Announcing The Reign Of God Evangelization And The Subversive Memory Of Jesus

Felicia Howell LaBoy

Announcing The Reign Of God Evangelization And The Subversive Memory Of Jesus:

Announcing the Reign of God Mortimer Arias, 2001-01-22 In Announcing the Reign of God Mortimer Arias proposes that the time has come to recover in its fullness the biblical perspective of the kingdom for the mission of the church today and particularly for our evangelistic witness Announcing the Reign of God Mortimer Arias, 1984-01-01 Missional Church Lois Barrett, 1998-02-09 What would a theology of the Church look like that took seriously the fact that North America is now itself a mission field This question lies at the foundation of this volume written by an ecumenical team of six noted missiologists Lois Barrett Inagrace T Dietterich Darrell L Guder George R Hunsberger Alan J Roxburgh and Craig Van Gelder The result of a three year research project undertaken by The Gospel and Our Culture Network this book issues a firm challenge for the church to recover its missional call right here in North America while also offering the tools to help it do so The authors examine North America's secular culture and the church's loss of dominance in today's society They then present a biblically based theology that takes seriously the church's missional vocation and draw out the consequences of this theology for the structure and institutions of the church The Story That Chooses Us George R. Hunsberger, 2015-04-09 Over the course of several decades missiologist George Hunsberger has written numerous essays on crucial themes for the church's recovery of its missional identity and practice The Story That Chooses Us brings these essays together for the first time The book as a whole presents a composite sense of the missional identity and faithful witness to which the church is called in contemporary Western society Hunsberger engages with well known missiologist Lesslie Newbigin throughout his work as he carefully discerns biblical and theological roots for a contemporary vision of missional theology The recurring themes in Hunsberger's essays provide both theological mooring and practical guidance for churches following Christ on the missional path The Reconciliation of Humanity in Christ Peter Y. Hong, 2024-12-10 The Reconciliation of Humanity in Christ is essential reading for Christians who wish to lead and serve the globalized world This book is about theological engagement with globalization Although people are now living in a world in which a universal and inclusive society has emerged the church has remained powerless in uniting peoples nations and civilizations as one in Christ In order for the church to regain its credibility and confidence it must address three theological issues social justice religious pluralism and ethics and the missional method The rationale for this book is that the power of true religion becomes evident in the world when all Christians are engaging with globalization to reconcile humanity with God and with each other in preparation for the consummation of God's kingdom In response to the problems of globalization Christians can become agents of renewal for globalization by administering God's grace and peace for humanity This book will educate and equip the readers to engage with the issues of globalization in the public arena Readers will gain a biblical understanding of the church's role in fulfilling God's plan and purpose for humanity through globalization The Mystic Way of Evangelism Elaine A. Heath, 2017-11-07 Elaine Heath brings a fresh perspective to the theory and practice of evangelism by approaching it through contemplative spirituality This thoroughly revised edition includes a new study guide Praise for the First Edition Outreach Resource of the Year Award Winner Heath s biographies of the mystics are inspiring and her emphases on suffering and spiritual depth as the antidote to a prepackaged method obsessed consumer oriented evangelistic approach are refreshing Outreach Doing God's Business R. Paul Stevens,2006-08-10 Stevens explores the potential of business as both a location for practicing everyday spiritual disciplines and a source of creativity and deeper relationship with God This volume should encourage and challenge businesspersons in all segments of the marketplace to more faithfully integrate their faith and work lives Table Matters Felicia Howell LaBoy,2017-11-09 In many churches the work of evangelism and social justice is relegated to clergy staff or special committees Rarely do most members of the laity believe they should or even want to engage in the tasks of evangelism and social justice In this volume LaBoy contends that participation in baptism and Eucharist mandates for all Christians and those who are Wesleyan in their orientation in particular that evangelism and social justice are not optional but in fact integral to their worship and witness She argues that this understanding and practice of the integration of sacraments evangelism and social justice are what can help churches deal with contemporary issues of decline and church disenfranchisement by both congregants and those beyond church walls LaBoy further argues that making the sacraments central to the worship life of congregations is what made early Methodists great evangelists and advocates for social justice Saving Women Lacey C. Warner,2007 Saving Women is a much needed study of women s contributions to the theology of evangelism Through a careful consideration of the primary sources of six Protestant women ministering in America from 1800 1950 this historical and theological study demonstrates that these women combined verbal proclamation with other historic Christian practices in their roles as preacher visitor missionary educator activist and reformer In the Midst of Much-Doing Charles R. Ringma,2023-05-31 How are we to sustain activism and compassion amidst the never ending crises of the twenty first century While the concern for social justice is deeply biblical cynicism burnout and despair are all too common side effects when action is divorced from contemplation To effectively serve as the hands and feet of Jesus the church must attend to the revitalization of its inner life through the spiritual practices which feed support and sustain the work of the kingdom Rather than the fragmentation and dualism that have led denominations to choose between prayer and service evangelization and justice the church must integrate heart mind and body in order to fulfil its calling to transform the world from within Drawing from Scripture and a wide range of Christian traditions from the monastic to the evangelical this book inspires its readers to integrate spiritual renewal and prophetic witness for the glory of God and the good of his creation Routes and Radishes Mark L. Russell,Allen L. Yeh,Michelle Sanchez,Chelle Stearns,Dwight J. Friesen,2010-11-02 Self identifying as evangelical is risky business these days What is Evangelicalism Is it a historical artifact A political philosophy A set of doctrines A litmus test for genuine faith Perhaps more important what will come to mind when future generations hear something described as evangelical The authors of Routes and Radishes approach this issue from various points of influence within evangelical organizations denominations and institutions They believe that the historical distinctive of Evangelicalism is too powerful and too positive to be abandoned Yet they all desire that the Evangelicalism of the future break away from common pitfalls in the task of loving people toward a vital relationship with God through Jesus Christ Each author brings a different but vital perspective to the conversation this book represents They chart a path that while not monolithic takes seriously the past and potential of the evangelical movement Furthermore they invite you to digest participate question and make the future of Evangelicalism a meaningful part of your walk of faith

