Kosovo and the International Community Christian Tomuschat, 2021-10-25 NATO's air operation against Yugoslavia undertaken with a view to helping the Kosovo Albanians resist genocide and ethnic cleansing confronted the international community with a bitter dilemma. In Europe the choice either to tolerate massive violations of human rights or to infringe the principle of non use of force given the absence of explicit authorization by the Security Council was a challenge never before encountered since the new world order was ushered in by the Charter of the United Nations. This book a collection of legal essays which emerged from a meeting of members of the French German and Polish societies of international law not only attempts to analyze the Kosovo war from the viewpoint of humanitarian intervention based on the failure of the Rambouillet conference but also intends to provide an overall picture of the responsibilities incumbent on the international community. Starting with the lifting of Kosovo's autonomy by the Yugoslav federal authorities in 1989-90 it follows the tragic events step by step. Not only are the crimes committed by Yugoslav military units and police as well as by the Kosovo Liberation Army listed in specific detail an inquiry is also made into NATO's compliance with the applicable standards of humanitarian law. The book concludes with an examination of the future of the province in light of Security Council resolution 1244 of 1999 and the Stability Pact adopted to ensure economic recovery of the entire region.

The Militant Face of Democracy Anna Geis, Harald Müller, Niklas Schörnig, 2013-10-10 Shifts the often naive focus of democratic peace theory towards liberal democratic militancy and highlights the role of national identities.

Switzerland and the International Protection of Refugees, La Suisse et la protection internationale des réfugiés Vera Gowlland-Debbas, Vincent Chetail, 2021-10-18 The present volume highlights the new challenges of the international protection of refugees fifty years after the adoption of the 1951 Geneva Convention relating to the Status of Refugees. Focusing on the problems faced by Switzerland in the field of international protection of refugees as well as on the specificity of its asylum law and practice this publication addresses the refugee problem from a national European and international perspective. The Swiss experience serves to illustrate the wider problematic of on the one hand the tensions between security political and humanitarian concerns encountered by refugee receiving states and on the other the need to preserve an international refugee protection regime which remains an essential component of international law and relations for so long as political solutions are not brought to the root causes of refugee exodus. This reflection on the international protection of refugees is organized around four main themes. The first examines Switzerland's response in the past to mass influx in the light of historical case studies and the evolution of Swiss asylum law and practice. The second focuses on the question of access of refugees to asylum territories and refugee status determination procedures within the framework of the 1951 Convention on the Status of Refugees and the current Swiss asylum law. The third centres on the wider protection regime currently being forged in Europe to address a broader category of refugees including solutions for temporary and subsidiary protection The final theme revolves around return of refugees including those under the Dayton and recent Kosovo agreements and covers reintegration of returnees assistance and long term development This work is based on papers presented at a colloquium of the Graduate Institute of the International Studies in Geneva which was organised in collaboration with the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees as a contribution to the 50th anniversaries of the UNHCR and the Geneva Convention relating to the Status of Refugees Recueil Des Cours Academie De Droit International De La Haye,2001-11-01 The Academy is an institution for the study and teaching of Public and Private International Law and related subjects Its purpose is to encourage a thorough and impartial examination of the problems arising from international relations in the field of law The courses deal with the theoretical and practical aspects of the subject including legislation and case law All courses at the Academy are in principle published in the language in which they were delivered in the Collected Courses of the Hague Academy of International Law This volume contains Le droit international la recherche de ses valeurs paix d veloppement de mocratisation conf rence inaugurale par B BOUTROS GHALI membre du Curatorium de l Acad mie secr taire g n ral de la Francophonie Paris The Evolution of International Law of the Sea New Issues New Challenges by T SCOVAZZI Professor at the University of Milan Bicocca Capital Markets and Conflict of Laws by H KRONKE Professor at the Institute of Foreign and International Private and Economic Law Heidelberg To access the abstract texts for this volume please click here The Environment, Risk and Liability in International Law Julio Barboza,2010-12-17 The Environment Risk and Liability in International Law explains the important role liability plays in risk management and environmental protection in the realm of International Law Joint Development of Hydrocarbon Deposits in the Law of the Sea Vasco Becker-Weinberg,2014-08-05 This book examines the concept and purpose of joint development agreements of offshore hydrocarbon deposits from the perspective of public international law and the law of the sea taking into consideration and extensively reviewing State practice concerning seabed activities in disputed maritime areas and when hydrocarbon deposits extend across maritime boundaries It distinguishes between agreements signed before and after the delimitation of maritime boundaries and analyzes the relevance of natural resources or unitization clauses included in maritime delimitation agreements It also takes into consideration the relation between these resources and maritime delimitation and analyzes all the relevant international jurisprudence Another innovative aspect of this book is that it examines the possibility of joint development of resources that lay between the continental shelf and the Area considering both theoretical and practical problems As such the book is a useful tool for scholars and experts on public international law and the law of the sea but also for national authorities and practitioners of international disputes resolution as well as public and private entities working in the oil and gas industry , Introduction aux relations internationales Philippe Le Prestre,2021-11-29T00:00:00-05:00 Cet ouvrage r pond trois questions fondamentales quelle est la nature des relations entre les principaux acteurs internationaux Quels facteurs expliquent leur comportement Comment expliquer le r sultat de leurs

