Anne Gould Hauberg Barbara Johns, Anne Gould Hauberg, 2005 This is the first book length account of the world Anne Gould Hauberg both discovered and helped bring into being A major figure in Seattle s cultural life she has been an instigator of ideas for innumerable people and organizations sometimes when no one else could see the way and has provided critical support that helped launch many artists careers Author Barbara Johns brings her own intimate knowledge of Seattle s art and architectural heritage to the story of Anne s life and accomplishments Anne Gould Hauberg is legendary for her advocacy of artists the creative spirit and the handmade object Her openness to creative possibility contributed most famously to the beginnings of the Pilchuck Glass School Hers has been a life of commitment filled with passion for beauty and for universal access to art Out of the Fire Bonnie J. Miller, 1991 Freelance writer Miller introduces 30 contemporary artists in a volume that suggests the versatility of glass and engenders curiosity about glassworkers techniques She describes the glass artists community in the Pacific Northwest and records brief statements by the artists freelance photographer Lyons s color portraits of the individuals and their work illustrate the text Sonja Blomdahl who makes symmetrical vessels Dante Marioni whose goblets are featured and Benjamin Moore who creates lamps have mastered the art of glass blowing Others take the medium in other directions several employ cast glass in multimedia sculpture some explore political and personal issues by painting on glass surfaces Ruth Brockman decorates her intricate spiritually oriented creations with brightly colored enamels Richard LaLonde crushes and fuses glass to make vibrant mosaics This dazzling sampler bears witness to glass s creative applications beyond both the functional and the decorative Fire Dale Chihuly, 2006 From Baskets and Seaform to Chandeliers and Towers this 176 page book features subsections dedicated to many of Chihuly s series including a dynamic pictorial chronology documenting the development and history of Chihuly s most popular glass series A companion to the popular Chihuly Form from Fire American Craft , 2006 Stirring Up Seattle R. M. Campbell, 2014-11-01 In the 1950s the city of Seattle began a transformation from an insular provincial outpost to a vibrant and cosmopolitan cultural center As veteran Seattle journalist R M Campbell illustrates in Stirring Up Seattle Allied Arts in the Civic Landscape this transformation was catalyzed in part by the efforts of a group of civic arts boosters originally known as The Beer and Culture Society This merry band of lawyers architects writers designers and university professors eventually known as Allied Arts of Seattle lobbied for public funding for the arts helped avert the demolition of Pike Place Market and were involved in a wide range of crusades and campaigns in support of historic preservation cultural institutions and urban livability Choice , 2005 Holding the Past , 1995 Shaping Seattle Architecture Jeffrey Karl Ochsner, 2016-06-01 The first edition of Shaping Seattle Architecture published in 1994 introduced readers to Seattle s architects by showcasing the work of those who were instrumental in creating the region s built environment Twenty years later the second edition updates and expands the original with new information and illustrations that provide an even richer exploration of Seattle architecture The book begins with a revised introduction that brings the story of Seattle architecture into the twenty first century and situates developments in Seattle building design within local and global contexts The book s fifty four essays present richly illustrated profiles that describe the architects careers provide an overview of their major works and explore their significance Shaping Seattle Architecture celebrates a wide range of people who helped form the region s built environment It provides updated information about many of the architects and firms profiled in the first edition Four individuals newly included in this second edition are Edwin J Ivey a leading residential designer Fred Bassetti an important contributor to Northwest regional modernism L Jane Hastings one of the region s foremost women in architecture and Richard Haag founder of the landscape architecture program at the University of Washington and designer of Gas Works Park and the Bloedel Reserve The book also includes essays on the buildings of the Coast Salish people who inhabited Puget Sound prior to Euro American settlement the role that architects played in speculative housing developments before and after World War II and the vernacular architecture built by nonprofessionals that makes up a portion of the fabric of the city Shaping Seattle Architecture concludes with a substantial reference section updated to reflect the last twenty years of research and publications A locations appendix offers a geographic guide to surviving works The research section directs interested readers to further resources and the appendix Additional Significant Seattle Architects provides thumbnail sketches of nearly 250 important figures not included in the main text

Fire and Form William Warmus, 2003 South Florida is home to some of the world s premier private collections of studio glass collections whose abundance diversity and quality are celebrated in Fire and Form This volume features more than 100 works by 31 of the best known American and European glass artists of our time including Jaroslava Brychtova Dale Chihuly Dan Dailey Stanislav Libensky William Morris Tom Patti Lino Tagliapietra and many others William Warmus identifies four prominent themes in the relatively recent development of studio glass since 1960 that provide a framework for exploring the rich variety of works presented in this book The first theme is what Warmus has called the particular affinity between nature and the making of glass Where nature creates a heart the glass artist creates a heart felt vessel The second is the ability of glass equally to that of painting and sculpture to convey the power of abstraction and color A third theme is the prevalent use of glass sometimes called the new bronze to depict the human figure and animal forms The final section deals with the theatrical nature of installations and environmental sculptures demonstrating the surprising capability of glass to impose itself physically and emotionally on the space we inhabit altering our very perception of it ancient Egypt and places contemporary glass within the context of contemporary art and theory at large In addition the book includes selected artists bibliographies and a chronological bibliography of contemporary glass that lists key historical events general trends and developments and important publications Fire and Form offers a unique perspective on this vital and intoxicating medium and its publication is a welcome event for all lovers of glass those who make it those who collect it and those who admire it

