Animal Tales Of The West:

Animal Tales of the West Clayton Williams, 1974-01-01

Animal Tales from the Caribbean George List, 2017-09-11

Traditional stories from the northern Colombian coast in both English and Spanish. These twenty-one animal tales from the Colombian Caribbean coast represent a sampling of the traditional stories that are told during all-night funerary wakes. The tales are told in the semi-sacred space of the patio backyard of homes as part of the funerary ritual that includes other aesthetic and expressive practices such as jokes, song, games, board games, and prayer. In this volume, these stories are situated within their performance contexts and represent a highly ritualized corpus of oral knowledge that for centuries has been preserved and cultivated by African descendant populations in the Americas. Ethnomusicologist George List collected these tales throughout his decades-long fieldwork among the rural costeño (chiefly African descendent) population in the mid-twentieth century and with the help of a research team transcribed and translated them into English before his death in 2008. In this volume, John Holmes McDowell and Juan Sebastián Rojas Elvira have worked to bring this previously unpublished manuscript to light, providing commentary on the transcriptions and translations, additional cultural context through a new introduction, and further typological and cultural analysis by Hasan M. El Shamy. Supplementing the transcribed and translated texts are links to the original Spanish recordings of the stories, allowing readers to follow along and experience the traditional telling of the tales for themselves.

The Zebra's Stripes and other African Animal Tales

Dianne Stewart, 2004-11-01. Folktales can be described as fictional prose narratives that are not confined to any particular culture. A folktale may appear in a slightly different form in a culture that is geographically nearby or it may appear in a culture that is quite far removed from its original source. In The Zebra's Stripes and other African Tales, Dianne Stewart has retold a collection of folk tales that have their origins all over Africa. Aimed at children and adults, these tales include legends such as How Lion and Warthog became Enemies from the Lamba people of Togo, How Giraffe Acquired his Long Neck from East Africa, Why Hippopotamus Lives in the Water from Nigeria, and Monkey The Musician from South Africa. There are tales from the San, Zulu, Zambia, Congo, and West Africa, et al. Each section is devoted to a type of animal and concludes with some facts about the animal in question, adding educational value to the stories. Proverbs from various cultures provide additional insight. Throughout, Kathy Pienaar's beautiful illustrations show great attention to detail.
