Arabic Poetry And Orientalism Arabic Poetry And Comparative Poetics:

Jaroslav Stetkevych, 2004 Looks at the relationship between Arabic poetry and the poetic tradition in the west Arabic, Persian, and Turkic Poetics Hany Rashwan, 2024 Arabic Persian and Turkic Poetics Towards a Post Eurocentric Literary Theory is a pioneering book that offers a fresh perspective on Arabic Persian and Turkic literature in their interrelations The authors challenge Eurocentric paradigms while creating a framework for exploring these traditions on their own terms Authored by an international team of scholars each chapter centres the literary theoretical traditions of their respective literatures with a focus on the discipline of comparative poetics ilm al bal gha in the Islamic world By liberating the study of Islamicate literary texts from Eurocentric theoretical paradigms the book paves the way for a more inclusive global discourse in literary studies Specifically our theoretical roots in comparative poetics and the rhetorical traditions of Arabic Persian and Turkic literatures will foster new methods of close reading that are in line with the aesthetic standards intrinsic to these texts and their traditions Engaging and insightful this book is essential reading for anyone interested in broadening their understanding of world literature and literary theory Arabic Literature for the Classroom Mushin al-Musawi, 2017-04-21 This book presents theoretical and methodical cultural concerns in teaching literatures from non American cultures along with issues of cross cultural communication cultural competency and translation Covering topics such as the 1001 Nights Maqamat Arabic poetry women s writing classical poetics issues of gender race and class North African concerns language acquisition through literature Arab spring writing women s correspondence issues connected with the so called nahdah revival movement in the 19th century and many others the book provides perspectives and topics that serve in both the planning of new courses and accommodation to already existing programs Hebrew Orientalism Mostafa Hussein, 2025-12-09 How Jewish writers in late Ottoman and British Mandate Palestine used Arabo Islamic culture to advance the goals of Zionism In the decades before the establishment of a Jewish state in 1948 native and immigrant Jews in Palestine mediated between Jewish and Arab cultures while navigating their evolving identities as settler colonists Hebrew Orientalism challenges the conventional view that Hebrew thinkers were dismissive of Arabo Islamic culture revealing how they both adopted and adapted elements of it that enhanced Zionist aims Drawing on a wealth of sources ranging from Arabic medieval chronicles travel narratives and poetry to modern Hebrew geography and botany texts Mostafa Hussein provides a nuanced understanding of Hebrew orientalism by focusing on the practical activities of Hebrew writers such as recuperating the Jewish past in the East constructing Jewish indigeneity consolidating Jewish ties to Palestine s landscape enhancing understanding of the Hebrew Bible reviving Hebrew language and undertaking translation projects Through the lens of a diverse group of Jewish intellectuals ranging from Palestine born Sephardi Oriental and Ashkenazi Jews to Eastern European immigrants he unveils the complex realities of cultural exchange and knowledge production highlighting the dual role of these intellectuals in connecting with the East and promoting Zionist aspirations Hussein offers fresh insights into the role of scholarly practices in advancing new perspectives on the region and its peoples and forging a modern Zionist Hebrew identity Illuminating the intricate and often contradictory engagement of Hebrew scholars with Arabo Islamic culture Hebrew Orientalism informs contemporary discussions of postcolonialism and settler colonialism and enriches our understanding of the historical dynamics between Jews and Arabs in Palestine The Routledge Companion to Global Comparative Literature Zhang Longxi, Omid Azadibougar, 2025-04-29 The Routledge Companion to Global Comparative Literature is a collection of papers by influential scholars who are engaged in comparative literary studies and addresses a central and highly important question about the discipline if Eurocentrism has been integral to comparative literature and if the world we live in is undergoing radical changes then how can or should the discipline change to overcome this problem of the discipline as well as of literary history to accommodate non Western traditions Addressing this significant matter and taking different approaches in response to the state of the discipline the papers in this volume offer diverse ways of overcoming Eurocentrism the role of institutions and the changes they need to undergo possible ways of practicing a truly global comparative literature the history of the discipline outside Europe premodern histories of ideas and the non European origins of modernity translation orientalism and area studies publishing and literary circulation and modern technologies and their impact on literary dissemination and the discipline This collection assesses comparative literature at a timely historical moment and will broaden the field by addressing the students and scholars of comparative literary studies all over the world with significant hints for more inclusive histories of world literature Arab Voices in Diaspora Layla Al Maleh, Layla Maleh, 2009 Arab Voices in Diaspora offers a wide ranging overview and an insightful study of the field of anglophone Arab literature produced across the world The first of its kind it chronicles the development of this literature from its inception at the turn of the past century until the post 9 11 era The book sheds light not only on the historical but also on the cultural and aesthetic value of this literary production which has so far received little scholarly attention It also seeks to place anglophone Arab literary works within the larger nomenclature of postcolonial emerging and ethnic literature as it finds that the authors are haunted by the same hybrid exilic and diasporic questions that have dogged their fellow postcolonialists Issues of belonging loyalty and affinity are recognized and dealt with in the various essays as are the various concerns involved in cultural and relational identification The contributors to this volume come from different national backgrounds and share in examining the nuances of this emerging literature Authors discussed include Elmaz Abinader Diana Abu Jaber Leila Aboulela Leila Ahmed Rabih Alameddine Edward Atiyah Shaw Dallal Ibrahim Fawal Fadia Faqir Khalil Gibran Suheir Hammad Loubna Haikal Nada Awar Jarrar Jad El Hage Lawrence Joseph Mohja Kahf Jamal Mahjoub Hisham Matar Dunya Mikhail Samia Serageldine Naomi Shihab Nye Ameen Rihani Mona Simpson Ahdaf Soueif and Cecile Yazbak Contributors Victoria M Abboud Diya M Abdo Samaa Abdurraqib Marta Cariello Carol Fadda Conrey Cristina Garrig s Lamia Hammad Yasmeen Hanoosh Wal S Hassan Richard E Hishmeh Syrine Hout Layla Al Maleh Brinda J Mehta explores the logics of orientalist selection reconfiguration and appropriation of Islamicate literary canons and focuses on the period going from the endowment of the first chairs in Arabic at Cambridge and Oxford in 1632 and 1636 respectively to the establishment of the Asiatic Society in Calcutta in 1784 presided by Sir William Jones until 1794 Contrary to the Saidian premise of an invention of the East by the West Gallien argues that orientalists did not invent a canon but they transferred and translated texts and authors which who were already recognised as canonical across Islamicate literary cultures Given the above the question that preoccupies this book is what happens to the canon when partially re created and re purposed for European readers Organised in three main parts this book analyses first the constitution of collections of Arabic Persian and Indic manuscripts and their cataloguing in England in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries The second part investigates the variety of linguistic and literary partitioning and assemblage proposed by orientalists and discusses how their classical literary formation underpinned theories and practices of imitation translation and writing The third part examines the editing and translating of Arabic Persian and Indic literatures in seventeenth and eighteenth century England as well as in British colonial India and in particular the function of specimens and anthologies in the constitution of a corpus of Eastern literatures in English The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions Waïl S. Hassan, 2017 The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions encompasses the genesis of the Arabic novel in the second half of the nineteenth century and its development to the present in every Arab country as well as Arab immigrant writing in many languages around the world

