Anne Carroll Moore A Biography:

Anne Carroll Moore Frances Clarke Sayers,1972 One person more than any other gave shape and content to a new concept of reading in relation to children that then came into being and from which evolved a new profession library work with children Anne Carroll Moore Frances Clarke Sayers,1972 Notable American Women Barbara Sicherman,Carol Hurd Green,1980 Modeled on the Dictionary of American Biography this set stands alone but is a good complement to that set which contained only 700 women of 15 000 entries The preparation of the first set of Notable American Women was supported by Radcliffe College It includes women from 1607 to those who died before the end of 1950 only 5 women included were born after 1900 Arranged throughout the volumes alphabetically entries are from 400 to 7 000 words and have bibliographies There is a good introductory essay and a classified list of entries in volume three Miss Moore Thought Otherwise Jan Pinborough,2013 Biography of a woman who loved books and helped create a library for children

Constructing the Canon of Children's Literature Anne Lundin,2004-10-15 In this pioneering historical study Anne Lundin argues that schools libraries professional organizations and the media together create and influence the constantly changing canon of children's literature Lundin examines the circumstances out of which the canon emerges and its effect on the production of children's literature The volume includes a comprehensive list of canonical titles for reference A Biographical-bibliographical Directory of Women Librarians ,1976 Dictionary of American Biography ,1961 American Library History Donald G. Davis,John Mark Tucker,1989 In Search of Nella Larsen George Hutchinson,2009-07-01 Born to a Danish seamstress and a West Indian cook Larsen lived her life in the shadows of America's racial divide Hutchinson exposes the truths and half truths surrounding her and the complex reality they mask and mirror His book is a cultural biography of the color line as lived by a person who embodied all its ambiguities and complexities Minders of Make-believe Leonard S. Marcus,2008 Marcus offers this animated history of the visionaries editors illustrators and others whose books have transformed American childhood and American culture The Juggler of Notre Dame and the Medievalizing of Modernity. Jan M. Ziolkowski,2018-07-24 This ambitious and vivid study in six volumes explores the journey of a single electrifying story from its first incarnation in a medieval French poem through its prolific rebirth in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The Juggler of Notre Dame tells how an entertainer abandons the world to join a monastery but is suspected of blasphemy after dancing his devotion before a statue of the Madonna in the crypt he is saved when the statue delighted by his skill miraculously comes to life Jan Ziolkowski tracks the poem from its medieval roots to its rediscovery in late nineteenth century Paris before its translation into English in Britain and the United States The visual influence of the tale on Gothic revivalism and vice versa in America is carefully documented with lavish and inventive illustrations and Ziolkowski concludes with an examination of the explosion of interest in The Juggler of Notre Dame in the twentieth century and its place in mass culture today Volume 2 Medieval Meets Medievalism deals with the influence of the tale in nineteenth and early twentieth century Europe and America and the development of literary medievalism at this time The Juggler of Notre Dame and the Medievalizing of Modernity is a rich case study for the reception of the Middle Ages in modernity Spanning centuries and continents the medieval period is understood through the lens of its post modern reception in Europe and America Profound connections between the verbal and the visual are illustrated by a rich trove of images including book illustrations stained glass postage stamps architecture and Christmas cards Presented with great clarity and simplicity Ziolkowski s work is accessible to the general reader while its many new discoveries will be valuable to academics in such fields and disciplines as medieval studies medievalism philology literary history art history folklore performance studies and reception studies

The Edinburgh Companion to Women in Publishing, 1900-2020 Nicola Wilson, Claire Battershill, Sophie Heywood, Marrisa Joseph, Daniela La Penna, Helen Southworth, Alice Staveley and Elizabeth Willson Gordon,2024-02-29 Women s creative labour in publishing has often been overlooked This book draws on dynamic new work in feminist book history and publishing studies to offer the first comparative collection exploring women's diverse deeply embedded work in modern publishing. Highlighting the value of networks, collaboration, and archives, the companion sets out new ways of reading women's contributions to the production and circulation of global print cultures. With an international intergenerational set of contributors using diverse methodologies, essays explore women working in publishing transatlantically on the continent and beyond the Anglosphere. The book combines new work on high-profile women publishers and editors alongside analysis of women's work as translators, illustrators, booksellers, advertisers, patrons, and publisher's readers, complemented by new oral histories and interviews with leading women in publishing today. The first collection of its kind, the companion helps establish and shape a thriving new research field.
