.D. This period is significant because it heralds the advent of large numbers of nomadic Turks from Central Asia into the Islamic world. Their influence was felt particularly strongly in Iran and Turkey, territories which they permanently transformed.

The series presents translations of medieval Arabic and Persian texts which chronicle the history of the medieval Turks and Persians, and also publishes scholarly monographs which handle themes of medieval Turkish and Iranian history such as historiography, nomadisation and folk Islam.
