Westerkamp,2020-09-23 Women in Early American Religion 1600 1850 explores the first two centuries of America s religious history examining the relationship between the socio political environment gender politics and religion Drawing its background from women s religious roles and experiences in England during the Reformation the book follows them through colonial settlement the rise of evangelicalism with the great awakening the American Revolution and the second flowering of popular religion in the first half of the nineteenth century Women in Early American Religion 1600 1850 traces the female spiritual tradition through the Puritans Baptists and Shakers arguing that it was a strong empowering force for women Women in Early American Religion 1600-1850 Marilyn J. Westerkamp,2005-08-04 Women in Early American Religion 1600 1850 explores the first two centuries of America s religious history examining the relationship between the socio political environment gender politics and religion Drawing its background from women s religious roles and experiences in England during the Reformation the book follows them through colonial settlement the rise of evangelicalism the American Revolution and the second flowering of popular religion in the nineteenth century Tracing the female spiritual tradition through the Puritans Baptists and Shakers Westerkamp argues that religious beliefs and structures were actually a strong empowering force for women Atlantic Circulations Edward Holberton,2025-04-02 Atlantic Circulations investigates literary conversations about empire in the British Atlantic world c 1650 1750 Reading texts by Anne Bradstreet John Milton Daniel Defoe and Benjamin Franklin as well as writing by overlooked authors who deserve more attention such as the Quaker anti slavery activist Benjamin Lay and the Black classicist Francis Williams it asks how literary culture interacted with transatlantic debates about law enslavement economics and religious freedom This study explores the relationship between literature and empire by joining up disciplinary areas Early Modern English Literature and Early American Literature which are often considered apart. It develops insights and analytical frameworks from recent British and Atlantic World history to argue that the transatlantic reception of literary texts was often shaped by archipelagic dynamics: political and religious tensions between and within England and Wales and Scotland and Ireland. Atlantic Circulations examines several previously unknown manuscripts and archives which throw new light on the circulation of literary texts in colonial culture and reconstructs key Anglophone transatlantic cultural debates during a crucial phase of European expansion in the Atlantic world. This book will appeal to advanced students and academic researchers of early modern and eighteenth century English literature and British cultural history especially readers with an interest in literature's relationships with empire, colonialism and travel and scholars of early American literature and history. American literature to 1900 M^a Teresa Gibert Maceda, 2009-09-03 Los veinticinco años de experiencia como profesora de la autora en la UNED hacen que este libro esté orientado fundamentalmente a la educación a distancia. Los capítulos mantienen prácticamente la misma estructura a lo largo de toda la obra. Cada tema se divide en cuatro partes. Una primera donde se analizan individualmente los autores a través de sus biografías y contextos históricos. Un texto en prosa o verso con notas al pie sobre las palabras o giros gramaticales que presentan más dificultad en su traducción del inglés. Cuestiones de autoevaluación. Otras cuestiones preparatorias más amplias. En algunos casos se añaden recuadros con sugerencias de estudio. A study guide for American Literature to 1900 M^a Teresa Gibert Maceda, 2009-01-27 Esta guía está pensada para utilizarse conjuntamente con el libro American literature to 1900 de la misma autora y editado por la misma editorial. Ofrece los siguientes recursos adicionales como un extenso material complementario que ayuda y guía al alumno a lo largo de las 24 unidades: una colección de veinte ejemplos de exámenes y un glosario con una lista de los términos más importantes de la literatura en general y de la literatura americana en particular. Culture & Language at Crossed Purposes Jerome McGann, 2022-07-29 Culture and Language at Crossed Purposes unpacks the interpretive problems of colonial treaty making and uses them to illuminate canonical works from the period. Classic American literature. Jerome McGann argues is haunted by the betrayal of seventeenth and eighteenth century Indian treaties: a stunned memory preserved in the negative spaces of the treaty records. A noted scholar of the textual conditions of literature, McGann investigates canonical works from the colonial period including the Arbella sermon and key writings of William Bradford, John Winthrop, Anne Bradstreet, Cotton Mather's Magnalia, Benjamin Franklin's celebrated treaty folios and Autobiography, and Thomas Jefferson's Notes on the State of Virginia. These are highly practical, purpose-driven works: the record of Enlightenment dreams put to the severe test of dangerous conditions. McGann suggests that the treaty makers never doubted the unsettled character of what they were prosecuting and a similar conflicted ethos pervades these works. Like the treaty records, they deliberately test themselves against stringent measures of truth and accomplishment and show a distinctive consciousness of their limits and failures. McGann's book is ultimately a reminder of the public importance of truth and memory, the vocational commitments of humanist scholars and educators. Women Imagine Change Eugenia

C. DeLamotte, Natania Meeker, Jean F. O'Barr, 1997 A collection of the words of women spanning some 26 centuries from every corner of the earth and from many cultures Environmental Practice and Early American Literature Michael Ziser, 2013-07-29 This original and provocative study tells the story of American literary history from the perspective of its environmental context Weaving together close readings of early American texts with ecological histories of tobacco potatoes apples and honey bees Michael Ziser presents a method for literary criticism that explodes the conceptual distinction between the civilized and natural world Beginning with the English exploration of Virginia in the sixteenth century Ziser argues that the settlement of the New World and the cultivation and exploitation of its bounty dramatically altered how writers used language to describe the phenomena they encountered on the frontier Examining the work of Harriet Grainger Cooper Thoreau and others Ziser reveals how these authors whether consciously or not transcribed the vibrant ecology of North America and the ways that the environment helped codify a uniquely American literary aesthetic of lasting importance
