Approaches To Teaching Lafayettes The Princess Of Cleves:

Entre Hommes Todd W. Reeser, Lewis Carl Seifert, 2008 Despite its debt to French thought for theoretical constructs masculinity studies have been dominated by work on English language texts and contexts Entre Hommes lays the foundation for French and Francophone masculinity studies in both a cultural and theoretical sense This ground breaking volume considers what is meant by French or Francophone masculinities per se and how these identities have or have not changed over time with essays spanning periods from the Middle Ages to the present An introduction situates the study of masculinity within the work of recent French thinkers and essays examine both key writers and recurring cultural images

Fortune and Fatality Desmond Hosford, Charles Wrightington, 2009-10-02 As an aesthetic notion and dramatic genre tragedy has enjoyed a privileged place in French culture particularly during the early modern period when debates over its nature and philosophy reflected fascination with a style whose fundamental principles were drawn from ancient Greek sources Through the works of Pierre Corneille and Jean Racine routinely cited for an alleged regularity of form and content exemplifying the academic notion of French Classicism tragedy has grounded the French literary canon Because of its place at the heart of canonical French literary studies tragedy's traditionally prescribed boundaries and interpretations have rarely been questioned Fortune and Fatality Performing the Tragic in Early Modern France challenges conventional notions of the nature and function of tragedy and the ends to which philosophical theatrical and performative aspects of the tragic were appropriated during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries The scope of material explored in this volume will be of interest not only to scholars and students of sixteenth and seventeenth century literature but to those working in areas such as theater gender studies aesthetics history religion philosophy classics and cultural studies

Revue d'histoire littéraire de la France Maurice Tourneux, 1999

A Mother's Love Lesley H. Walker, 2008 Chronicles the emergence of an idealized mother figure whose reforming zeal sought to make French society more just This book contends that this attempt during the eighteenth century to rewrite social relations in terms of greater social equality represents an important but overlooked strand of Enlightenment thought

The European Roman d'Analyse Adele Kudish, 2020-01-23 Through close readings of a selection of European novels and novellas written between 1340 and 1827 this study of analytical fiction examines how unconsummated love stories probe the frailty of self knowledge Tracing elements of what the French call the roman d'analyse in the works of Boccaccio Marguerite de Navarre Cervantes Marie de Lafayette Samuel Richardson Jane Austen and Stendhal Adele Kudish discusses how the metaphor of unconsummated love is deployed to represent a fundamental lack of insight into the self Rather than depicting the mind as transparent analytical fiction deals in the opacity of the mind Narrators and characters are faced with deception misprision doubt and confusion leading to self deception jealousy and crises of self The European Roman d'Analyse reads such epistemological failures as symptoms of a more fundamental preoccupation with the human psyche as unchartable and bizarre In this way the authors of romans d'analyse enact a larger
