Approaches To Islam In Religious Studies:

Approaches to Islam in Religious Studies Richard C. Martin, 1985      Rethinking Islam in Europe Zekirija Sejdini, 2022-01-19 Islamic theology had to wait a long time before being granted a place in the European universities That happened above all in German speaking areas and this led to the development of new theological and religious pedagogical approaches This volume presents one such approach and discusses it from various perspectives It takes up different theological and religious pedagogical themes and reflects on them anew from the perspective of the contemporary context The primary focus is on contemporary challenges and possible answers from the perspective of Islamic theology and religious pedagogy It discusses general themes like the location of Islamic theology and religious pedagogy at secular European universities The volume also explores concrete challenges such as the extent to which Islamic religious pedagogy can be conceptualised anew how it should deal with its own theological tradition in the contemporary context and how a positive attitude towards worldview and religious plurality can be cultivated At issue here are foundations of a new interpretation of Islam that takes into account both a reflective approach to the Islamic tradition and the contemporary context In doing so it gives Muslims the opportunity to take their own thinking further      New Approaches to the Study of Religion:

Regional, critical, and historical approaches Peter Antes, Armin W. Geertz, Randi Ruth Warne, 2004 Internationally recognized scholars from many parts of the world provide a critical survey of recent developments and achievements in the global field of religious studies The work follows in the footsteps of two former publications Classical Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Jacques Waardenburg 1973 and Contemporary Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Frank Whaling 1984 85 New Approaches to the Study of Religion completes the survey of the comparative study of religion in the twentieth century by focussing on the past two decades Many of the chapters however are also pathbreaking and point the way to future approaches      Regional, Critical, and Historical Approaches Peter Antes, Armin W. Geertz, Randi R.

Warne, 2008-12-19 Internationally recognized scholars from many parts of the world provide a critical survey of recent developments and achievements in the global field of religious studies The work follows in the footsteps of two former publications Classical Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Jacques Waardenburg 1973 and Contemporary Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Frank Whaling 1984 85 New Approaches to the Study of Religion completes the survey of the comparative study of religion in the twentieth century by focussing on the past two decades Many of the chapters however are also pathbreaking and point the way to future approaches      Contemporary Approaches to the

Qur'an and Sunnah Mahmoud Ayoub, 2012-01-01 The Qur'an and Sunnah are the two primary sources of Muslim faith life law and morality The Qur'an is for Muslims the foundation of their faith and the Sunnah is the framework of their morality Together they constitute the two sources of the law Shari'ah of God a guide to prosperity and happiness in this life and to the bliss of the hereafter Although the Qur'an and Sunnah are materially and formally two independent sources they are inextricably bound in a dynamic relationship The rulings and precepts ahkam of the Qur'an constitute the law shar' of God They are supplemented by the precepts of the authentic Sunnah which possess authority second only to the precepts of the Qur'an The Qur'an commands Muslims Whatever the Messenger gives you that you must take and whatever he forbids you you must desist therefrom 59 7      Islamic Religious Education in the Current Discourse Şenol Yağdı,2024-12-19 The volume presents the most current empirical research in the field of Islamic religious education Its findings are an important contribution to the development of theory in Islamic religious education The contributions address the challenges of Islamic religious education and professionalization research of Islamic religious education teachers and in a plural society