how much regulatory space investment law leaves whether international investment law is an effective means of balancing contrasting interests and whether investment arbitration currently constitutes a mechanism of global governance In collecting the outlooks of various experts in human rights environmental and international economic law this book breaks new ground in exploring how attention to its legal aspects may help in navigating the relationship between foreign investment and common concerns In doing so the book provides valuable insights into the substantive issues and institutional aspects of international investment law

Interactions between Regional and Universal Organizations

Laurence Boisson de Chazournes, 2016-11-01 Cooperation through international organizations is fundamental to the international legal order International organizations are nowadays ubiquitous and come in many different manifestations each allowing for different levels of international cooperation The profile of regional and universal organizations may vary greatly from one organization to another At the same time they do not live apart and this has led to the creation of a complex network of relationships These relationships have seldom been the object of scholarship and this book seeks to address that gap In general the relationships between international organizations can give rise to such issues as the conditions placed upon one organization by another demarcations of competence membership of other organizations and various forms of collaboration involving the conclusion of agreements between organizations Optimal coexistence cooperation and coherence all play a role in optimizing the relations between international organizations The volume concludes by analysing current challenges including those of legal identity responsibility and accountability as well as making proposals for reform such as through the development of a common law between organizations

Transnational Islam and Regional Security

Frederic Volpi, 2013-09-13 This volume investigates the impact of a new brand of transnational terrorism and political violence produced by radical Islamist groups from the Maghreb on the regional security dynamics It describes the causes of the problems and the strategies devised by European and North African states in order to address it and details the successes and failures of co operation between states and society on both shores of the Mediterranean Investigating the grand security strategies that have been devised for the Mediterranean after the Cold War and after 9 11 the contributors focus on the role of police and military apparati in securitizing the new threats that have become prominent after 9 11 and the unintended consequences of these strategies In addition the contributors analyze the relationship between Islamist groups the state and society and highlight some key causes of political violence and radicalism They outline how a better use of the law migration and intercultural dialogue might provide useful alternatives or complements to the mostly securitarian strategies that are currently dominant in the region

Economics and Finance Readings

Evan Lau, Jaime Moll de Alba, Lee Ming Tan, 2025-08-12 This book is a compilation of the best papers presented at the 2024 edition of the Asia Pacific Conference on Economics Finance APEF which is held annually in Singapore It presents the latest research findings in economics and finance and discusses relevant issues in today s world The book is a useful resource for readers who want access to economics finance and business research that focusing on the Asia Pacific region Crisis, Innovation and Sustainable Development Blandine Laperche, Nadine Levratto, Dimitri Uzunidis, 2012-01-01 This book talks about a genuine greening of the economy from the most theoretical aspects e.g. the genealogy of ecological economics to the most practical. The two most prominent conclusions are for me this greening cannot be achieved by companies alone but can only be the result of different kinds of innovation: technological, organizational, institutional and lifestyle changes. The changes must be implemented at all levels from the firm to international governance. Dominique Bourg, University of Lausanne, Switzerland. Crisis, Innovation and Sustainable Development is a fascinating exploration at the frontiers of economics and ecology. It combines topical surveys of current work with deep reflection on the repressed role of nature in the history of economics. A work of great range and value especially for all concerned with the strategy of economic policy going forward. James K. Galbraith, The University of Texas at Austin, US. This unique and informative book highlights the relationship between crisis, innovation and sustainable development and discusses the necessary conditions required to seize the ecological opportunity. The authors study the strength of change for building a new society and the theoretical origins and political aspects of environmental concerns. They also sketch the outlines of a global governance system seeking to promote sustainable development. Written from a multidisciplinary perspective, this volume will appeal to postgraduate students and researchers in the economics of innovation, environmental economics and political economy as well as policy makers and practitioners. Medicine and Ethics in Times of Corona Martin Woesler, Hans-Martin Sass, 2021-11-18 The Corona pandemic kills, people endanger families, friends, communities, companies, institutions, societies, economies and global networks. It brings about triage, unemployment, social distancing and home schooling. Countries respond differently, often set aside civil and basic human rights. Families and friends cannot get together, visiting the sick nor attending funerals. This pestilence is clearly a cultural, economic and political disease. 40 leaders in medical and sociological research in politics, religion and consulting from 24 countries offer diverse, sometimes controversial answers collected by Martin Woesler and Hans-Martin Sass. Les formes contemporaines de l'esclavage Emmanuel Decaux, 2009-07-15 Depuis près de deux siècles la question de l'esclavage et de la traite négrière est au cœur des relations internationales. Du Congrès de Vienne de 1815 qui dénonce un commerce répugnant aux principes d'humanité et de morale universelle jusqu'à la Cour internationale de Justice qui voque en 1970 les principes et les règles concernant les droits fondamentaux de la personne humaine y compris la protection contre la pratique de l'esclavage comme source d'obligations erga omnes, le droit international contemporain est caractérisé par la construction progressive d'un régime international relevant de la notion de jus cogens. Alors que de nombreux travaux récents voquent l'esclavage sous l'angle historique ou dans une perspective contemporaine, cet ouvrage présente l'originalité de s'inscrire dans une perspective juridique de longue durée au carrefour des sources formelles et matérielles du droit international public tout en éclairant des débats les plus actuels sur les responsabilités historiques en la matière. The French Presidential and

