Arab Economic Integration Between Hope And Reality:

Arab Economic Integration Ahmed Galal, Bernard M. Hoekman, 2003-05-15 A Brookings Institution Press and the Egyptian Center for Economic Studies ECES publication Improving the economic performance of Arab countries is now more critical than ever The region faces high population growth rates rising unemployment and modest economic growth coupled with increasingly intense competition from emerging markets in eastern Europe Latin America and Asia Meeting these challenges requires finding ways to overcome political obstacles that impede socially beneficial economic reforms Despite fifty years of repeated attempts at Arab economic integration the results in terms of intraregional trade and investment flows have been very modest This book explains why and discusses possible ways forward The authors draw especially on the success of the European Union to assess the scope of Arab economic integration as an instrument for narrowing the persistent gap between the region's economic potential and its performance Arab Economic Integration Ahmed Galal, Bernard M. Hoekman, 2003-05-15 A Brookings Institution Press and the Egyptian Center for Economic Studies ECES publication Improving the economic performance of Arab countries is now more critical than ever The region faces high population growth rates rising unemployment and modest economic growth coupled with increasingly intense competition from emerging markets in eastern Europe Latin America and Asia Meeting these challenges requires finding ways to overcome political obstacles that impede socially beneficial economic reforms Despite fifty years of repeated attempts at Arab economic integration the results in terms of intraregional trade and investment flows have been very modest This book explains why and discusses possible ways forward The authors draw especially on the success of the European Union to assess the scope of Arab economic integration as an instrument for narrowing the persistent gap between the region's economic potential and its performance Limits to Regional Integration Søren Døsenrode, 2016-03-09 Regionalization in general and regional integration in particular have taken place at a growing pace since the end of the Cold War when states were set free from various security overlays Regional integration is logical as it is supposed to advance wealth and peace Still the picture is far from clear and the process of regional integration is not automatic disintegration takes place as we saw in the cases of the Soviet Union Yugoslavia and Czechoslovakia to mention a few This is the case not only in states recently brought together but also in traditional states like Britain The Netherlands and Spain where strong groups strive for independence In some places regionalization is flourishing but regional integration is not Some regional integration projects like the North American Free Trade Agreement and Mercosur seem to stagnate Certainly there are limits to regional integration This comprehensive volume written by high profiled academics covers these themes by examining eleven cases ranging from the lack of integration in the Arctic and the Middle East to ongoing or progressing integration in Europe to uncover what blocks regional integration the results of which are used for developing new theoretical insights Regional Economic Integration in the Middle East and North Africa Mustapha Rouis, Steven R. Tabor, 2012-12-11 This book summarizes the constraints to and opportunities for deepening economic integration within the MENA region and beyond Trade and investment reform are discussed together with physical connectivity cross border trade facilitation infrastructure networks and the vital role of logistics Economic and Trade Policies in the Arab World Mahmoud A. T. Elkhafif, Sahar Taghdisi-Rad, Mutasim Elagraa, 2012 This book explores the link between trade policy making employment generation and poverty reduction in Arab countries It argues that because of recent high population growth and the emergence of an often highly educated youth population bulge employment generation ought to be a prime aim of economic and trade policy in Arab countries

Limits to Regional Integration Professor Søren Døsenrode, 2015-03-28 This comprehensive volume written by high profiled academics covers themes within regional integration by examining eleven cases ranging from the lack of integration in the Arctic and the Middle East to ongoing or progressing integration in Europe in an effort to uncover what blocks regional integration The results of this discussion are used for developing new theoretical insights

