Based on her experiences as a midwife in India Carolyn North has written a profoundly moving novel revolving around the story of an impoverished servant family and an all night ceremony of North Indian flute music The reader is immersed in the heat and squalor of India in its extraordinary music and above all in the Indian worldview wherein death is but part of all of life The artist Frederick Franck has called it A profound inner portrait of India Triumphant said the Library Journal

Anna's Corn Barbara Santucci,2002 Anna is reluctant to plant the kernels of corn her grandpa has left her upon his death until she realizes that the act will help her remember the times they listened to the music of the corn together

Report on the External Trade of Bengal with Nepal, Sikkim, and Bhutan, for the Year ... Bengal (India),1885 Labors of Division Navyug Gill,2024-01-16 One of the most durable figures in modern history the peasant has long been a site of intense intellectual and political debate Yet underlying much of this literature is the assumption that peasants simply existed everywhere a general if not generic group traced backward from modernity to antiquity Focused on the transformation of Panjab during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries this book accounts for the colonial origins of global capitalism through a radical history of the concept of the peasant demonstrating how seemingly fixed hierarchies were in fact produced legitimized and challenged within the preeminent agricultural region of South Asia Navyug Gill uncovers how and why British officials and ascendant Panjabis disrupted existing forms of identity and occupation to generate a new agrarian order in the countryside The notion of the hereditary caste peasant engaged in timeless cultivation thus emerged paradoxically as a result of a dramatic series of conceptual juridical and monetary divisions Far from archaic relics this book ultimately reveals both the landowning peasant and landless laborer to be novel political subjects forged through the encounter between colonialism and struggles over culture and capital within Panjabi society Questions of progress exploitation and knowledge come to animate the vernacular operations of power With this history Gill brings difference and contingency to understandings of the global past in order to re think the itinerary of comparative political economy as well as alternative possibilities for emancipatory futures

Algebra for Indian high schools John Cook (M.A.),1898 Commerce Reports ,1927 Government Gazette ,1893 Saving the City Malcolm Schofield,2003-09-02 Saving the City provides a detailed analysis of the attempts of ancient writers and thinkers from Homer to Cicero to construct and recommend political ideals of statesmanship and ruling of the political community and of how it should be founded in justice Malcolm Schofield debates to what extent the Greeks and Romans deal with the same issues as modern political thinkers Report on the famine in Rungpore Edward George GLAZIER,1875 Writings and Speeches of the Late Honourable Rao Saheb

Vishvanath Narayan Mandlik, C.S.I. Foothills & Beyond Col Mani K Gahatraj (Retd), 2014-11-01 This book presents a traveler's very personal experiences as he walks along the marked or unmarked trails of the Himalayan foothills crossing hills and valleys quenching thirst from a fresh water mountain stream watching in silence the ripples of a placid lake or a waterfall splintering into millions of particles over rocks enjoying the feel of mountain breeze smiling at strangers clicking children on way to school or stroking the neck of a village dog that follows him In other words the author shares the thoughts that cross the inner recess of his mind as he walks along takes turns rests befriends strangers drinks a hot mug of tea along the trail and just celebrates fresh dew drops dangling from a pink rose petal in a village garden The author in his travelogues takes the reader along the trail and helps her or him to experience every bend and scent of the trail while the writer himself takes a back seat to the places and people which is a great quality for a travelogue writer In addition to his adventure travelogues in Himalayas the author has also covered his experiences in Kabul as also his impressions on the town of Kalimpong as it existed in the 50s and 60s