Religious Studies in Ontario Harold Remus, Daniel Fraikin, William Closson James,2006-01-01 Most Ontario universities were established by Christian denominations a Christian ethos was assumed and pervasive and students were required to take courses designed to teach and inculcate religion This insightful and comprehensive study demonstrates how as Ontario society became secularized and pluralistic so too did universities Today religion is again studies in university classrooms but as religious studies a relatively new field that reflects the religiously pluralistic nature of Ontario and the world wide explosion of knowledge This authoritative volume will be of interest to students of religion in and outside academic circles to administrators of academic institutions and granting agencies and to persons wanting to know more about the social and cultural changes that have transformed Ontario and Canadian society      The Teaching and Study of Islam in Western Universities Paul Morris, William Shepard, Paul Trebilco, Toni Tidswell,2013-11-26 Public interest in the religion of Islam and in Muslim communities in recent years has generated an impetus for Western Universities to establish an array of Institutes and programs dedicated to the study of Islam Despite the growth in number of programs dedicated to this study very little attention has been paid to the appropriate shape of such programs and the assumptions that ought to underlie such a study The Teaching and Study of Islam in Western Universities attempts to address two central questions that arise through the teaching of Islam Firstly what relation is there between the study of the religion of Islam and the study of those cultures that have been shaped by that religion Secondly what is the appropriate public role of a scholar of Islam After extensive discussion of these questions the authors then continue to address the wider issues raised for the academic community having to negotiate between competing cultural and philosophical demands This edited collection provides new perspectives on the study of Islam in Western Institutions and will be an invaluable resource for students of Education and Religion in particular Islamic Studies      Islam in Historical Perspective Alexander Knysh,2016-10-26 Islam in Historical Perspective provides readers with an introduction to Islam Islamic history and societies with carefully selected historical and scriptural evidence that enables them to form a comprehensive and balanced vision of Islam's rise and evolution across the centuries and up to the present day Combining historical and chronological approaches the book examines intellectual dialogues and socio political struggles within the extraordinary rich Islamic tradition Treating Islam as a social and political force the book also addresses Muslim devotional practices artistic creativity and the structures of everyday existence Islam in Historical Perspective is designed to help readers to develop personal empathy for the subject by relating it to their own experiences and burning issues of today It contains a wealth of historical anecdotes and quotations from original sources that are intended to emphasize its principal points in a memorable way This new edition features a thoroughly revised and updated text new illustrations expanded study questions and chapter summaries American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 10:1 Ibrahim Ragab, Louay Sa'ji, Mohamed Karbal, Samory Rashid, Muhammad-Shahid Ebrahim and Far A. Hasan, The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS established in 1984 is a quarterly double blind peer reviewed and interdisciplinary journal published by the International Institute of Islamic Thought IIIT and distributed worldwide The journal showcases a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world including subjects such as anthropology history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam Scholarly Approaches to Religion, Interreligious Perceptions and Islam Jean Jacques Waardenburg, 1995 The present book is the first volume of the series Studia Religiosa Helvetica A third of the articles focus on the relationship between Europe and the Islamic world The rest of the book contains contributions on the scholarly study of religion the religious relevance of the body health and salvation perceptions of other religions in ancient Egypt medieval Islam and modern Judaism Teaching Islam Brannon M. Wheeler, 2002-12-19 Despite the importance of Islam in global affairs and the role of Islamic Studies in Religious Studies little attention has been given to the basic questions of how Islam should be taught This volume brings together a number of leading scholars of Islamic Studies with rich experience in teaching Islam in a diversity of undergraduate settings from large public universities to small private colleges Topics addressed include Islamic law the Quran Sufism women in Islam Islam in America and teaching about Islam through Arabic literature and the use of new information technology Along with providing practical information about structuring courses and assignments the contributors examine the place of Islamic Studies in the larger theoretical framework of Religious Studies and liberal arts curricula Religion and Education in Europe Robert Jackson, 2007 New Approaches to Islam in Film Kristian Petersen, 2021-04-26 Many global film industries fail in expanding the role of Muslims on screen Too often they produce a dichotomy between good and bad Muslims limiting the narrative domain to issues of national security war and terrorism Naturally much of the previous scholarship on Muslims in film focused on stereotypes and the politics of representation This collection of essays from an international panel of contributors significantly expands the boundaries of discussion around Muslims in film asking new questions of the archive and magnifying analyses of particular cultural productions The volume includes the exploration of regional cinemas detailed analysis of auteurs and individual films comparison across global cinema and new explorations that have not yet entered the conversation The interdisciplinary collection provides an examination of the multiple roles Islam plays in film and the various ways Muslims are depicted Across the chapters key intersecting themes arise that push the limits of how we currently approach issues of Muslims in cinema and ventures to lead us in new directions for future scholarship This book adds new depth to the matrix of previous scholarship by revisiting methodological structures and sources as well as exploring new visual geographies transnational circuits and approaches It reframes the presiding scholarly conventions in five novel trajectories considering new sources exploring new communities probing new perspectives charting new theoretical directions and offering new ways of understanding conflict in cinema As such it will be of great use to scholars working in Islamic Studies Film Studies Religious Studies and Media

