Applying The Humanities:

Applying the Humanities Daniel Callahan, Arthur L. Caplan, Bruce Jennings, 1985-08-31 Applied Global Health Humanities Fella Benabed, 2024-07-01 This book highlights the importance of global Anglophone literature in global health humanities shaping perceptions of health issues in the Global South and among minorities in the Global North Using twelve novels it explores the historical political sociocultural ethical and environmental aspects of health by analyzing the experiences of characters who suffer from infectious diseases mental disorders or disabilities and who seek holistic healing practices Applying Translation Theory to Musicological Research Małgorzata Grajter, 2024-05-26 This monograph lays the foundation for new methodologies of research between music and translation It is the first such holistic attempt from the perspective of a musicologist based on the adaptation of translation theories Until now these fields have remained underexplored together Only recently have the tools developed by translation theory permeated into musical scholarship Such tools should prove as a promising alternative to those offered by classic musicological studies particularly in reference to musical arrangement pop music covers and performance Theoretical discussion on topics are supported by case studies This text appeals to musicologists and musicians as well as experts in the field of translation theory who are interested in expanding their field of inquiry On the Uses of the Humanities, 1984 Designed to provide a general assessment of the rapidly growing applied humanities movement in the United States this report sets forth issues found to be central to an assessment of current work in the applied humanities presents a general survey of the nature of applied work in a variety of disciplines and offers conclusions and observations about how high quality work in applied humanities can be nurtured and supported in the future The first of seven sections presents an introduction to issues surrounding the applied humanities movement The second section examines basic features of current debates related to the humanities by examining three historical developments Greek thought in the fifth and fourth centuries B C individualism and the reaction against tradition emerging after the Reformation in the West in the 17th and 18th centuries and professionalization and institutionalization which began toward the end of the 19th century reaching maturity during the 20th century Section 3 Current Work in Applied Humanities discusses philosophy applied and public history and literature Section 4 presents models of application while section 5 deals with fields of application specifically the humanities and the biomedical sciences humanities and the social sciences and public policy and the policy sciences Academic preparation and disciplinary standards are the focus of the next section The final section summarizes the hopes problems and needs of the humanities as a serious discipline of study LH Applying Interdisciplinarity to Globalization, Management, Marketing, and Accountancy Science Pavlát, Vladislav, Kniňová, Ladislava, Cívín, Lubomír, Halík, Jaroslav, MacGregor Pelikánová, Radka, 2023-10-16 With the world becoming increasingly interconnected and complex traditional means are no longer sufficient to address complex global issues Scholars often struggle to navigate the intricate web of interdisciplinary research and theory This gap in understanding leaves many academics feeling adrift in their pursuit of knowledge unable to harness the full potential of interdisciplinary collaboration Applying Interdisciplinarity to Globalization Management Marketing and Accountancy Science offers a comprehensive and up to date solution to the obstacles of interdisciplinarity It meticulously analyzes the theory and methodology of interdisciplinarity as it exists in the most relevant literature and through a detailed examination of four vital disciplines in the applied economy it compares and contrasts the dynamics of globalization and its reflections within these fields Furthermore it uncovers the hidden infrastructures supporting these disciplines and offers practical insights into applying this knowledge in research and practice This book is an indispensable resource for scholars and educators across diverse disciplines empowering them to embrace interdisciplinarity with confidence

A Global Humanities Approach to the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals Kelly Comfort, 2023-10-10 This edited textbook explores the 17 UN SDGs through 12 works from the humanities including films novels and photographic collections It provides students with the knowledge and understanding of how the humanities engage in broader social political economic and environmental dialogue offering a global perspective that crosses national and continental borders The book takes students through the UN SDGs from a theoretical perspective through to practical applications first through specific global humanities examples and then through students own final projects and reflections Centered around three major themes of planet people and prosperity the textbook encourages students to explore and apply the Goals using a place based culturally rooted approach while simultaneously acknowledging and understanding their global importance The text s examples range from documentary and feature film to photography and literature including Wang Jiuliang s Plastic China Kip Andersen and Keegan Kuhn s Cowspiracy The Sustainability Secret Barbara Dombrowski s Tropic Ice Dialog Between Places Affected by Climate Change and Aravind Adiga s The White Tiger among others Providing diverse geographic and cultural perspectives the works take readers to Argentina Australia Bolivia China Costa Rica Ecuador France Greenland Haiti India Japan Peru Rwanda Senegal and the United States This broad textbook can be used by students and instructors at undergraduate and postgraduate levels from any subject background particularly but not exclusively those in the humanities With added discussion questions research assignments writing prompts and creative project ideas students will gain a nuanced understanding of the interconnectivity between social cultural ethical political economic and environmental factors The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license Please follow this link to see the online launch of the book <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XFb5SY9v7GQ>