Legislative Elections of 2002 John Gaffney, 2018-01-18 The French elections of 2002 provided an opportunity to assess the political development of the regime and in particular developments within the complex phenomenon of French presidentialism within a party system In this thorough analysis John Gaffney looks at the institutional political and electoral moments of 2002 which saw both presidential and legislative elections and a major upheaval in the political life of France Bringing together a range of scholars the volume includes contributions from historians political scientists economists cultural studies experts and media experts to offer a thorough and textured analysis of French politics

Multiculturalism and International Law Sienho Yee, Jacques-Yvan Morin, 2009-01-01 This volume examines the role and influence of multiculturalism in general theories of international law in the composition and functioning of international organizations such as the ICJ the ILC the UN and the ICC and in the progressive development of substantive international law regarding issues such as anti terrorism cultural identity the Danish cartoons controversy indigenous peoples and cultural exemptions at the WTO With Forewords from Boutros Boutros Ghali and Shigeru Oda this authoritative volume contains contributions from 36 distinguished scholars from every continent of the world tackling multiculturalism and international law an ever more topical issue in honour of appropriately Edward McWhinney an eminent scholar who has spent a substantial part of his life promoting multiculturalism

Handbook of Nuclear Proliferation Harsh V Pant, 2012-02-27 The chapters of this proposed volume are intended to shed light on the diverse themes surrounding this very important issue area in international security Each of the six major sections addresses an aspect of nuclear proliferation that will be critical in determining the future trajectory of global politics in the years to come The first section examines the major thematic issues underlying the contemporary discourse on nuclear proliferation How do we understand this period in proliferation What accounts for a taboo on the use of nuclear weapons so far and will it survive What is the present state of nuclear deterrence models built during the Cold War What is the relationship between the pursuit of civilian nuclear energy and the risks of proliferation Why are we witnessing a move away from non proliferation to counter proliferation The second section gives an overview of the evolving nuclear policies of the five established nuclear powers the USA Russia the United Kingdom France and the People's Republic of China Section three looks at the three de facto nuclear states India Pakistan and Israel The fourth section examines the three problem areas in the proliferation matrix today Iran North Korea and the potent mix of non state actors and nuclear weapons The fifth section sheds light on an important issue often ignored during discussions of nuclear proliferation cases where states have made a deliberate policy choice of either renouncing their nuclear weapons programme or have decided to remain a threshold state The cases of South Africa Egypt and Japan will be the focus of this section The final section will examine the present state of the global nuclear non proliferation regime which most observers agree is currently facing a crisis of credibility The three pillars of this regime the Nuclear Non Proliferation Treaty NPT the Comprehensive Test Ban Treaty CTBT and the Fissile Material Cut Off Treaty FMCT will be examined This is followed by an analysis of the present trends and prospects for US Russia nuclear arms control The impact of missile defenses and the US India civilian nuclear energy co operation pact will be examined so as to ascertain whether they have weakened or strengthened the global non proliferation regime The chapters in this volume aim to document the increasing complexity of the global nuclear proliferation dynamic and the inability of the international community to come to terms with a rapidly changing strategic milieu The future in all likelihood will be very different from the past and the chapters in this volume will try to develop a framework that may help gain a better understanding of the forces that will shape the nuclear proliferation debate in the years to come