Religion, Mysticism and Modern Arabic Literature Reuven Snir, 2006 One of the significant phenomena in modern Arabic literature since the 1960s has been the use of mystical concepts figures and motifs for the expression of contemporary experiences philosophies and ideologies The book investigates this phenomenon mainly with regard to the creative poetic process and the use of literary masks It also deals with the complicated relationship between Arabic literature and Islam as well as with the literary activities by religious traditional circles In a welter of publications committed Muslim authors try to prove that there is no inherent contradiction between art and Islam and at the same time to lay the theoretical foundations for an Islamist poetics encompassing the various branches of literary production Within the secular canonical circles however these activities and texts are considered extremely marginal and none of the authors concerned has gained any canonical status The growing number of cases in which attempts at censorship on religious and moral grounds have been challenged prove also that Arabic literature has become more and more secular Teaching Modern Arabic Literature in Translation Michelle Hartman, 2018-02-01 Understanding the complexities of Arab politics history and culture has never been more important for North American readers Yet even as Arabic literature is increasingly being translated into English the modern Arabic literary tradition is still often treated as other controversial dangerous difficult esoteric or exotic This volume examines modern Arabic literature in context and introduces creative teaching methods that reveal the literature s richness relevance and power to anglophone students Addressing the complications of translation head on the volume interweaves such important issues such as gender the Palestinian Israeli conflict and the status of Arabic literature in world literature Essays cover writers from the recent past like Emile Habiby and Tayeb Salih contemporary Palestinian Egyptian and Syrian literatures and the literature of the nineteenth century Nahda Between Argentines and Arabs Christina