Loaded Words Marjorie B. Garber, 2012 Asthma is a common chronic inflammatory condition of the airways which causes coughing wheezing shortness of breath and tightness of the chest Asthma attacks can be triggered by exposure to allergens physical exertion stress or can be aggravated as a result of common coughs and colds Over 5 million people in the UK and over 6% of children in the US suffer from Asthma and a recent increase in prevalence is thought to be attributed to our modern lifestyle such the changes in housing diet and a more hygienic environment that have developed over the past few decades Asthma The Facts is a practical guide to asthma suitable for those who suffer from asthma their families and the health professionals that treat them It details how a diagnosis of asthma is reached and what treatments are available to successfully manage the condition and prevent attacks on a day to day basis The book contains advice on proactive changes which can be made to lifestyles such as avoiding allergens as well as how to cope with an attack and how to administer the relevant treatment effectively The authors conclude that whilst there is currently no cure for asthma by taking a proactive self directed approach to management its impact on the patient and their lives can be significantly reduced

The Entrepreneurial Humanities Alain-Philippe Durand,Christine Henseler,2023-06-07 With AI cryptocurrency and more in the news it seems that being an entrepreneur means being in IT but humanities graduates are launching new businesses every day turning a profit and having social impact This book explores how a humanities background can enable entrepreneurs to thrive Across all levels of education students are given the message that to change the world or make money the arts and humanities are not the subjects to study At the same time discussions of innovation and entrepreneurship highlight the importance of essential skills such as critical thinking storytelling cultural awareness and ethical decision making Here s the disconnect the subjects that help to develop these vital skills are derided at critical points in any aspiring entrepreneur s education This collection of perspectives from entrepreneurs in a range of fields and humanities educators illustrates what individuals and the wider world are missing when humanities are overlooked as a source of inspiration and success in business Featuring a foreword by Sensemaking author Christian Madsbjerg this is a thought provoking guide for aspiring entrepreneurs in all sectors and for educators a window on the practical value of the humanities in an ever more mechanized world _ The Humanities; Applied Aesthetics Louise Dudley,Austin Faricy,1967

Applied Drama and Person-Centred Nursing Karl Tizzard-Kleister,2024-12-24 This ground breaking book highlights and extends on the increasing number of research and practice collaborations between the disciplines of drama and nursing across the globe Uniquely it presents how drama based interactive education can enable nursing students to develop an embodied understanding of sympathetic presence within a person centred curriculum This text provides meaningful insights into how to cultivate approaches to be person centred and sympathetically present in every interaction with others through the application of drama based methods The work described within seeks to show how applying drama can help people perform more effective person centred practices with applied drama approaches which are in turn more person centred By focusing on the author s innovative doctoral research study this book seeks to show how taking part in expertly designed drama practice alongside nursing education leads nurses towards engaging more in person centredness overcoming their personal vulnerabilities showing an enhanced ability to attend to others and a greater understanding of how to perform presence Meanwhile showing applied drama practitioners how they can understand facilitation practice through sympathetic presence to discover practical ways to approach an aesthetics of care in their practice This book offers a process for nurse educators and applied drama artists to work together in a mutual exchange where both fields can contribute specialised expertise in developing the next generation of person centred practitioners Higher Education Careers Beyond the Professoriate Karen Cardozo,Katherine Kearns,Shannan Palma,2024-03-15 Higher Education Careers Beyond the Professoriate is one of the first collections to explore PhD career versatility within higher education The twenty three contributors represent diverse disciplines institution types professional roles and intersectional identities Each thoughtful and personal essay explores firsthand what it means to remain in higher education yet not in the traditional role of a professor Topics include establishing new career paradigms well being and work life balance blended roles and identities and professional work around advocacy and inclusion Unifying the essays is the idea that career diversity is intertwined with other diversity discourse yielding a broad based but critical examination of careers in higher education administration Though the doctoral landscape continues to change a self determined values driven attitude remains essential This book offers powerful insight into cultural and structural barriers that inhibit institutional transformation and obscure the real range of PhD futures Frank about both challenges and opportunities these essays reveal how letting go of track thinking opens a constellation of possibilities and many paths to meaningful work and a fulfilling life The Science of Citizen

Science Katrin Vohland,Anne Land-zandstra,Luigi Ceccaroni,Rob Lemmens,Josep Perelló,Marisa Ponti,Roeland Samson,Katherin Wagenknecht,2021-01-11 This open access book discusses how the involvement of citizens into scientific endeavors is expected to contribute to solve the big challenges of our time such as climate change and the loss of biodiversity growing inequalities within and between societies and the sustainability turn The field of citizen science has been growing in recent decades Many different stakeholders from scientists to citizens and from policy makers to environmental organisations have been involved in its practice In addition many scientists also study citizen science as a research approach and as a way for science and society to interact and collaborate This book provides a representation of the practices as well as scientific and societal outcomes in different disciplines It reflects the contribution of citizen science to societal development education or innovation and provides an overview of the field of actors as well as on tools and guidelines It serves as an introduction for anyone who wants to get involved in and learn more about the science of citizen science