Islamization and Native Religion in the Golden Horde Devin DeWeese, 2010-11-01 This book is the first substantial study of Islamization in any part of Inner Asia from any perspective and the first to emphasize conversion narratives as important sources for understanding the dynamics of Islamization Challenging the prevailing notions of the nature of Islam in Inner Asia it explores how conversion to Islam was woven together with indigenous Inner Asian religious values and thereby incorporated as a central and defining element in popular discourse about communal origins and identity The book traces the many echoes of a single conversion narrative through six centuries the previously unknown recounting of the dramatic contest in which the khan zbek adopted Islam at the behest of a Sufi saint named Baba T kles DeWeese provides the English language translation of this and another text as well as translations and analyses of a wide range of passages from historical sources and epic and folkloric materials Not only does this study deepen our understanding of the peoples of Central Asia involved in so much turmoil today but it also provides a model for other scholars to emulate in looking at the process of Islamization and communal religious conversion in general as it occurred elsewhere in the world

New Methods in the Study of Islam Abbas Aghdassi, Aaron W. Hughes, 2024-05-31 Offers an innovative study of traditional and new methodologies used to study Islam

Islamic Jurisprudence in the Classical Era Norman Calder, 2010-03-22 Norman Calder is still considered a luminary in the field of Islamic law He was one among a handful of Western scholars who were beginning to engage with the subject In the intervening years much has changed and Islamic law is now understood as fundamental to any engagement with the study of Islam its history and its society In this book Colin Imber has put together and edited four essays by Norman Calder that have never been previously published Typically incisive they categorize and analyze the different genres of Islamic juristic literature that was produced between the tenth and fourteenth centuries showing what function they served both in the preservation of Muslim legal and religious traditions and in the day to day lives of their communities The essays also examine the status and role of the jurists themselves and give clear answers to the controversial questions of how far Islamic law and juristic thinking changed over the centuries and how far it was able to adapt to new circumstances

The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences, 2008

Islam, Education and Radicalism in Indonesia Tim Lindsey, Jamhari Makruf, Helen Pausacker, 2023-02-24 This book explores the connections between traditional Islamic education rising religious intolerance religious attitudes to gender campaigns for curricula innovation and modernisation and politics and society in Indonesia Drawing on extensive original research and the deep experience of the authors the book highlights tensions between traditional Islamic educators and modernisers and between different understandings of Islam emphasising the importance of these issues for the future of Indonesia International Handbook of the Religious, Moral and Spiritual Dimensions in Education Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Kathleen Engebretson, Robert Jackson, Andrew McGrady, 2007-06-04 Traditionally spirituality has resided and been contained within religious frameworks but while the links between the two areas are still acknowledged by many in the contemporary world spirituality is perceived by some as an aspect of human life that is distinct from religion Consequently many are searching for meaning within and without religious traditions today and seeking answers to ethical and moral questions that have been generated by the knowledge and technological explosion One outcome is the renewed interest in the religious spiritual and moral dimensions of education throughout the life cycle This International Handbook presents the research and professional practice of scholars who are daily engaged in the consideration of these dimensions in education The result is a collection of essays which reflects the discipline in all of its internationality as it is today Embedded within the chapters is also an agenda for the future where the religious moral and spiritual dimensions in education are proposed as an exciting and challenging way forward for educators at all levels in society As well it offers a vision for the emergence of a peaceful and just world
