

NORDIC IMPRESSIONS

Contemporary Art from Åland, Denmark, Finland, Greenland, Iceland, Norway, and Sweden

Nordic Impressions: Contemporary Art from Åland, Denmark, Finland, Greenland, Iceland, Norway, and Sweden brings together a wide array of artistic expressions that reflect the rich diversity and global character of Nordic Art. Made across a spectrum of media from locations throughout the Nordic region, the works in the exhibition each offer a unique artistic experience while sharing key common themes that hold a special place in Nordic culture: both historic themes such as light and darkness, the coexistence of nature and folklore, women's rights, and social liberalism, and more current subjects such as climate change, sustainability, and immigration.

Drawn from a larger survey of The Phillips Collection in the fall of 2018, this exhibition comes from the work of the multi-year Nordic Cultural Initiative, a collaboration between The Phillips Collection and the Washington, D.C.-based embassies of Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Norway, and Sweden, launched in 2016 to promote the wealth of Nordic artistic talent.

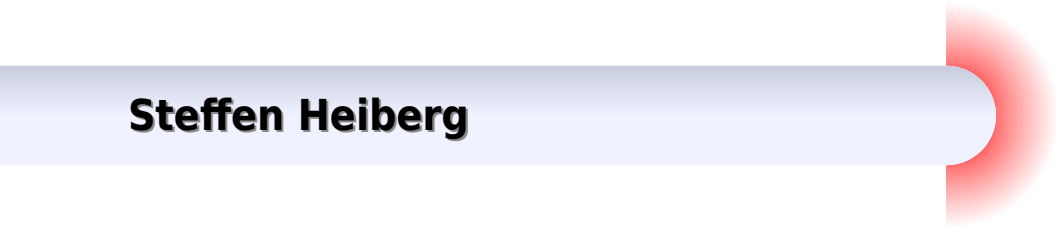

Curated by Phillips Collection Chief Curator and Deputy Director for Academic Affairs Klaus Ottmann, the exhibition has been organized in collaboration with The Phillips Collection, Washington, D.C.

Exhibition at Lundström House has been made possible by the generous support of Nordic Council, Henry F. Smith Foundation, and Thomas Eriksson. The Royal Norwegian Consulate General in New York and The Consulate General of Sweden in New York, in addition to the Norwegian Council for Cultural Exchange (NKK), the Nordic Cultural Center, the U.S. Department of Cultural Programs, and the Norwegian Museum of Cultural History.

Additional support has been provided by the Consulate General of Iceland, the Consulate General of Finland, and the Consulate General of Sweden.