New Books on Women and

Feminism ,2006      The Origins of Creativity Bruce Adolphe,2001 The exploration of creativity used to be confined to the domains of psychology and philosophy This has changed greatly in recent years with the dramatic advances of modern neuroscience and our greatly improved understanding of higher brain function This book examines the biology of the brain and creativity not only through psychology and philosophy but also with the input of art science and neurobiology for the first time bringing the discoveries of modern neurobiology to bear on the subject of creativity It addresses four themes central to our understanding of creativity the creative experience in art and science the mind s perception of patterns the biological basis of imagination and the influence of the environment of creative powers In this fascinating and inter disciplinary collection of essays painters and composers explore the creative processes in their arts a mathematician points out that computer generated fractal images are often perceived as art and evoke emotional reactions and modern neuroscience begins to explain the creator s experience and sees creative decision making as a function that is inseparable from emotion Not only are these essays fascinating within themselves but they interact and collide in such a way that suddenly mathematics is bringing forth art and science becomes an argument for unexplainable emotions Many questions and theories are explored in these pages What is the Eureka experience how do the brain and mind make creative decisions and what is the role of emotion In the end The Origins of Creativity will explore with you the possibility of creativity being a genetically encoded product of the evolution of the brain favored by natural selection but influenced by the environment of each individual as it unifies traditional views on creativity with today s new sciences of the mind      Seattle Public Sculptors Fred F. Poyner IV,2017-05-03 From Seattle s earliest days as a Gold Rush boomtown to its celebration of the future during the 1962 World s Fair local artists have created public art installations statuary reliefs and other sculpture that have become familiar features of the city s landscape This comprehensive study of 12 Seattle sculptors and their works examines the motivations of the artists and their benefactors the development of the city s public art policy and the political forces behind the pieces that are now part of the city s rich history Biographical details and historical perspective are provided for such artists as Lorado Taft Alice Robertson Carr John Carl Ely Max P Nielsen August Werner and James FitzGerald      World of Glass Jan Greenberg,Sandra Jordan,2020-05-12 The first children s book about Dale Chihuly the world renowned glass sculptor His crew calls him Maestro Thousands of fans call him a magician Over the past five decades Dale Chihuly b 1941 has created some of the most innovative and popular works of art in museums and gardens around the world Authors Jan Greenberg and Sandra Jordan met with Chihuly in his studio for exclusive interviews discussing his early life his passion for glassblowing and his dazzling works Lavishly illustrated with Chihuly s art and family photographs this book discusses Chihuly s workshop and his glassblowing technique The book includes a step by step look at how blown glass is created a list of places to see Chihuly s artwork endnotes a bibliography and an index      Glass Nola Anderson,2021-12-01 It is always based on what I see what is touching me For more than fifty years Klaus Moje devoted his life to the art of glass He called it the most seductive medium and in his hands it had the power to delight and amaze collectors around the world His lifetime s work changed the practice and appreciation of contemporary glass Moje s philosophy of working into the hopeful and his passion for the colour and geometry he saw in the natural world shone through his kilnformed glass works a technique he pioneered Moje was both artist and educator After an apprenticeship in his father s small glass cutting and glass grinding business and a masters degree at the Glasfachschule Hadamar Moje established his Hamburg studio In 1982 he moved to Australia to set up the Glass Workshop at the Canberra School of Art one of the most successful glass education programs in the world Following 10 years teaching Moje returned to full time studio work His life and art inspired many who chose to work with this medium In Glass The life and art of Klaus Moje art historian Nola Anderson celebrates the creativity and artistic spirit of this remarkable artist

Clearly Art, Pilchuck's Glass Legacy Lloyd E. Herman,1992 The 1971 an extraordinary summer experiment in art education launched what is now the world s most famous school of glass the Pilchuck Glass School located in the forested foothills of the Cascade Mountains in Washington State Since the school was founded by artist Dale Chihuly and art patrons John Hauberg and Anne Gould Hauberg glass has become recognized as a legitimate medium in the visual arts This publication documents the parallel evolution of artistic sophistication and technical virtuosity in glass with examples by the school s international faculty It complements the national travelling exhibition curated by Lloyd E Herman and organized by the Whatcom Museum of History and Art in Bellingham Washington The book traces the school s growth from a counter culture summer glass camp with impromptu tent structures and a glass furnace constructed by the first summer s students through its evolution into a professional art school with a waiting list of prospective students Photographs of the school and its programs over the years accompany color illustrations of 76 objects by 66 world renowned glass artists Shown are works of art by early faculty members that exemplify the influence of pop art and the funk ceramics movement on glass art in the early 1970 s and examples of glass vessels sculpture flat glass and glass plate prints produced by faculty members to 1992 A bibliography and a list of faculty since 1971 add to the book s value to art collectors and scholars

Clay Revisions Vicki Halper,1987 Modern Art from the Pacific Northwest in the Collection of the Seattle Art Museum Barbara Johns,Seattle Art Museum,1990 Four in Glass Matthew Kangas,FOVA Galleries,1997 Craft and Concept Matthew Kangas,2006 Matthew Kangas captures the essence of the debate as to whether those working in craft media are artists or not covering all crafts media with a special emphasis on ceramics
