mentors Reflexivity and Change in Adaptive Physical Activity Donna Goodwin, Maureen Connolly, 2022-12-05 This provocative and challenging book argues for the vital importance of critical self reflexion in the field of adaptive physical activity APA It makes a powerful case for embracing discussions of the harm caused by ableist assumptions of the ideal body maximizing capabilities and perfecting normative based movement that dominate contemporary discourse in APA and calls for more critical introspection about what APA is how it is performed and what might be needed to bring a collaborative relational ethic to this field The book focuses on two key themes Firstly how ableism as a foundational belief system of APA is present in the undergraduate curriculum professional preparation professional practice and organizational policies Secondly how to make the comfortable uncomfortable by openly debating the harm that results from non reflexive nondisabled hubris in APA The goal is to spark an exchange of ideas among scholars practitioners and organizational leaders and therefore to shift the paradigm from one of professional expertism to one that centres disability wisdom holders bringing a fundamental change to how we perform adaptive physical activity This book is important progressive reading for anybody with an interest in adaptive physical activity adapted physical education disability sport inclusive education the philosophy and ethics of disability and sport or disability in wider society On Being Someone Helen Oppenheimer, 2016-08-01 This book continues the discussions in What a piece of work on being human Imprint Academic 2006 and may be considered its sequel Among all the creatures in the physical universe humans seem to be more than simply physical because they are aware of being creatures in the universe Human beings essentially belong to the world of nature yet stand out as the most complex and fascinating of all living beings Like and also unlike other animals they respond to what happens to them they make plans and carry them out they recognize one another sometimes lovingly they make friends and enjoy their company they shape the world around them for convenience and for delight they ask questions both practical and theoretical and many of them try to praise God In What a Piece of Work Helen Oppenheimer considered humankind as part of the natural universe which Christians believe God set in motion asking how human beings stand among other creatures and how they are to be valued In this volume she leaves aside comparisons with our fellow creatures in order to attend to our own experience It makes a good start to think of oneself as a human animal but then we need to go further and ask what does it mean to be a person to be counted as someone Introducing Medicines Management Sherri Ogston-Tuck, 2013-11-26 Medicine administration is a fundamental aspect of the nursing role carrying with it great risk and requiring a high level of skill and background knowledge This student friendly text will take you through the basic concepts of medicines management to the essential skills needed in practice Introducing Medicines Management provides an awareness of the inter relationship between the patient the medicine and the prescription as a fundamental systems approach and will help you to understand how this is related to medicines management Bioethics Peter A. Clark, 2016-12-29 The main strength of this book is that it examines the challenges facing the field of Bioethics today from medical ethical and legal perspectives A critical exchange of ideas from professionals in interdisciplinary fields allows everyone to learn and benefit from the insights gained through others experiences Examining analyzing and understanding these complex medical ethical legal issues and cases and how they are resolved will serve as a paradigm for all professionals who will be confronted with these complex bioethical issues now and in the future The more we face these challenges directly examine them critically and debate them enthusiastically the more knowledge will be gained and hopefully we will gain more practical wisdom
