

The Annual Bibliography of Art Librarianship continues the 'Professional Literature Update' column which for several years appeared regularly in the IFLA Section of Art Libraries Newsletter.

While the Annual Bibliography would like to provide readers with a comprehensive service, it is inevitably both selective by design and incomplete through ignorance. Its primary aim is to reveal the more substantial writings on art librarianship; relatively slight, ephemeral, or marginal material is not included, but errors of judgement, compounded in some instances by inability to examine publications, or by language problems, are unavoidable. The Annual Bibliography seeks to complement rather than to duplicate the admirable bibliography published annually in Visual Resources. It includes references, under subject headings, to articles in the current volume of Art Libraries Journal which is completed with this issue; an author/title index can be found immediately following the Annual Bibliography.

The Annual Bibliography depends on the willingness of individuals and of associations to supply information or copies of publications; until further notice please send these to the Editor of Art Libraries Journal.

New Directions in Local History Since Hoskins Christopher Dyer,Andrew Hopper,Evelyn Lord,2011-10 Utilizing the techniques developed by renowned local historian W G Hoskins in his landmark study published 50 years ago Local History in England this book demonstrates how local history has evolved as a discipline over the last half century Fifteen historians write about a variety of local history subjects that are significant in their own right but which also point to current trends in the field They show how local historians use their sources systematically from the nonverbal evidence of buildings to various types of electronic sources All periods between the middle ages and the early twenty first century are explored covering many parts of England from Skye to the Kent coast and discussing topics that include social economic religious legal intellectual and cultural history Monthly Catalogue, United States Public Documents ,1995 Moral Authority, Men of Science, and the Victorian Novel Anne DeWitt,2013-07-18 Nineteenth century men of science aligned scientific practice with moral excellence as part of an endeavor to secure cultural authority for their discipline Anne DeWitt examines how novelists from Elizabeth Gaskell to H G Wells responded to this alignment Revising the widespread assumption that Victorian science and literature were part of one culture she argues that the professionalization of science prompted novelists to deny that science offered widely accessible moral benefits Instead they represented the narrow aspirations of the professional as morally detrimental while they asserted that moral concerns were the novel s own domain of professional expertise This book draws on works of natural theology popular lectures and debates from the pages of periodicals to delineate changes in the status of science and to show how both familiar and neglected works of Victorian fiction sought to redefine the relationship between science and the novel Australian National Bibliography: 1992 National Library of Australia,1988 An Annotated Guide to Current National Bibliographies Barbara L. Royalties Gail Turley Houston, 1999 This cultural sovereignty argues Gail Turley Houston in the hands of a female monarch troubled writers especially men who worked during a reign that viewed women as domestic angels By exploring a wide range of representations of the queen by significant Victorian writers Houston points out the complexity of Victorian constructions of gender representation authority and identity She works to demystify such canonized authors as Charles Dickens Elizabeth Barrett Browning and Margaret Oliphant by examining the ways they encounter Victoria in their writings The queen's feminine power seems to be at odds with the masculine profession of author which was also coming to be viewed as a significant representative of the culture Jacket
