human capacity for war A must read for anyone interested in the psychological depths of human nature Barbara S Held author of Back to Reality Almost 200 million human beings mostly civilians have died in wars over the last century and there is no end of slaughter in sight The Most Dangerous Animal asks what it is about human nature that makes it possible for human beings to regularly slaughter their own kind It tells the story of why all human beings have the potential to be hideously cruel and destructive to one another Why are we our own worst enemy The book shows us that war has been with us in one form or another since prehistoric times and looking at the behavior of our close relatives the chimpanzees it argues that a penchant for group violence has been bred into us over millions of years of biological evolution The Most Dangerous Animal takes the reader on a journey through evolution history anthropology and psychology showing how and why the human mind has a dual nature on the one hand we are ferocious dangerous animals who regularly commit terrible atrocities against our own kind on the other we have a deep aversion to killing a horror of taking human life Meticulously researched and far reaching in scope and with examples taken from ancient and modern history The Most Dangerous Animal delivers a sobering lesson for an increasingly dangerous world Illuminates an exceedingly dark subject humankind's deep seated penchant for war The result is a discerning insightful highly original and very disturbing book Andrew J Bacevich author of The Age of Illusions      Soft Power and Heritage Rodrigo Christofolletti,2023-11-15 This book encourages a critical dialogue between interdisciplinary fields that border heritage boundaries and seeks to contribute a wide range of scholarly perspectives and case studies both national and international The widespread use of the concept of soft power is sometimes grossly misused as a synonym for anything other than military force While the concept is one of the most popular and influential in progressive foreign policy circles and is noted for being the ability of a country to convince others that its cause is the best without having to resort to economic or military threats the your ability to accurately describe the world we live in needs repair lenses The power of example the power of attraction through culture or in other words the ability of a country to attract others because of its culture and political values in its foreign policy that is soft power is something that emerges in partly because of government and partly in spite of governments To have soft power you need to be connected and the interaction management and dissemination of assets can be seen as exercises in soft power action This book seeks to detail in examples how the concept of soft power encompasses and problematizes the multiplicity of themes on the contemporary international agenda focusing on one of its least discussed elements the universe of international cultural heritage and the relationship between actors and society preservationist actions in the globalized world While cultural heritage embodies different values and can serve different economic social and political objectives in development contexts the past becomes a cultural currency when it becomes essential to the human experience      The Contemporary Review ,1872      Skylark Meets Meadowlark Thomas C. Gannon,2009-11-01 A Native rereading of both British Romanticism and mainstream Euro American ecocriticism this cross cultural transatlantic study of literary imaginings about birds sets the agenda for a more sophisticated and nuanced ecocriticism Lakota critic Thomas C Gannon explores how poets and nature writers in Britain and Native America have incorporated birds into their writings He discerns an evolution in humankind s representations and attitudes toward other species by examining the avian images and tropes in British Romantic and Native American literatures and by considering how such literary treatment succeeds from an ecological or animal rights perspective Such depictions Gannon argues reveal much about underlying cultural and historical relationships with the Other whether other species or other peoples He elucidates the changing interconnections between birds and humans in British Romanticism from Cowper to Clare with particular attention to Wordsworth Coleridge Shelley Byron and Keats Gannon then considers how birds are imagined by Native writers including early Lakota authors and contemporary poets such as Linda Hogan and Joy Harjo Ultimately he shows how the sensitive and far reaching connections with nature forged by Native American writers encourage a more holistic reimagining of humankind s relationship to other animals