Rethinking the World Trade Order Mohammad F. A. Nsour, 2010 Regional Trade Agreements RTAs have proliferated at an unprecedented pace since the creation of the World Trade Organization WTO Although the WTO legally recognizes countries entitlement to form RTAs neither the WTO nor parties to RTAs have an unequivocal understanding of the relationship between the WTO and RTAs In other words the legal controversies the result of uncertainty regarding the application of the WTO GATT laws risk undermining the objectives of the multilateral trade system This research tackles a phenomenon that is widely believed to be heavily economic and political It highlights the economic and political aspects of regionalism but largely concentrates on the legal dimension of regionalism The main argument of the book is that the first step to achieving harmony between multilateralism and regionalism is the identification of the legal uncertainties that regionalism produces when countries form RTAs without taking into account the substantive and procedural aspect of the applicable WTO GATT laws The book calls for the creation of a legal instrument i.e. agreement on RTAs that combines all of the applicable law on RTAs and simultaneously clarifies the legal language used therein Likewise the WTO should have a proactive role not merely as a coordinator of RTAs but as a watchdog for the multilateral system that has the power to prosecute violating RTAs The author is aware that political concerns are top priorities for governments and policy makers when dealing with the regionalism problematic Hence legal solutions or proposals are not sufficient to create a better international trade system without the good will of the WTO Members who are in fact the players who are striving to craft more regional trade arrangements

Regional Integration in the Middle East and North Africa Tarik Oumazzane, 2021-03-25 This book analyses and assesses the Agadir Agreement's impact on economic integration its effect on political cooperation and its role in promoting peace between participating countries in the Middle East and North Africa MENA Since the Arab Spring of 2011 the geo political situation in MENA has further drifted towards instability and uncertainty Expert analysis of the region seems to lurch from one crisis to another without moving beyond a focus on conflict Few scholars have recognised that the

MENA governments have long regarded regional economic integration as a chief policy objective to facilitate intra regional trade and promote political cooperation and peace Realising the shortcomings of the various integrative processes Morocco Tunisia Egypt and Jordan signed the Agadir Agreement in 2004 To this date it stands as one of the most significant economic agreements in the MENA region Taking into account this variety of factors this book offers a new assessment of the pull between unity and disunity in the Middle East and North Africa region

International Handbook on the Economics of Integration: General issues and regional groups Miroslav N. Jovanović, 2011-01-01 International Handbook of Economic Integration edited by Miroslav Jovanović provides timely and rich academic contributions to considerations of the widest array of integration related issues European integration has been providing an inspiration to a number of academics and researchers The Handbook is a recognition of the dynamic and strong solidarity of the European integration At the same time the European Union often provided an example for integration schemes throughout the world which spread enormously since the mid 1990s Leading experts from all continents contributed to this Handbook which will be a valuable input into academic and policy making discussions and actions Jos Manuel Barroso President of the European Commission Miroslav Jovanović's publication represents a rich contribution to the complex issue of regional integration its benefits its shortcomings and its relationship with multilateral trade opening It sheds light over an issue which is the subject of intense discussions in trade circles Pascal Lamy Director General of the WTO Much has been written on trade agreements as a mechanism to integrate the markets of two or more countries often inspired by the European example In recent years attention has increasingly focused on the importance of economic geography as a determinant of industrial location This book combines the two strands of analysis bringing together leading experts in the fields of economic geography and international trade The result is an outstanding compilation of papers that illuminate how policies and economic forces affect the location of economic activity in an integrated Europe Bernard Hoekman Director The World Bank US The open multilateral trading system is a tremendous success of the past half century and has contributed greatly to the world's unprecedented rate of economic growth Over the past two decades however preferential trading arrangements have proliferated raising questions as to how compatible they are with the open multilateral system and what policies might be adopted to improve outcomes The essays in this volume detail the emergence of PTAs and provide comprehensive and up to date analyses of the state of play of preferential arrangements in all regions of the world The volume will provide a useful reference for all those wanting to understand existing preferential arrangements and their role in the international economy today Anne O Krueger Johns Hopkins University and Stanford University US Economic integration is a complex and multifaceted giant with a myriad aspects ranging from regional and global concentration and dispersal of economic activity to social and political consequences for individuals and communities in developed and developing countries alike This landmark three volume collection of chapters by leading authors drawn from many fields is a worthy and timely contribution to the analysis of a phenomenon with profound implications for the future world economy and its governance James Zhan Director Investment Enterprise Division UNCTAD With this Handbook Miroslav Jovanovi has provided readers with both an excellent stand alone original reference book as well as the first volume in a comprehensive three volume set This introduction into a rich and expanding academic and practical world of international economic integration also provides a theoretical and analytical framework to the reader presenting select analytical studies and encouraging further research International Handbook on the Economics of Integration Volume I covers two broad themes general integration issues and regional integration groups The first part discusses topics that range from an overview of the regional integration deals registered with the World Trade Organization to multilateralism and regionalism hub and spoke integration networks limits to integration rules of origin and globalization The second part of the Han From Political to Economic Awakening in the Arab World Jean-Pierre Chauffour, 2012-12-05 The popular grievances that have fueled the Arab Spring since 2010 demonstrate that past development paradigms have failed to achieve the inclusive and sustainable growth expected by Arab populations Countries in the Middle East and North Africa MENA region have failed to develop a strong private sector that is linked with global markets survives without state assistance and generates productive employment for young people One key symptom of this maldevelopment is that with the exception of the petroleum sector MENA remains the least trade integrated region in the world The Deauville Partnership launched by the Group of Eight G8 in Deauville France in May 2011 is thus strategic and timely At the request of the G8 this report provides an analytical framework for increasing trade and foreign direct investment FDI for Egypt Jordan Libya Morocco and Tunisia the Partnership countries Increased trade and FDI is a key means by which Partnership countries can achieve a path of sustainable growth that reduces youth unemployment Moreover trade and investment can also show short term results The G8 countries Turkey the Gulf states and other Deauville partners can help the new Arab democracies achieve their objectives in two main ways by effectively expanding market opportunities and by supporting domestic regulatory reforms To start implementing a long term vision of increased trade and investment integration based on an integrated economic space in the Mediterranean basin the Deauville Partnership could focus on five priority areas These are helping Partnership countries adapt to a fast changing trade FDI and jobs landscape improving market access opportunities and market regulations fostering competitiveness diversification and employment facilitating trade and mobilizing trade finance and diaspora resources and promoting inclusiveness equity and sustainability of the structural transformation brought about by the process of integration The success of the Arab political awakening will greatly depend on the emergence of such an economic awakening that can generate quality employment for the millions of young Arab men and women who seek jobs and a decent life Assessing Arab Economic Integration United Nations Publications, 2015 The goal of this first edition of the Assessing Arab Economic Integration Report is to provide a quantitative assessment of regional economic integration efforts and generate practical and implementable policy advice for Member States Following a concise review of the potential impact and channels of economic integration a system of indexes has been developed for performance evaluation monitoring and comparison of integration at the global regional and bilateral levels This report shows that Arab countries abilities to unlock the potential for further intra regional integration rely partly on their capacity to address a number of cross cutting structural features that act as facilitators and condition their performances It makes a clear argument that economic integration is a means by which Arab countries can ensure their growth and diversification thus bringing both individual country level and communal regional level benefits