Civantos,2006-06-01 Between Argentines and Arabs is a groundbreaking contribution to two growing fields the study of immigrants and minorities in Latin America and the study of the Arab diaspora As a literary and cultural study this book examines the textual dialogue between Argentines of European descent and Arab immigrants to Argentina from the mid 1800s to the mid 1900s Using methods drawn from literary analysis and cultural studies Christina Civantos shows that the Arab presence is twofold the Arab and the Orient are an imagined figure and space within the texts produced by Euro Argentine intellectuals and immigrants from the Arab world are an actual community producing their own texts within the multiethnic Argentine nation This book is both a literary history of Argentine Orientalist literature and Arab Argentine immigrant literature and a critical analysis of how the formation of identities in these two bodies of work is interconnected

European Modernity and the Arab Mediterranean Karla Mallette,2011-06-06 Over the past decade scholars have vigorously reconsidered the history of Orientalism and though Edward Said s hugely influential work remains a touchstone of the discussion Karla Mallette notes it can no longer be taken as the final word on Western perceptions of the Islamic East The French and British Orientalisms that Said studied in particular were shaped by the French and British colonial projects in Muslim regions nations that did not have such investments in the Middle East generated significantly different perceptions of Islamic and Arabic culture European Modernity and the Arab Mediterranean examines Orientalist philological scholarship of southern Europe produced between the mid nineteenth and mid twentieth century In Italy Spain and Malta Mallette argues a regional history of Arab occupation during the Middle Ages gave scholars a focus different from that of their northern European colleagues in studying the Arab world they were not so much looking on a distant and radically different history as seeking to reconstruct the past of their own nations She demonstrates that in specific instances Orientalists wrote their nations Arab history as the origin of modern national identity depicting Islamic thought not as exterior to European modernity but rather as formative of and central to it Joining comparative insights to the analytic strategies and historical genius of philology Mallette ranges from the complex manuscript history of the Thousand and One Nights to the invention of the Maltese language and Spanish scholarship on Dante and Islam Throughout she reveals the profound influences Arab and Islamic traditions have had on the development of modern European culture European Modernity and the Arab Mediterranean is an engaging study that sheds new light on the history of Orientalism the future of philology and the postcolonial Middle Ages Arabs and Arabists Alastair Hamilton,2021-11-08 Arabs and Arabists contains nineteen selected articles by Alastair Hamilton on the Western acquisition of knowledge of the Arab and Ottoman world in the early modern period The first essays are on Arabs who visited Europe and gave instruction to Western Arabists and on Europeans who either visited the Arab or the Ottoman world in search of manuscripts and information or who like Franciscus Raphelengius Isaac Casaubon and Adriaen Reland studied it at a distance and remained in the West These are followed by a section on the actual study of the Arabic language in Europe and above all the creation of the first Arabic Latin dictionaries and another on the European study of Islam and Western translations of the Qur'an Edinburgh Companion to the Arab Novel in English Nouri Gana,2015-04-17 Opening up the field of diasporic Anglo Arab literature to critical debate this companion spans from the first Arab novel in 1911 to the resurgence of the Anglo Arabic novel in the last 20 years There are chapters on authors such as Ameen Rihani Ahdaf Classical Traditions and Modern Meanings Stefan Sperl,1996 The Routledge

Orientalism and the Postcolonial Predicament Carol A. Breckenridge,Peter van der Veer,1993 This book explores the ways in which colonial administrators constructed knowledge about the society and culture of India and the processes through which that knowledge has shaped past and present Indian reality With the Face of the Enemy Katharina Motyl,2024-11-20 With the Face of the Enemy focuses on the writings of Arab American authors between 2001 and 2011 Positioned as Arab Americans in the post 9 11 U S this underexamined group of writers projects unique insights into both the Western and Arab worlds Using the lens of postcolonial literary theory Katharina Motyl explores how the War on Terror turned Arab Americans into enemies within their own country Countering the master narrative of a clash of civilizations between the Islamic world and the West the fictional and poetic texts discussed in this book alternate between deconstructing neo Orientalist stereotypes and critiquing U S neocolonialism in the Greater Middle East on the one hand and critically examining Arab culture for instance its patriarchal outlook on the other Motyl pays special attention to texts written by Arab American women who have radically advocated for self determination in areas like sexuality and mode of dress thus rejecting the stereotype of Arab women as oppressed victims With the Face of the Enemy takes a serious look at how the aesthetics of Arab American literature negotiates the many psychosocial consequences the domestic War on Terror and the U S wars in Iraq and Afghanistan have had on the Arab American community
