Annual World Bank Conference On Development Economics 2001 2002:

Annual World Bank Conference on Development Economics 2001/2002 Boris Pleskovic,Nicholas Stern,2002-01-01

The expected growth in the world's population over the next 25 years increases the urgency of addressing questions of poverty and development. This annual conference brings together leading international academics and practitioners to debate current issues in development policy and their implications for the global economy. This book contains the collection of conference papers from the 13th annual conference held in May 2001 which focused on two broad themes of globalisation and inequality and health and development issues.

Boris Pleskovic,Nicholas Herbert Stern,2002 The Moral Fabric in Contemporary Societies Grażyna Sknapska,Anna Maria Orla-Bukowska,Krzysztof Kowalski,2003 These IIS annals delve into the issues of trust economic inequalities multiple modernities postcommunism corruption and finally genocide and its social consequences. The book opens and closes with reflections on the theoretical aspects of what constitutes the moral fabric today.

World Bank East Asia and Pacific Economic Update 2011 World Bank,2013-06-26 The World Bank East Asia and Pacific Economic Update is a comprehensive twice yearly review of the region's economies prepared by the East Asia and Pacific region of the World Bank. In this edition the report notes that real GDP growth in East Asia has been moderating after a sharp rebound from the global crisis. Inflation has become the key short run challenge for the authorities in the region complicated by a surge in portfolio capital inflows and rapidly increasing food and commodity prices that hit low income households disproportionately. Over the medium term East Asia has the potential to sustain rapid increases in living standards even as the global economy enters a more challenging phase.

Competition Law and Regional Economic Integration Damien Geradin,2004 Rethinking Development Economics Ha-Joon Chang,2003-06-20 This book addresses key issues in development economics from macroeconomics finance and governance to trade industry agriculture and poverty. Bringing together some of the foremost names in the field this comprehensive and timely collection constitutes a critical staging post in the future of development economics.

Globalisation and the Asia-Pacific Iyanatul Islam,Moazzem Hossain,2006-06-27 Presents contested perspectives on globalisation illustrated by the diverse experiences of selected economies of the Asia Pacific as case studies. Country experiences ranging from broad political economy perspectives to industry case studies are discussed Australian Islam from Griffith university.

This publication examines the realities faced by urban populations around the world focusing on the impact of globalisation and the way cities are governed and planned on the make up and density of their population and on their cultures and economies. Issues considered include the impact of globalisation on urban culture urban renewal and cultural strategies the concept of metropolitanization socio economic and cultural impacts of international migration.

urban poverty and homelessness social inequality and exclusion urban governance safety and crime trends contemporary planning strategies and the role of civil society progress towards attainment of the Millennium Development Goals targets for sanitation and housing The report highlights the need for a new culture of planning to establish multicultural and inclusive cities involving civil society as well as public authorities

Human Development Report 2005 United Nations

Development Programme,2005 The Human Development Report 2005 examines the scale of the challenge facing the world at the start of the ten year countdown to the 2015 Millennium Development Goals mark The Report focuses on three pillars of cooperation each of which is in urgent need of renovation The first pillar is international aid the Millennium Development Goals MDGs project has been compromised by chronic and sustained under financing allied to problems in aid quality The second pillar is international trade Under the right conditions trade can act as a powerful catalyst for human development The development round of World Trade Organization talks launched in 2001 provided northern governments with an opportunity to create those conditions The third pillar is that of security violent conflict is a source of systematic human rights violation and a barrier to progress towards the MDGs that must be overcome

Reinventing Foreign Aid William R.

Easterly,2008-05-09 Top experts in the field discuss how to improve the effectiveness of foreign aid proposing practical solutions to specific problems rather than a utopian master plan The urgency of reducing poverty in the developing world has been the subject of a public campaign by such unlikely policy experts as George Clooney Alicia Keyes Elton John Angelina Jolie and Bono And yet accompanying the call for more foreign aid is an almost universal discontent with the effectiveness of the existing aid system In Reinventing Foreign Aid development expert William Easterly has gathered top scholars in the field to discuss how to improve foreign aid These authors Easterly points out are not claiming that their ideas will to invoke a current slogan Make Poverty History Rather they take on specific problems and propose some hard headed solutions Easterly himself in an expansive and impassioned introductory chapter makes a case for the searchers who explore solutions by trial and error and learn from feedback over the planners who throw an endless supply of resources at a big goal as the most likely to reduce poverty Other writers look at scientific evaluation of aid projects including randomized trials and describe projects found to be cost effective including vaccine delivery and HIV education consider how to deal with the government of the recipient state work through it or bypass a possibly dysfunctional government examine the roles of the International Monetary Fund a de facto aid provider and the World Bank and analyze some new and innovative proposals for distributing aid Contributors Abhijit Banerjee Nancy Birdsall Craig Burnside Esther Duflo Domenico Fanizza William Easterly Ruimin He Kurt Hoffman Stephen Knack Michael Kremer Mari Kuraishi Ruth Levine Bertin Martens John McMillan Edward Miguel Jonathan Morduch Todd Moss Gunilla Pettersson Lant Pritchett Steven Radelet Aminur Rahman Ritva Reinikka Jakob Svensson Nicolas van de Walle James Vreeland Dennis Whittle Michael Woolcock