The Economic Development Process in the Middle East and North Africa Alessandro Romagnoli,Luisa Mengoni,2013-11-12 Offering a comprehensive analysis of the development of economies in the Middle East and North Africa over the past half century this book charts the progress of these countries through an examination of an Islamic model of economic development reform processes and economic integration Far from being a simple process economic development in the Middle East and North Africa is dependent on the interaction of a set of changing systems including international relations the political regime economy and society By analysing these interdependent factors The Economic Development Process in MENA seeks to provide answers to the most pressing issues facing the economies in this area Providing an interpretation of regional development in light of dialectics between state and society this book will be of value to students and scholars with an interest in the Middle East Economics and International Relations

Trade Competitiveness of the Middle East and North Africa Jos R. L pez-C lix,Peter Walkenhorst,Ndiam Diop,2010-07-01 Over the past decade four major developments in global economic integration have shaped trade policy and the economic performance of countries within the Middle East and North Africa region the emergence of global supply chains the growth of trade in services the rise of China and India as major international trading powers and regional integration These developments along with the labor and natural resource endowments of particular countries some are resource poor but labor abundant some resource rich and labor abundant and some resource rich and labor importing have influenced export diversification outcomes across the region Yet these countries may not be taking full advantage of all of the opportunities the four new trends offer to them Trade Competitiveness of the Middle East and North Africa Policies for Export Diversification examines the region s trade policy agendas and their results by focusing on the countries response to these four key developments in international trade As the region recovers from the global financial and economic crises the book identifies reforms that could allow countries to further strengthen global production networks benefit more from trade in services better compete in external markets to face the rise of China and India and reach the full potential of regional integration If thoroughly implemented especially by oil exporters all of these reforms could help boost growth and job creation in the region

