

The background of the entire page is a sepia-toned illustration of an industrial steel mill. In the upper portion, several tall smokestacks are visible, with thick plumes of smoke or steam rising from them. A complex network of pipes and structural beams crisscrosses the upper half of the image. The lower half of the image shows a more detailed view of the mill's interior, where large cylindrical objects, likely coils of steel, are being processed or moved along a conveyor system. Two workers in dark clothing are visible in the lower-left foreground, one appearing to be operating a machine or inspecting a component. The overall atmosphere is one of a busy, early 20th-century industrial setting.
