The present English translation reproduces the original German of Carl Brockelmann's Geschichte der Arabischen Litteratur GAL as accurately as possible. In the interest of user friendliness the following emendations have been made in the translation. Personal names are written out in full except b for ibn. Brockelmann's transliteration of Arabic has been adapted to comply with modern standards for English language publications; modern English equivalents are given for place names e.g. Damascus, Cairo, Jerusalem etc. several erroneous dates have been corrected and the page references to the two German editions have been retained in the margin except in the Supplement volumes where new references to the first two English volumes have been inserted. The Arabian Nights Robert Irwin, 1994. The Arabian Nights: A Companion guides the reader into this celebrated labyrinth of storytelling. It traces the development of the stories from prehistoric India and Pharaonic Egypt to modern times. It explores the history of the translation and explains the ways in which its contents have been added to, plagiarized and imitated. Above all the book uses the stories as a guide to the social history and the counterculture of the medieval Near East and the world of the storyteller: the snake charmer, the burglar, the sorcerer, the drug addict, the treasure hunter and the adulterer.