Initiatives of Regional Integration in Asia in Comparative Perspective Howard Loewen,Anja Zorob,2018-03-12 This volume offers to compare and explain variances of regionalism in Asia by disclosing the distinctive features of regional arrangements and how they evolved during the 1990s and 2000s against the background of a changing global environment Moreover it takes up a genuinely inter Asian perspective By analysing and comparing diverse manifestations of regional integration agreements across Asia and its different sub regions it sets out to track their common characteristics and sub regional facets with respect to their establishment design and consequences In addition political processes accompanying their negotiation and implementation are scrutinized The analysis encompasses nine case studies written by renowned scholars who together as a group combine an extraordinary mixture of different disciplinary backgrounds as well as expertise on shapes and processes of regional integration in different parts of Asia The case studies seize on some of the most important features and controversial issues characterizing the second regionalism Such are the emergence and impact of overlapping FTAs regional financial and sub regional economic integration and cooperation power and the politics of regional integration as well as the nexus between conflict resolution state failure and regional integration

The Palgrave Handbook of International Labour Migration M. Panizzon,G. Zurcher,E. Fornalé,2016-01-18 This Handbook focuses on the complexity surrounding the interaction between trade labour mobility and development taking into consideration social economic and human rights implications and identifies mechanisms for lawful movements across borders and their practical implementation

Challenges Of Economic Development In The Middle East And North Africa Region Julia C Devlin,2010-01-20 This book surveys major economic issues in the development of countries in the Middle East and North Africa MENA region since World War II It presents a framework of analysis highlighting underlying continuities in the region s approach to issues of growth management of oil and natural resources post conflict environments progress in trade liberalization and regional integration the use of industrial policy labor market adjustment and unemployment educational attainment and poverty incidence At the same time this book focuses on emerging differences across countries in the region in the prevailing approach to addressing such challenges most notably between the economies of the Gulf Cooperation Council and other MENA countries This book also incorporates a discussion of tools and methods used by development practitioners and briefly examines issues of aid effectiveness The approach used is intended to appeal to a wide audience including students of economic development political scientists and development practitioners

Europe and the Mediterranean Economy Joan Costa-Font,2012-07-26 With the creation of the Mediterranean partnership and the recent move towards the creation of the Union for the Mediterranean in 2008 a new emphasis is placed on the Mediterranean in the study of European Integration This book brings together a collection of experts to address this important new area of study and discuss issues such as development aid labour markets human capital investment Europeanization and institutional reform

Beyond Regionalism? Matteo Legrenzi,2016-04-15 Regional cooperation regionalism and regionalization in the Middle East are usually considered to be weak and rather ceremonial However since September 11 2001 a new regional order is emerging and the impact of geostrategic changes in the international environment has yet to be satisfactorily studied With older regional organizations suffering from weaknesses new forms appear to be developing and flourishing due either to European support or growing sub regional identities This volume offers refined theoretical models and approaches which are attuned to the new dynamics and contradictions of a wide range of regionalist projects in the contemporary Middle East Case studies of the most important regional organizations in different policy fields offer comprehensive overviews of the main actors institutions historical development and current issues The Middle East Economies in Times of Transition Ahmed Galal,Ishac Diwan,2016-04-08 Diwan and Galal looks at the structure and prospects of the Middle East economies after the 2011 Uprisings focusing on issues of economic growth inequality the impact of oil and the unfolding political transitions On the growth question the book looks into the extent of structural transformation of the economy the political economy reasons for the lack of structural change and the external conditions in the EU and in the GCC that underpin the lack of structural change On inequality the book offers new measures of equality of opportunity in human development and in the job market and it also reviews the complex political economy of subsidy removal Regarding natural resources the volume provides three innovations connecting the notion of oil curse to the global phenomena of asset bubbles evidence that resource curse effects do not rise monotonically with the size of the resource rent but rather according to an inverted U shape and an extension of the concept of rent to the other non oil rents that are also predominant in the region Finally the volume places the political transition in the region in a global perspective using various methods theoretical comparative and empirical and it explores the relationship between democracy in its variety of forms and economic development Sustainable Development and Adjustment in the Mediterranean Countries Following the EU Enlargement Franco Praussello,2006
