Approaches To A Science Of English Verse:

Approaches to a Science of English Verse Wilbur Schramm, 1935 Approaches to a Science of English Verse Wilbur Lang Schramm, 1969 Nineteenth-Century Verse and Technology Jason David Hall, 2017-09-13 This book repositions thinking about rhythm meter and versification during the Mechanical Age Cutting across disciplinary boundaries the book examines the rhythmical workings of poems alongside not only Victorian theories of prosody and poetics but also contemporary thinking about labor practices pedagogical procedures scientific experiments and technological innovations By offering an exploded definition of meter one that extends beyond conventional foot based scansion this book explicates the conceptual and at times material exchanges between poetic meter and machine culture The machines of meter include mid century theories of abstraction and technologies of smoothness and even spacing a deeply influential though rarely credited system of metrical manufacture verse produced by a Victorian automaton the mechanics of the human body and mind and the meters that issued from them and the promise of scientific machines to resolve metrical dilemmas once and for all

Cognitive Approaches to Old English Poetry Antonina Harbus, 2012 Offers an entirely new way of interpreting and examining Anglo Saxon texts via theories derived from cognitive studies A major thoughtful study applying new and serious interpretative and critical perspectives to a central range of Old English poetry Professor John Hines Cardiff University Cognitive approaches to literature offer new and exciting ways of interpreting literature and mentalities by bringing ideas and methodologies from Cognitive Science into the analysis of literature and culture While these approaches are of particular value in relation to understanding the texts of remote societies they have to date made very little impact on Anglo Saxon Studies This book therefore acts as a pioneer mapping out the new field explaining its relevance to Old English Literary Studies and demonstrating in practice its application to a range of key vernacular poetic texts including Beowulf The Wanderer and poems from the Exeter Book Adapting key ideas from three related fields Cognitive Literary Cultural Studies Cognitive Poetics and Conceptual Metaphor Theory in conjunction with more familiar models derived from Literary Analysis Stylistics and Historical Linguistics allows several new ways of thinking about Old English literature to emerge It permits a systematic means of examining and accounting for the conceptual structures that underpin Anglo Saxon poetics as well as fuller explorations at the level of mental processing of the workings of literary language in context The result is a set of approaches to interpreting Anglo Saxon textuality through detailed studies of the concepts mental schemas and associative logic implied in and triggered by the evocative language and meaning structures of surviving works ANTONINA HARBUS is Professor in the Department of English at Macquarie University Sydney Australia Annual Bibliography of English Language and Literature , Approaches to a Science of English Verse... With an Introduction by Carl E. Seashore and Joseph Tiffin Wilbur Lang Schramm, Joseph Tiffin, Carl Emil Seashore, 1935 A Guide to English Literature F. W. Bateson, 2008-12-31 At first glance A Guide to English Literature may seem to be no more than a short bibliography of English literature with perhaps rather more extensive and certainly more outspoken comments on the principal editions commentaries biographies and critical works than bibliographies usually provide But it is something more this guide contains long inter chapters that provide reinterpretations of the principal periods of English literature in the light of modern research as well as two final sections summarizing in unusual detail the literary criticism that exists in English and recent scholarship in the field The purpose of this book then is to provide the reader with convenient access to a disciplined study of the texts themselves This guide proposes itself as a new kind of literary history The conventional history of literature has often tended to become a substitute for the reading of the literature it describes the better the history the greater the temptation to substitute it The present combination of reading lists and inter chapters cannot be a substitute for anything else Meaningless as literature in themselves they nevertheless provide the necessary preliminary information to meaningful reading Since oddities of arrangement derive from these assumptions the authors are not arranged alphabetically Instead there are chronological compartments with the divisions circa 1500 1650 and 1800 in which authors succeed each other in the order of their births This pioneering handbook is primarily a bibliographical laborsaving device It is meant mostly for students and the general reader in that it stops where original research by the reader is expected to begin However the last chapter on literary scholarship is devoted specifically to the research specialist and provides indispensable equipment for the reader There is also a general section on literary criticism which will be of use to all F W Bateson 1901 1978 was University Lecturer in English Literature at Oxford and a Fellow and Tutor of Corpus Christi College Founder and editor of the periodical Essays in Criticism he is also editor of the four volume Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature and the author of a number of critical studies of English poetry and drama

Metrical Principles of English Poetry Ruth Coons Wallerstein, 1961 Makers of the Media Mind William David Sloan, 1990 First Published in 1990 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Routledge Research Companion to Nineteenth-Century British Literature and Science John Holmes, Sharon Ruston, 2017-05-18 Tracing the continuities and trends in the complex relationship between literature and science in the long nineteenth century this companion provides scholars with a comprehensive authoritative and up to date foundation for research in this field In intellectual material and social terms the transformation undergone by Western culture over the period was unprecedented Many of these changes were grounded in the growth of science Yet science was not a cultural monolith then any more than it is now and its development was shaped by competing world views To cover the full range of literary engagements with science in the nineteenth century this companion consists of twenty seven chapters by experts in the field which explore crucial social and intellectual contexts for the interactions between literature and science how science affected different genres of writing and the importance of individual scientific disciplines and concepts within literary culture Each chapter has its own extensive bibliography The volume as a whole is rounded out with a synoptic introduction by the editors and an afterword by the eminent historian of nineteenth century science Bernard Lightman Makers of the Media Mind Wm. David Sloan, 2014-07-10 Makers of the Media Mind is a collection of analytical essays focusing on the most important and original ideas contributed to the field of mass communication by journalism educators Divided into six sections representing the most prominent areas of specialization in the field this text serves two significant purposes first it acquaints readers with the lives of preeminent journalism educators second it provides concise discussions and evaluations of the most compelling ideas those educators have to offer The editor of and contributors to this text contend that ideas cannot be appreciated fully without an understanding of the creators of those same ideas They hope that this volume s coverage of creators as well as concepts will demonstrate that journalism education has played a critical role in the making of the media mind Learning the Secrets of English Verse David J. Rothman, Susan Delaney Spear, 2022-08-09 This textbook teaches the writing of poetry by examining all the major verse forms and repeating stanza forms in English It provides students with the tools to compose successful lines of poetry and focuses on meter including free verse rhythm rhyme and the many other tools a poet needs to create both music and meaningfulness in an artful poem Presenting copious examples from strong poets of the past and present along with many recent student examples all of which are scanned each chapter offers lessons in poetic history and the practice of writing verse along with giving students a structured opportunity to experiment writing in all the forms discussed In Part 1 Rothman and Spear begin at the beginning with Anglo Saxon Strong Stress Alliterative Meter and examine every major meter in English up to and including the free verse forms of modern and contemporary poetry Part 2 presents a close examination of stanza forms that moves from the simple to the complex beginning with couplets and ending with the 14 line Eugene Onegin stanza The goal of the book is to give students the essential skills to understand how any line of poetry in English may have been composed the better to enjoy them and then also write their own the keys to the treasure chest Rothman and Spear present a rigorous curriculum that teaches the craft of poetry through a systematic examination and practice of the major English meters and verse forms Under their guidance students hone their craft while studying the rich traditions and innovations of poets writing in English Suitable for high school students and beyond I studied with Rothman in graduate school and went through this course with additional scholarly material This book will help students develop a keen ear for the music of the English language Teow Lim Goh author of Islanders *The Cambridge bibliography of English literature, edited by F.W. ...