Economic Development in Asia John

Malcolm Dowling,2004 ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT IN ASIA explores factors that influence economic growth and development particularly from an asian development perspective Grounded firmly on theoretical foundations it showcases the richness and variety of the Asian development experience through extensive coverage of individual country case studies institutional developments and challenges facing policy makers in the region as well as in depth discussions of existing empirical evidence This book is specially tailored to meet the needs of social science students studying economic development in Asia University students educators and government policy makers will find the book particularly useful for understanding growth and development trends in the context of a rapidly globalizing world With the rising tide of interest in Asian economies the book will prove to be an invaluable for anyone seeking to better understand the process of growth and economic development in the region    Aging and Health in Africa Pranitha Maharaj,2012-08-16 Population aging is a matter of global concern It often occurs in tandem with changes in the health profile of the population In Africa many countries are already facing a high burden of communicable diseases However as more and more children survive childhood and move on to adult years and old age they are also more likely to experience health problems associated with the aging process Population aging in Africa is occurring in the context of high levels of poverty changing family structures an immense disease burden fragile health systems and weak or poorly managed government institutions This book shows that aging is likely to lead to increased social and economic demands for the continent However most national governments in Africa have not begun to address the issue of how to respond effectively to the needs of the older population This will require a better understanding of the socio economic and demographic situation of the older population in Africa This book fills the gaps that exist by exploring the social realities of population aging in Africa It also focuses on the policy and programmatic responses gaps and future challenges related to aging across the continent

Effects of Financial Globalization on Developing Countries - Some Empirical Evidence International Monetary Fund,2003-12-02 NULL    International Development Governance Ahmed Shafiqul Huque,Habib Zafarullah,2017-09-25 The establishment of good governance is a major challenge for the developing world along with the need to sustain the progress resulting from developmental efforts Although there are numerous studies on the development and governance of emerging nations few volumes make a serious effort to bring together these two critical concepts International Development Governance combines the two concepts development and governance by examining the issues and problems faced by nations in their attempts to establish sustainable governance This textbook also initiates discussions on the concept of development governance in an international context The book fills the gap in existing literature by drawing upon the experience and expertise of scholars from a broad spectrum of knowledge Their views explain the issues and problems with reference to a number of tools that could establish development governance and sustain it The text offers in depth examinations of developmental sectors resulting in a textbook that will inspire future public officials policy makers and consultants to contribute to the betterment of life for citizens of developing countries    Banking Sector Liberalization in India Christian Roland,2007-10-25 Banking Sector Liberalization in India explores in detail the changes in the Indian banking sector over the last 20 years and puts them into a comparative perspective with the Chinese banking sector. For this purpose the author develops a detailed indicator based framework for assessing the liberalization of a banking sector along various process steps based on financial liberalization and transformation studies. This framework along with the indicators for the process and the results of liberalization is applied to the banking sectors in India and China to test for the effects of liberalization on the sector and the macro level. The key finding is that while liberalization has improved the sectoral performance it has so far had no effect on the macro level. The book features a detailed description of recent reforms in the Indian banking sector a set of indicators for evaluating banking sector reforms and a large number of graphs with key figures for the banking sectors in India and China.

Testing Global Interdependence Natalia E. Dinello, Ernest Aryeetey, 2007-01-01

While many countries may embrace globalization at the conceptual level the specifics of implementation vary greatly from country to country. This book includes diverse narratives which suggest how to limit globalization's negative aspects and ensure constructive engagement in the global community.

Making Global Trade Work for People, 2003 First Published in 2003 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company.

Global Prescriptions Rosalind P. Petchesky, 2003-08 Global Prescriptions is a critical yet optimistic analysis of the role of transnational women's groups in setting the agendas for women's health in international and national settings. The book reviews a decade of women's participation in UN conferences transnational networks national advocacy efforts and sexual and reproductive health provision assessing both their strengths and weaknesses. It critiques the Cairo Beijing and Copenhagen conference documents and World Bank WHO and health sector reform policies. It also offers case studies of national level reform and advocacy efforts and appraises the controversy concerning TRIPS trade and essential AIDS drugs. The author takes into account the formidable political and ideological forces confronting global justice movements and also offers a sobering reassessment of transnational women's NGOs themselves and such problems as NGOization fragmentation and donor dependency. Petchesky argues that the power of women's transnational coalitions is only as great as their organic connection with grassroots social movements.

Globalization and the Myths of Free Trade Anwar Shaikh, 2007-01-24 Written by an international team of contributors this book is a critical examination of the ongoing enterprise of neoliberalism its history theory practice and most of all of its outcomes.
