Blair, Jonathan M. Bloom, 1996-09-25 They discuss for example how the universal caliphs of the first six centuries gave way to regional rulers and how in this new world order Iranian forms techniques and motifs played a dominant role in the artistic life of most of the Muslim world the one exception was the Maghrib an area protected from the full brunt of the Mongol invasions where traditional models continued to inspire artists and patrons By the sixteenth century say the authors the eastern Mediterranean under the Ottomans and the area of northern India under the Mughals had become more powerful and the Iranian models of early Ottoman and Mughal art gradually gave way to distinct regional and imperial styles Medieval Islamic Maps Karen C. Pinto, 2016-11-01 Hundreds of exceptional cartographic images are scattered throughout medieval and early modern Arabic Persian and Turkish manuscript collections The plethora of copies created around the Islamic world over the course of eight centuries testifies to the enduring importance of these medieval visions for the Muslim cartographic imagination With Medieval Islamic Maps historian Karen C Pinto brings us the first in depth exploration of medieval Islamic cartography from the mid tenth to the nineteenth century Pinto focuses on the distinct tradition of maps known collectively as the Book of Roads and Kingdoms Kitab al Masalik wa al Mamalik or KMMS examining them from three distinct angles iconography context and patronage She untangles the history of the KMMS maps traces their inception and evolution and analyzes them to reveal the identities of their creators painters and patrons as well as the vivid realities of the social and physical world they depicted In doing so Pinto develops innovative techniques for approaching the visual record of Islamic history explores how medieval Muslims perceived themselves and their world and brings Middle Eastern maps into the forefront of the study of the history of cartography

Lives of the Prophets Mohamad Reza Ghiasian, 2018-08-13 In Lives of the Prophets The Illustrations to Hafiz i Abru s Assembly of Chronicles Mohamad Reza Ghiasian analyses two extant copies of the Majma al tawarikh produced for the Timurid ruler Shahrukh r 1405 1447 The first manuscript is kept in Topkap Palace and the second is widely dispersed Codicological analysis of these manuscripts not only allows a better understanding of Hafiz i Abru s contributions to rewriting earlier history but has served to identify the existence of a previously unrecognised copy of the Jami al tawarikh produced at Rashid al Din s scriptorium Through a meticulous close reading of both text and image Mohamad Reza Ghiasian convincingly proves that numerous paintings of the dispersed manuscript were painted over the text before its dispersal in the early twentieth century

Botanical Icons Andrew Griebeler, 2024-02-28 A richly illustrated account of how premodern botanical illustrations document evolving knowledge about plants and the ways they were studied in the past This book traces the history of botanical illustration in the Mediterranean from antiquity to the early modern period By examining Greek Latin and Arabic botanical inquiry in this early era Andrew Griebeler shows how diverse and sophisticated modes of plant depiction emerged and ultimately gave rise to practices now recognized as central to modern botanical illustration The author draws on centuries of remarkable and varied documentation from across Europe and the Mediterranean Lavishly illustrated Botanical Icons marshals ample evidence for a dynamic and critical tradition of botanical inquiry and nature observation in the late antique and medieval Mediterranean The author reveals that many of the critical practices characteristic of modern botanical illustrations began in premodern manuscript culture Consequently he demonstrates that the distinctions between pre and early modern botanical illustration center more on the advent of print the expansion of collections and documentation and the narrowing of the range of accepted forms of illustration than on the invention of critical and observational practices exclusive to modernity Griebeler s emphasis on continuity intercultural collaboration and the gradual transformation of Mediterranean traditions of critical botanical illustration persuasively counters previously prevalent narratives of rupture and Western European exceptionalism in the histories of art and science
