Arab Women Writers Raḍwá 'Āshūr, Ferial Jabouri Ghazoul, Hasna Reda-Mekdashy, Mandy McClure, 2008 Arab women s writing in the modern age began with A'isha al Taymuriya Warda al Yaziji Zaynab Fawwaz and other nineteenth century pioneers in Egypt and the Levant This unique study first published in Arabic in 2004 looks at the work of those pioneers and then traces the development of Arab women s literature through the end of the twentieth century and also includes a meticulously researched comprehensive bibliography of writing by Arab women In the first section in nine essays that cover the Arab Middle East from Morocco to Iraq and Syria to Yemen critics and writers from the Arab world examine the origin and evolution of women's writing in each country in the region addressing fiction poetry drama and autobiographical writing The second part of the volume contains bibliographical entries for over 1 200 Arab women writers from the last third of the nineteenth century through 1999 Each entry contains a short biography and a bibliography of each author's published works This section also includes Arab women's writing in French and English as well as a bibliography of works translated into English With its broad scope and extensive research this book is an indispensable resource for anyone interested in Arabic literature women's studies or comparative literature Contributors Emad Abu Ghazi Radwa Ashour Mohammed Berrada Ferial J Ghazoul Subhi Hadidi Haydar Ibrahim Yumna al Id Su ad al Mani Iman al Qadi Amina Rachid Huda al Sadda Hatim al Sakr

Contemporary Arab Women Writers Anastasia Valassopoulos, 2008-03-10 This book engages with contemporary Arab women writers from Egypt Palestine Lebanon and Algeria In spite of Edward Said's groundbreaking reappraisal of the uneven relationship between the West and the Arab world in Orientalism there has been little postcolonial criticism of Arab writing Anastasia Valassopoulos raises the profile of Arab women writers by examining how they negotiate contexts and experiences that have come to be identified with postcoloniality such as the preoccupation with Western feminism political conflict and war the social effects of non conformity and female empowerment and the negotiation of influential cultural discourses such as orientalism Contemporary Arab Women Writers revitalizes theoretical concepts associated with feminism gender studies and cultural studies and explores how art history popular culture translation studies psychoanalysis and news media all offer productive ways to associate with Arab women's writing that work beyond a limiting socio historical context Discussing the writings of authors including Ahdaf Soueif Nawal El Saadawi Leila Sebbar Liana Badr and Hanan Al Shaykh this book represents a new direction in postcolonial literary criticism that transcends constrictive monothematic approaches

Mothers and Daughters in Arab Women's Literature Dalya Abudi, 2010-11-11 This study explores the mother daughter relationship as the most fundamental and most intimate female relationship It draws on both early and contemporary writings of Arab women to illuminate the traditional and evolving nature of mother daughter relationships in Arab families and how these family dynamics reflect and influence modern Arab life Classical Poems by Arab Women Abdullah al-Udhari, 2024-10-18 Arab women poets have been around since the earliest of times yet their diwans collected poems were not given the same consideration as their male counterparts Spanning 5 000 years from the pre Islamic to the Andalusian periods Classical Poems by Arab Women presents rarely seen work by over fifty women writers for the first time From the sorrowful eulogies of Khansa to the gleeful scorn of Wallada bint al Mustakfi this collection exclusively features the work of Arab women who boldly refused to be silenced The poems are excursions into their vibrant world whose humanity has been suppressed for centuries by religious and political bigotry With poems in both English and Arabic this remarkable anthology celebrates feminine wit and desire and shows the significant contribution Arab women made to the literary tradition Arab Women Voice New Realities Roseanne Saad Khalaf, Dima Nasser, 2017 The discourse of Arab women speaking out refusing to be silent and voicing their experiences is alive and ever growing Arab Women Voice New Realities presents an archive of living breathing stories of women making promises and confessions women coming to terms with traumatic pasts negotiating complex present realities and imagining alternative liberating futures This collection attempts to bridge the gap among women writers seasoned and novice It spans a large geographical space uncovers the depth of distinct experiences and ultimately offers a platform for voice and visibility to the new Arab woman These stories are instantiations records and they will never be told in the same way again Seldom do we get the chance to see a literary project through in a relatively short period of time especially one which involves many writers translators artists designers and publishing members Arab Women's Lives Retold Nawar Al-Hassan Golley,2007-10-18 Examining late twentieth century autobiographical writing by Arab women novelists poets and artists this essay collection explores the ways in which Arab women have portrayed and created their identities within differing social environments The collection goes well beyond dismantling standard notions of Arab female subservience exploring the many ways Arab women writers have learned to speak to each other to their readers and to the world at large Drawing from a rich body of literature the essays attest to the surprisingly lively and committed roles Arab women play in varied geographic regions at home and abroad These recent writings assess how the interplay between individual private ethnic identity and the collective public global world of politics has impacted Arab women s rights

