Anna Halprin Janice Ross, 2007-02-12 Publisher description

West of

Center Elissa Auther, Adam Lerner, 2012 Recovering the art and lifestyle of the counterculture in the American West in the 1960s and 70s Soft Is Fast Meredith Morse, 2023-08-15 An innovative analysis of Simone Forti's interdisciplinary art viewing her influential 1960s dance constructions as negotiating the aesthetic strategies of John Cage and Anna Halprin. Simone Forti's art developed within the overlapping circles of New York City's advanced visual art, dance, and music of the early 1960s. Her dance constructions and related works of the 1960s were important for both visual art and dance of the era. Artists Robert Morris and Yvonne Rainer have both acknowledged her influence. Forti seems to have kept one foot inside visual art's frames of meaning and the other outside them. In Soft Is Fast, Meredith Morse adopts a new way to understand Forti's work based in art historical analysis but drawing upon dance history and cultural studies and the history of American social thought. Morse argues that Forti introduced a form of direct encounter that departed radically from the spectatorship proposed by Minimalism and prefigured the participatory art of recent decades. Morse shows that Forti's work negotiated John Cage's ideas of sound score and theater through the unique approach to movement essentially improvisational and grounded in anatomical exploration that she learned from performer and teacher Ann later Anna Halprin. Attentive to Robert Whitman's and La Monte Young's responses to Cage, Forti reshaped Cage's concepts into models that could accommodate Halprin's charged spaces and imagined interpenetrative understanding of other bodies. Morse considers Forti's use of sound and her affective use of materials as central to her work. Examines Forti's text pieces little discussed in art historical literature. Analyzes Huddle considered one of Forti's signature works and explicates Forti's later improvisational practice. Forti has been relatively overlooked by art historians perhaps because of her work's central concern with modes of feeling and embodiment unlike other art of the 1960s which was characterized by strategies of depersonalization and affectlessness. Soft Is Fast corrects this critical oversight.

Creation - Transformation - Theology Margit Eckholt, 2022 The social and cultural challenges posed by the increasing threat to creation, climate change, destruction of biodiversity etc. are the starting point for new philosophical, ethical, and theological reflections on the relationship between God, human beings, and the world as presented in this volume. God's creative impulse which transforms anew is at work in the actions of human beings and challenges us in view of the threat to the house of life, earth, to go new ways that make a common and good life possible. Creation and transformation are interrelated; an ecological theology of creation and practice of sustainability to be developed in the European context is to be embedded in the horizon of a global liberating theology.

Improvised Dance Nalina Wait, 2023-04-14 This book elucidates the technical aspects of improvised dance performance and reframes the notion of labour in the practice from one that is either based on compositionally formal logic or a mysterious impulse to one that addresses the in corporeal dimensions of practice. Mobilising the languages and conceptual frameworks of theories of affect, embodied cognition, somatics, and dance, this book illustrates the work of specialist improvisers who occupy divergent positions within the complex field of improvised dance. It offers an alternative narrative of the history and current practice of Western improvised dance centred on the epistemology of its in corporeal knowledges which are elusive yet vital to the refinement of expertise Written for both a disciplinary specific and interdisciplinary audience this book will interest dance scholars students and practising artists