The Continuing Conversion of the Church Darrell L. Guder, 2000-03-20 Western society is now a very different very difficult mission field In such a situation the mission of evangelism cannot succeed with an attitude of business as usual This volume builds a theology of evangelism that has its focus on the church itself Darrell Guder shows that the church's missionary calling requires that the theology and practice of evangelism be fundamentally rethought and redirected focused on the continuing evangelization of the church so that it can carry out its witness faithfully in today's world In Part 1 Guder explores how under the influence of reductionism and individualism the church has historically moved away from a biblical theology of evangelism Part 2 presents contemporary challenges to the church's evangelical ministry especially those challenges that illustrate the church's need for continuing conversion Part 3 discusses what a truly missional theology would mean for the church including sweeping changes in its institutional structures and practices Written for teachers church leaders and students of evangelism this volume is vital reading for everyone engaged in mission work Prophetic Dialogue Stephen B. Bevans, Roger P. Schroeder, 2011 A collection of essays that demonstrates that to be effective in the twenty first century mission must be prophetic as it encounters other cultures and religious traditions When we speak as mission as dialogue then we are about as far away from imagining mission as conquering the world for Christ and missionaries as marines of the Catholic Church as we probably can get There has indeed been a radical shift both in the world in which the church does mission and within the church's own consciousness of the goodness and even holiness of that world These words from one of the essays in this superb collection clearly demonstrate the changing of mission today In this volume Fathers Bevans and Schroeder address a primary challenge faced by Christians missionaries today How can they bring the Christian tradition to interact respectfully and effectively with members of other cultures and traditions from around the globe and still be prophetic Three Spheres of Evangelism: Worship, Discipleship, and Mission Scott Stewart, 2013 Practicing the Way John Mark Comer, 2025-01-07 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER The author of The Ruthless Elimination of Hurry calls us to rediscover the path that leads to a deeper life with God One of the most important books I have read in a decade If we would all follow in this way our lives would change and the world would change Jennie Allen author of Get Out of Your Head and Find Your People We are constantly being formed by the world around us To be formed by Jesus will require us to become his apprentice To live by what the first Christian disciples called a Rule of Life a set of practices and relational rhythms that slow us down and open up space in our daily lives for God to do what only God can do transforms the deepest parts of us to become like him This introduction to spiritual formation is full of John Mark Comer s trademark mix of theological substance and cultural insight as well as practical wisdom on developing your own Rule of Life These ancient practices have much to offer us By learning to rearrange our days we can follow the Way of Jesus We can be with him Become like him And do as he did

