Sounds Like Helicopters Matthew Lau, 2019-10-01 Classical music masterworks have long played a key supporting role in the movies silent films were often accompanied by a pianist or even a full orchestra playing classical or theatrical repertory music yet the complexity of this role has thus far been underappreciated Sounds Like Helicopters corrects this oversight through close interpretations of classical music works in key modernist films by Francis Ford Coppola Werner Herzog Luis Bu uel Stanley Kubrick Jean Luc Godard Michael Haneke and Terrence Malick Beginning with the famous example of Wagner's Ride of the Valkyries in Apocalypse Now Matthew Lau demonstrates that there is a significant continuity between classical music and modernist cinema that belies their seemingly ironic juxtaposition Though often regarded as a stuffy conservative art form classical music has a venerable avant garde tradition and key films by important directors show that modernist cinema restores the original subversive energy of these classical masterworks These films Lau argues remind us of what this music sounded like when it was still new and difficult they remind us that great music remains new music The pattern of reliance on classical music by modernist directors suggests it is not enough to watch modernist cinema one must listen to its music to sense its prehistory its history and its obscure prophetic future

Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2003 Legacies of Enslavement in the French Republic Nicola Frith, 2025-05-06 Legacies of Enslavement in the French Republic explores the complex dynamics between social movements invested in remembering and addressing the legacies of African enslavement and the French State Exploring 25 years of activism from the build up to the 150th anniversary of the Abolition Act 1998 through to the present day the book Investigates strategies used by the French State to delink the recognition of France's enslaving past from contemporary issues with anti Black racism and reparation Asks why in the wake of the first Taubira law that recognized slavery as a crime against humanity 2001 the state has legitimized the work of certain activist groups while delegitimizing others Uses critical race theory and decolonial theory to examine the extent to which the State's approach to recognizing its past is structured by a colonial matrix of power Highlights and contests political and media misconceptions about reparations by showcasing the work of grassroots activists operating in France the Caribbean and the Indian Ocean In doing so Legacies of Enslavement showcases some of the key shifts that have taken place in the recent history of activist work operating in parallel with the successive metamorphoses of the French state as it responds to social and political pressure to recognize and repair the nation's enslaving past and its racial legacies today