Encyclopedia of Literary Translation Into English: A-L O. Classe,2000 Cultural Journeys into the Arab World Dalya Cohen-Mor,2018-09-01 A diverse collection of fiction and nonfiction literature from across the Arabic speaking world Cultural Journeys into the Arab World provides a fascinating window into Arab culture and society through the voices of its own writers and poets Organized thematically the anthology features more than fifty texts including poems essays stories novels memoirs eyewitness accounts and life histories by leading male and female authors from across the Arabic speaking world Each theme is explored in several genres both fiction and nonfiction and framed by a wealth of contextual information that places the literary texts within the historical political cultural and social background of the region Spanning a century of Arab creative writing from the dean of Arabic letters Taha Hussein to the Nobel laureate Naguib Mahfouz and the celebrated poet Adonis the anthology offers unforgettable journeys into the rich and dynamic realm of Arab culture Representing a wide range of settings viewpoints and socioeconomic backgrounds the characters speak of their conditions aspirations struggles and achievements living in complex societies marked by tensions arising from the persistence of older traditions and the impact of modernity Their myriad voices paint a vivid and intimate portrait of contemporary Arab life in the Middle East revealing the common humanity of a region of vital significance in world affairs Harriet Beecher Stowe's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" in Arabic Abeer Abdulaziz AL-Sarrani,2016-03-25 This book explores the challenges of cross cultural translation of American literary works into Arabic which I argue have prevented many nineteenth century literary works from being translated into Arabic I have used the Arabic translations of Harriet Beecher Stowe s Uncle Tom s Cabin and an abridged

English text accompanying one of the translations as a case study Since most of the Arabic translations of English and especially American literary works are merely linguistic oriented ones I reinforce the importance of adopting a period specific cultural oriented approach that maintains the cultural context of American literary works including the historical cultural religious geopolitical and gender based elements during the literary translation into the Arabic culture I start with discussing the internationalization of American works and the importance of a cultural reading of these works Reviewing many translations of English and American works in general I categorize the challenges of cross cultural literary translation from English into Arabic into the following cultural religious geopolitical and gender based ones While I am not calling for accurate cross cultural literary translations since it is impossible however I am advocating for faithful translations which maintain the literary text s cultural and historical contexts The accuracy of a literary translation depends on the amount of linguistic skill a translator has while the faithfulness of a literary translation is based upon the translator s sincere effort to include the literary text s entire cultural context including the historical cultural religious geopolitical and gender based elements Using Uncle Tom s Cabin as a case study I discuss how the previous challenges had negatively affected the translation process of the work Despite the fact the work has been translated seven times into Arabic due to the linguistic oriented approach the historical and cultural significance of Stowe s novel has not yet been introduced to Arab readers through translation Due to the current era of globalization that demands individuals to have multicultural knowledge and understanding and due to the recent cultural and translation projects of literary works from English into Arabic this book reinforces the importance and possibility of addressing the cultural religious geopolitical and gender based challenges while using Uncle Tom s Cabin as an example