The Negro's Church Benjamin E. Mays,2015-08-04 Benjamin E Mays 1894 1984 was President and Professor Emeritus of Morehouse College The Oxford Handbook of Methodist Studies William J. Abraham,James E. Kirby,2009-09-24 With the decision to provide of a scholarly edition of the Works of John Wesley in the 1950s Methodist Studies emerged as a fresh academic venture Building on the foundation laid by Frank Baker Albert Outler and other pioneers of the discipline this handbook provides an overview of the best current scholarship in the field The forty two included essays are representative of the voices of a new generation of international scholars summarising and expanding on topical research and considering where their work may lead Methodist Studies in the future Thematically ordered the handbook provides new insights into the founders history structures and theology of Methodism and into ongoing developments in the practice and experience of the contemporary movement Key themes explored include worship forms mission ecumenism and engagement with contemporary ethical and political debate

A Missiology of the Road J Kevin Livingston,2014-09-25 David Bosch 1929 1992 was one of the foremost mission theologians of the twentieth century a prolific scholar committed church leader and active participant in the global conciliar and evangelical mission movements His distinctive role in the South African church s struggle against apartheid is less well known however After reviewing Bosch s background and exploring key themes in his understanding of mission and evangelism Livingston explores Bosch s legacy from the perspective of the missionary nature of the church The church is God s kingdom community acting as a witness to and instrument of the coming reign of God The church is God s alternative community simultaneously set apart from the world but also existing for the sake of the world exemplifying the radical implications of Christ's new community. It is also God's reconciled and reconciling community serving as a sign and embodiment of God's love in Christ. For those acquainted with Bosch only as the author of his magisterial Transforming Mission: A Missiology of the Road, this book shows how Bosch integrated his theology and practice in a faithful contextually relevant way within South Africa and the global church.

Durante los pasados cincuenta años el énfasis sobre la práctica y estrategia de la obra misionera ha menoscabado el valor de la importancia de la teología de la misión. Sin embargo, en las últimas décadas teólogos y misionólogos de todas las tradiciones cristianas han comenzado a reexaminar y repensar las suposiciones teológicas que fundamentan la obra misionera. En Misión en el Camino, Charles Van Engen articula con claridad muchos de los conceptos fundamentales de la teología de la misión. Charles Van Engen en este volumen aborda numerosos temas misionológicos centrales. Examina la cuestión de construir teologías en contextos específicos tales como en la ciudad. También nos muestra tanto los beneficios como las preocupaciones que experimentamos cuando alentamos a los creyentes a teologizar dentro de su propio entorno cuando tomamos con seriedad el sacerdocio de todos los creyentes. Hace un delineamiento de los debates actuales sobre asuntos levantados por el pluralismo religioso y batalla con la manera en que podemos proclamar el carácter único de Cristo sin ser arrogantes y triunfalistas. Echa una mirada al impacto que la modernidad y la posmodernidad están teniendo sobre el movimiento misionero en Occidente y hace un llamado a la renovación de nuestro compromiso como seguidores de Jesucristo en los duros ambientes culturales de nuestros días. Explora los roles cambiantes de misioneros y ministros en iglesias jóvenes y levanta preguntas difíciles relacionadas con la unidad de la iglesia en medio de su proliferación, diversidad y fragmentación de carácter global. Son de excepcional valor la manera en que Van Engen traza la historia de la discusión reciente sobre cada uno de estos asuntos y la riqueza de fuentes bibliográficas que nos presenta para más estudio. Igualmente importantes son las repuestas que ofrece a estas cuestiones, respuestas que nos ayudan a movernos más allá de los caminos sin salida que tanto caracterizan nuestro pensamiento actual.
