Welcome!

The Applied Genealogy Institute lived up to its "learn by doing" tagline. The hands-on, practicum-based approach offered a thorough analysis of case studies and hit the goldilocks zone for the student-instructor talking time ratio...The smaller class size really made it possible for students to participate as they wished.—Pam V. (Irish Research)

Thank you for creating AppGen! Can't wait to see what courses are offered next. —Attendee (Exploring Broad Context)

I highly recommend the Applied Genealogy Institute. It was a wonderful learning experience. The course had a small student to instructor ratio, a robust syllabus and instructive homework assignments. Lisa took the time to provide helpful feedback on my homework. ... I look forward to participating in future courses. — Tracey R. (Land Research)

The Applied Genealogy Institute (AppGen) is a new venture by three practicing genealogists and successful instructors—Mary Kircher Roddy, CG; Lisa S. Gornell, CG and Jill Morelli, CG. Their many years of teaching experience, coupled with your desire to learn, will make your learning adventure a success.

Gillmer,2017 In these absorbing accounts of five court cases Jason A Gillmer offers intimate glimpses into Texas society in the time of slavery Each story unfolds along boundaries between men and women slave and free black and white rich and poor old and young as rigid social orders are upset in ways that drive people into the courtroom One case involves a settler in a rural county along the Colorado River his thirty year relationship with an enslaved woman and the claims of their children as heirs A case in East Texas arose after an owner refused to pay an overseer who had shot one of her slaves Another case details how a free family of color carved out a life in the sparsely populated marshland of Southeast Texas only to lose it all as waves of new settlers civilized the county An enslaved woman in Galveston who was set free in her owner s will and who got an uncommon level of support from her attorneys is the subject of another case In a Central Texas community as another case recounts citizens forced a Choctaw native into court in an effort to gain freedom for his slave a woman who easily passed as white The cases considered here include Gaines v Thomas Clark v Honey Brady v Price and Webster v Heard All of them pitted communal attitudes and values against the exigencies of daily life in an often harsh place Here are real people in their own words as gathered from trial records various legal documents and many other sources People of many colors from diverse backgrounds weave their way in and out of the narratives We come to know what mattered most to them and where those personal concerns stood before the law