Mahmoud Darwish Dalya Cohen-Mor,2019-08-05 Mahmoud Darwish Palestine s Poet and the Other as the Beloved focuses on Palestinian national poet Mahmoud Darwish 1941 2008 whose poetry has helped to shape Palestinian identity and foster Palestinian culture through many decades of the Israeli Palestinian conflict Dalya Cohen Mor explores the poet s romantic relationship with Rita an Israeli Jewish woman whom he had met in Haifa in his early twenties and to whom he had dedicated a series of love poems and prose passages among them the iconic poem Rita and the Gun Interwoven with biographical details and diverse documentary materials this exploration reveals a fascinating facet in the poet s personality his self definition and his attitude toward the Israeli other Comprising a close reading of Darwish s love poems coupled with many examples of novels and short stories from both Arabic and Hebrew fiction that deal with Arab Jewish love stories this book delves into the complexity of Arab Jewish relations and shows how romance can blossom across ethno religious lines and how politics all too often destroys it

American Multiculturalism in Context Sāmi Ludwig, 2017-03-07 In March 2015 a group of experts from four continents and a wide range of disciplines met with the leading African American writer Ishmael Reed in Mulhouse France and Basel Switzerland Guided by Swiss cultural and literary theorist S mi Ludwig and deliberately migrating back and forth across a political border in the heart of Europe they not only listened to Reed and discussed his work but also looked more widely at the different meanings assigned to multiculturalism in the United States Europe and other parts of the world This volume brings together their reflections

Conscience of the Nation Richard Jacquemond, 2008 Artfully combining social and literary history this unique study explores the dual loyalties of contemporary Egyptian authors from the 1952 Revolution to the present day Egypt s writers have long had an elevated idea of their social mission considering themselves the conscience of the nation At the same time modern Egyptian writers work under the liberal conception of the writer borrowed from the European model As a result each Egyptian writer treads the tightrope between authority and freedom social commitment and artistic license loyalty to the state and to personal expression in an ongoing quest for an elusive literary ideal With these fundamentals in mind Conscience of the Nation examines Egyptian literary production over the past fifty years surveying works by established writers as well as those of dozens of other authors who are celebrated in Egypt but whose writings are largely unknown to the foreign reader Novelists and poets scriptwriters and playwrights critics and journalists all have battled with and tried to resolve the tensions inherent in the conflicting forces of self and society

Women Claim Islam Miriam Cooke, 2004-11-23 This provocative collection addresses the ways in which Arab women writers are using Islam to empower themselves and theorizes the conditions that have made the appearance of these new voices possible

Race and Arab Americans Before and After 9/11 Amaney Jamal, Nadine Naber, 2008-02-27 Bringing the rich terrain of Arab American histories to bear on conceptualizations of race in the United States this groundbreaking volume fills a critical gap in the field of U S racial and ethnic studies The articles collected here highlight emergent discourses on the distinct ways that race matters to the study of Arab American histories and experiences and asks essential questions What is the relationship between U S imperialism in Arab homelands and anti Arab racism in the United States In what ways have the axes of nation religion class and gender intersected with Arab American racial formations What is the significance of whiteness studies to Arab American studies Transcending multiculturalist discourses that have simply added on the category Arab American to the landscape of U S racial and ethnic studies after the attacks of September 11 2001 this volume locates September 11 as a turning point rather than as a beginning in Arab Americans

Gendered Ways of Transnational Un-Belonging from a Comparative Literature Perspective Indrani Mukherjee, Java Singh, 2019-05-03 As the outcome of an international conference held at Jawaharlal Nehru University India this book provides a collection of productive texts on and novel critical approaches to comparative literature for young scholars The wide range of analytical approaches employed here allow for the opening up of texts to new readings The contributions here encompass readings of cinema advertisements and literary representations such as novels poems and short stories and are pertinent for scholars in media studies cultural studies gender studies sociology and literature As a commentary on contemporary representations of gender the book is also relevant for all higher education institutions which seek to heighten gender sensitivity
