Approaches to the Qur'an in Contemporary Indonesia Abdullah Saeed, 2005-11-10 Indonesia is the world's most populous Muslim country but much of its scholarly work on Islam is not available to a wider readership This volume brings together a wide range of Muslim intellectuals from traditionalists to modernists and makes their varied approaches to the Qur'an accessible to an English speaking audience for the first time Topics covered range from textual interpretation and religious pluralism to debates on polygamy within the Indonesian Muslim women's movement and the use of Qur'anic verses in contemporary Indonesian politics

Interpreting the Qur'ān Abdullah Saeed, 2006 How is the Qur'an central to all Muslim societies to be understood today in order to meet the needs of these societies Abdullah Saeed a distinguished Muslim scholar explores the interpretation of the ethico legal content of the Qur'an whilst taking into consideration the changing nature of the modern world Saeed explores the current debates surrounding the interpretation of the Qur'an and their impact on contemporary understanding of this sacred text Discussing the text's relevance to modern issues without compromising the overall framework of the Qur'an and its core beliefs and practices he proposes a fresh approach which takes into account the historical and contemporary contexts of interpretation Inspiring healthy debate this book is essential reading for students and scholars seeking a contemporary approach to the interpretation of the Qur'anic text Reading the Qur'an in the Twenty-First Century Abdullah Saeed, 2013-12-04 Reading the Qur'an in the Twenty First Century considers the development of Qur'anic interpretation and highlights modern debates around new approaches to interpretation. It explores how Muslims from various theological, legal, socio-political and philosophical backgrounds think about the meaning and relevance of the Qur'an and how their ideas apply in the contemporary world. The book reflects on one of the most dominant approaches to interpretation in the pre-modern period: textualism, and the reaction to that in Muslim feminist readings of the Qur'an today. It covers issues such as identifying the hierarchical nature of Qur'anic values, the criteria for the use of hadith in interpretation, fluidity of meaning and ways of ensuring a degree of stability in interpretation. It examines key Qur'anic passages and compares pre-modern and modern interpretations to show the evolving nature of interpretation. Examples discussed include the authority of men over women, the death of Jesus, shura and democracy, and riba and interest. Abdullah Saeed provides a practical guide for interpretation and presents the principal ideas of a contextualist approach which situates the original message of the Qur'an in its wider social, political, cultural, economic and intellectual context. He advocates a more flexible method of interpretation that gives due recognition to earlier interpretations of the Qur'an while also being aware of changing conditions and the need to approach the Qur'an afresh today Qur'anic Studies John E. Articulating Islam: Anthropological Approaches to Muslim Worlds Magnus Marsden, Konstantinos Retsikas, 2012-11-08 This collection of arresting and innovative chapters applies the techniques of anthropology in analyzing the role played by Islam in the social lives of the world's Muslims. The volume begins with an introduction that sets out a powerful case for a fresh approach to this kind of research, exhorting anthropologists to pause and reflect on when Islam is and is not a central feature of their informants' life worlds and identities. The chapters that follow are written by scholars with long-term specialist research experience in Muslim societies ranging from Kenya to Pakistan and from Yemen to China; thus they explore and compare Islam's social significance in a variety of settings that are not confined to the Middle East or South Asia alone. The authors assess how helpful current anthropological research is in shedding light on Islam's relationship to contemporary societies. Collectively, the contributors deploy both theoretical and ethnographic analysis of key developments in the anthropology of Islam over the last 30 years, even as they extrapolate their findings to address wider debates over the anthropology of world religions more generally. Crucially, they also tackle the thorny question of how, in the current political context, anthropologists might continue conducting sensitive and nuanced work with Muslim communities. Finally, an afterword by a scholar of Christianity explores the conceptual parallels between the book's key themes and the anthropology of world religions in a broader context. This volume has key contemporary relevance; for example, its conclusions on the fluidity of people's relations with Islam will provide an important counterpoint to many commonly held assumptions about the incontestability of Islam in the public sphere Dynamics of Islam in the Modern World Saeed Zarrabi-Zadeh, Armina

Omerika,Thomas K. Gugler,Michael E. Asbury,2022-07-11 Dynamics of Islam in the Modern World scrutinizes and analyzes Islam in context It posits Muslims not as independent and autonomous but as relational and interactive agents of change and continuity who interplay with Islamic ate sources of self and society as well as with resources from other traditions Representing multiple disciplinary approaches the contributors to this volume discuss a broad range of issues such as secularization colonialism globalization radicalism human rights migration hermeneutics mysticism religious normativity and pluralism while paying special attention to three geographical settings of South Asia the Middle East and Euro America

Approaches to

Islam in Religious Studies Richard C. Martin, 1985 Contemporary Approaches to the Qur'an and Sunnah Mahmoud Ayoub, 2012-01-01 The Qur'an and Sunnah are the two primary sources of Muslim faith, life, law, and morality. The Qur'an is for Muslims the foundation of their faith, and the Sunnah is the framework of their morality. Together they constitute the two sources of the law, Shari'ah, of God, a guide to prosperity and happiness in this life and to the bliss of the hereafter. Although the Qur'an and Sunnah are materially and formally two independent sources, they are inextricably bound in a dynamic relationship. The rulings and precepts (ahkam) of the Qur'an constitute the law (shari'ah) of God. They are supplemented by the precepts of the authentic Sunnah, which possess authority second only to the precepts of the Qur'an. The Qur'an commands Muslims: "Whatever the Messenger gives you, that you must take, and whatever he forbids you, you must desist therefrom." (59:7)

Islam, Modernity and a New Millennium Ali Paya, 2018-02-02 As the world becomes increasingly globalised, Islam faces some important choices. Does it seek to modernise in line with the cultures in which it is practised, or does it retain its traditions even if they are at odds with the surrounding society? This book utilizes a critical rationalist viewpoint to illuminate many of the hotly contested issues in modern Islam and to offer a fresh analysis. A variety of issues within Islam are discussed in this book, including Muslims and modernity, Islam, Christianity, and Judaism, approaches to the understanding of the Quran, Muslim identity and civil society, doctrinal certainty, and violent radicalism. In each case, the author makes use of Karl Popper's theory of critical rationalism to uncover new aspects of these issues and to challenge post-modern relativist, literalist, and justificationist readings of Islam. This is a unique perspective on contemporary Islam, and as such will be of significant interest to scholars of Religious Studies, Islamic Studies, and the Philosophy of Religion.
