The Jews in Palestine in the Eighteenth Century Y. Barnay, 1992 Research reveals a clear connection between the legal and social status of the Jews in Palestine in the 18th century and their ties with the Diaspora The Jews who had immigrated to Palestine in that period were mostly poor and elderly The country was economically backward and politically unstable which made it impossible for the immigrants to support themselves through productive work Therefore they lived off the contributions of their brethren overseas Taxes and fees imposed by the Ottoman rulers increased the financial desperation of the Jews in Palestine Prohibitions against young unmarried immigrant men and women made for an unstable population largely of old men many of whom died shortly after immigrating Families succumbed to disease earthquakes and famine but in the face of these problems the Jewish communities in Palestine persevered When financial support ceased at the beginning of the 18th century it caused a severe crisis in the Yishuv the Jewish settlement in Palestine The Jews were unable to repay their debts to the Moslems and many left the country In 1726 a central organization was established in Istanbul to coordinate the Diaspora financial support of the Jews in Palestine This Istanbul Committee of Officials oversaw the collection of support money for the Yishuv managed the Palestine community's budget established regulations for governing the communities and settled disputes between the Jews and the gentiles The importance of the Yishuv in the spiritual life of the Diaspora alone could not ensure the continuation of the Istanbul Officials was crucial Fortunately a registry containing copies of 500 letters written by the Istanbul Committee in the mid 18th century was preserved in the archives of the Jewish Theological Seminary These letters reveal the extensive activity involving the Istanbul Committee and the Ottoman authorities the Jews of Palestine and the Diaspora In this English translation of the original 1982 volume published in Hebrew Barnai has updated his research to take into account recent scholarship He concludes that during the period under review the number of Jews in the Yishuv was actually very small but they were completely dependent upon the charitable financial support of their brethren overseas as well as the goodwill of the country's rulers

Hastening Redemption Arie Morgenstern, 2006-06-22. Accounts of the history of Zionism usually trace its origins to the late nineteenth century. In this groundbreaking book, Arie Morgenstern argues that its roots go back even further. Morgenstern argues compellingly that the Jewish community in Israel may be traced back to a large-scale wave of immigration during the first half of the nineteenth century. Inspired by an expectation for the coming of the Messiah in the year 1840, thousands of Jews from throughout the Ottoman Empire, North Africa, and Eastern Europe relocated to Jerusalem. Morgenstern describes the messianic awakening in all these lands but focuses primarily on the concept of redemption through messianic activism that prevailed among the disciples of Rabbi Elijah the Gaon of Vilna. These immigrants believed that the Messiah's arrival would bring about the redemption of the Jews but also that in order for this redemption to come about, they needed to prepare the way for the Messiah by fulfilling the commandment to dwell in the land of Israel. Morgenstern offers a dramatic account of their relocation, their efforts to renew rabbinic ordination, their reestablishment of the Ashkenazi community, and the building of Jerusalem. He also explores the crisis of faith that followed the Messiah's failure to appear as expected and its effects on the community. Drawing on a wealth of previously untapped sources, Morgenstern sheds important new light on the history of messianic Judaism and on the ideological trends that preceded and eventually gave birth to modern political Zionism. *Israel's watchman (and prophetic expositor) [afterw.] The prophetic news and Israel's watchman, ed. by A.
