Peter,2015-11-24 The America s Cup continues to evolve as the preeminent sporting contest in the world of sailing and is one of the greatest contests in the world of sport In its long and colorful history disputes around the match have not only added major extra publicity to the event s great popular appeal but also spawned a wealth of judicial and arbitral decisions that have become influential on the sport of sailing This book continuing the tradition of Kluwer Law International s earlier publications on the 31st 32nd and 33rd America s Cup offers richly detailed expert commentary along with the decision texts themselves on the judgments of various courts and other dispute resolution bodies delivered during the tumultuous 34th America s Cup Since there is no official record of many of these documents this book is the only source that presents them together in a single volume with the added benefit of commentary Among the aspects covered are the following all decisions issued by the 34th America s Cup International Jury as well as related decisions or awards rendered by other bodies ISAF Disciplinary Commission ISAF Review Board and the Court of Arbitration for Sport judgments of the New York Supreme Court and its Appellate Division regarding the rejection of the African Diaspora Maritime Corporation application to compete to be a defender the pivotal Jury decision affirming that the AC72 yacht could be made to foil on its centreboards and rudders dramatically increasing its speed the first time ever Youth America s Cup and the extensive mediation concerning safety recommendations following the death of a sailor A general introduction surveys the most important and peculiar issues pertaining to the event Written not only as a comprehensive legal record of the 34th America s Cup but also with a view to favor future matches and to limit the possibilities of new controversies the book takes a significant step toward ensuring that disputes are dealt with by arbitration and not by lengthy costly and uncertain state court proceedings In this way the book provides invaluable guidance for trustees competitors and event officials not only for the America s Cup but by extension to other major international sporting events

Czech (& Central European) Yearbook of Arbitration - Borders of Procedural and Substantive Law in Arbitral Proceedings - 2013 Alexander J. Bělohlávek, Filip Cerný, Naděžda Rozehnalová, 2013-03-01 The Czech Yearbooks Project for the moment made up of the Czech Yearbook of International Law and the Czech Central European Yearbook of Arbitration began with the idea to create an open platform for presenting the development of both legal theory and legal practice in Central and Eastern Europe and the approximation thereof to readers worldwide This platform should serve as an open forum for interested scholars writers and prospective students as well as practitioners for the exchange of different approaches to problems being analyzed by authors from different jurisdictions and therefore providing interesting insight into issues being dealt with differently in many different countries The Czech Central European Yearbook of Arbitration the younger twin project within the Czech Yearbooks primarily focuses on the problematic of arbitration from both the national and international perspective The use of arbitration as a method of dispute resolution continues to increase in importance Throughout Central and Eastern Europe arbitration is viewed as being progressive due to its practical aspects and to its meeting the needs of specialists in certain practice areas Central and Eastern Europe the primary but not exclusive focus of this project is steeped in the Roman tradition of continental Europe in which arbitration is based on the autonomy of the parties and on informal procedures This classical approach is somewhat different from the principles on which the system of arbitration in common law countries is based Despite similarities among countries in the region arbitration in Central and Eastern Europe represents a highly particularized and fragmented system One shortcoming in the use of arbitration in Central and Eastern Europe is the absence of comparative standards or a baseline that would facilitate the identification of commonalities and differences in individual countries and help resolve problems that are common throughout the region The CYArb project aims to address this issue and provide a forum for comparisons of arbitration practice and doctrine in countries within the region and in relation to practices internationally It sheds light on both practical and academic aspects within these countries and compares those approaches to broader European and international practices This project will also foster a broad exchange of legal research and other information on the subject The third volume of the CYArb focuses on the blurry area which borders the procedural and substantial law Editors being motivated with an endeavour to provide the
