Annette Messenger, 1992 Annette Messenger Annette Messenger, Maria Müller-Schareck, Florence Thurmes, Stiftung Kunstsammlung Nordrhein-Westfalen, 2014 The French artist Annette Messenger b 1943 is one of the most important personalities of the international art scene Her extensive installations focus on the human body and its attributes Fragmented and joined together again with thread to form something new she thereby creates a cosmos that is both fascinating and radical The Museum Establishment and Contemporary Art Rebecca J. DeRoo, 2006-01-09 This book provides an in depth account of the protests that shook France in 1968 and which served as a catalyst to a radical reconsideration of artistic practice that has shaped both art and museum exhibitions up to the present Rebecca DeRoo examines how issues of historical and personal memory the separation of public and private domains and the ordinary objects of everyday life emerged as central concerns for museums and for artists as both struggled to respond to the protests She argues that the responses of the museums were only partially faithful to the aims of the activist movements Museums in fact often misunderstood and misrepresented the work of artists that was exhibited as a means of addressing these concerns Analyzing how museums and critics did and did not address the aims of the protests DeRoo highlights the issues relevant to the politics of the public display of art that have been central to artistic representation in France as well as in North America
