Arab Israel Conflict And Its Resolution Selected Documents:

The Arab-Israel Conflict and its Resolution: Selected Documents Moshe Hirsch,Ruth Lapidoth,2023-11-27 There is an urgent need for a solution to the Arab Israel conflict but so far no comprehensive solution has been found The search for a solution must be based on knowledge of the facts and of the relevant documents There might be exist disagreement among the various parties on the facts and the documents may be subject to differing interpretations but it is indispensable that those who study the conflict and those who deal with it have the plain text of the basic documents readily available This collection includes a wide range of documents including inter alia texts of agreements of official documents of the League of Nations and of the United Nations of official proposals and of relevant national documents It covers a period of almost one hundred years but it focuses mainly on documents dating from recent decades The editors have put together an objective collection including about ninety of the main relevant texts irrespective of whose claim may find support in them This volume will be of help to scholars and to students to historians and to political scientists to experts in international law and international relations to journalists to politicians and to diplomats The availability of this collection may make it easier for the conflict to be studied and to be solved

American Jewish Year Book 2003 David Singer, Lawrence Grossman, 2003 The Library owns the volumes of the American Jewish Yearbook from 1899 current

The Arab-Israeli Accords: Legal Perspectives Eugene Cotran, Chibli Mallat, 2023-12-11 This book brings together for the first time independent and highly respected lawyers and jurists from both sides of this century old conflict to identify and assess areas of common interest As violence diminishes in favour of negotiation and compromise all issues covered by the ongoing discussions will be determined by emerging rule of law The book contains original contributions from an experienced team of Palestinian and Israeli lawyers and scholars in the field and covers a range of strategic issues including history and law key international treaties the domestic dimensions of the peace process water arrangements economic issues and the legal institutions which are being created and must adapt to the new scene An important feature of the book is that it succeeds in showing that the traditional opposition of Israeli and Arab views may be giving way to a common informed reflection on modes of coexistence primarily determined by law Contributors include Raja Shehadeh Ruth Gavison Eyal Benvenisti Eugene Cotran David Kretzmer Anis Al Qasem Celia Fassberg Sharif Elmusa Mahmud El Jaafari Eran Feitelson Ruth Levush and Mona Rishmawi

The Arab-Israeli Conflict Transformed Hemda Ben-Yehuda, Shmuel Sandler, 2002-04-04 Makes the perhaps surprising argument that in the last quarter of the twentieth century the Arab Israeli conflict has been winding down

The Jerusalem Question and Its Resolution: Selected Documents Moshe Hirsch,Ruth Lapidoth,2025-01-20 It is universally accepted that Jerusalem is a unique city It stirs up strong emotions among adherents of various religions as it is the centre of three religions and it is the subject of conflicting national aspirations of two peoples The diverse attitudes and wishes associated with the city are expressed inter alia in certain documents This collection presents the most important of these documents

This will help the reader to understand the difficulties and may assist in the search for solutions There may be differences of opinion over historical facts and documents may be subject to differing interpretations Convenient access to the relevant documents is a prerequisite for any attempt to understand the problem and seek solutions The collection includes documents concerning the status of Jerusalem from the point of view of Israel's law and administration as well as documents from the Arab world and from the international sphere The editors have focused on official documents and in particular on those that have had a practical influence on the status of the city or are likely to do so in the future The collection will assist students and scholars who seek to understand the special status of Jerusalem as well as politicians and diplomats who are responsible for ensuring its welfare and prosperity

New Political Entities in Public and Private International Law Amos Shapira, Mala Tabory, 1999-03-01 New political entities usually come into being in the midst of political wrangling often accompanied by security problems and not infrequently violence This book taking the Israeli Palestinian conflict as its starting point goes on to deal with the general problems of new entities including such core concepts as sovereignty autonomy and legal personality In exploring human rights issues the complex notions of nationality and minority rights are examined On a more practical level several authors inquire into issues of legal assistance in civil and criminal matters security arrangements fiscal and monetary policies foreign investment guarantees economic privatization and transboundary water pollution On many of these topics German and European legal experience is introduced to shed a useful comparative light Altogether this volume represents an attempt to provide a primer for those responsible for or interested in the various aspects of new political entities at the end of the second millennium

Pinto, 2020-01-29 The Asian Yearbook of International Law is the first publication dedicated primarily to international law as seen from an Asian perspective It provides a forum for the publication of articles in the field of international law written by experts from the region and also other articles relating to Asian topics Its aim is twofold to promote the dissemination of knowledge of international law in Asia and to provide an insight into Asian views and practices which will be especially useful to a non Asian readership As a rule each volume of the Asian Yearbook contains Articles Notes State Practice a Chronicle of Events and Incidents United Nations Activities with Special Relevance to Asia a Survey of Activities of the Asian African Legal Consultative Committee a Bibliography and a Documents section

Will "Justice" Bring Peace? Yehuda Z. Blum, 2016-09-12 The first part of this book contains a selection of articles written over five decades The second part includes a selection of legal opinions written between 1962 1965 when the author was working in the legal department of Israel's Ministry of Foreign Affairs An appendix reproduces a letter on anti-Semitism at the United Nations sent by the author in his capacity as Israel's Ambassador and Permanent Representative to the UN and addressed to the UN Secretary General The author's varied career as a leading academic and high ranking diplomat offers a unique perspective on many aspects of international law ranging from constitutional problems of the UN Charter to the Arab Israel conflict The author has chosen to reproduce all these writings in their original form while being acutely aware that significant changes have occurred in many fields of international law in the intervening period This he has done consciously in the belief that preserving his writings unchanged will not only indirectly attest to the fundamental shifts in many areas of international law not all of which meet with his approbation

The Role of Law in Transboundary River Basin Disputes Chukwuebuka Edum,2023-12-22 This book examines the role legal rules play in the resolution of disputes in transboundary river basins When states fail to resolve disputes over shared water resources many cast such failures on inadequate or ineffective legal rules With this view in mind this book examines the role that legal rules do and can play in aiding the peaceful settlement of disputes and furthering cooperation between different parties Building on the interactional theory of law this book formulates three analytical frameworks the effect of norm generating processes the effects of water related agreements and or arrangements in the basins and the effect of international water It uses these frameworks to assess the role of law in the processes of cooperation and peaceful settlement of disputes on transboundary river basin by drawing on four illustrative case studies the Jordan River Basin the Nile River Basin the Mekong River Basin and the Indus River Basin In doing so this book presents a unique perspective on the multi functional role of legal rules in those processes Tapping into the global discussion on water security and water related conflicts this book stimulates readers to explore broader or interdisciplinary perspectives for understanding water related issues This book will be of great interest to students and scholars interested in water resource management water law environmental politics conflict resolution and sustainable development more generally

Whither Jerusalem? Deborah Housen-Couriel,Moshe Hirsch,Ruth Lapidoth,2023-12-04 The future of Jerusalem is the most difficult issue facing negotiators political and legal experts In the current peace talks between Israel and its neighbours it has been agreed to postpone discussion on Jerusalem to the latest stage of the peace process But the Jerusalem question continues to come to the fore at every turn always charged with intensely emotional and uncompromising statements not only from those parties who are directly involved but also by eminent personalities organizations and states elsewhere The Jerusalem Institute for Israel Studies has collected 55 proposals 12 were written between 1916 1950 and 43 between 1967 1993 Their authors coming from various countries present various approaches to the three main issues at stake sovereignty holy places and municipal governance Whither Jerusalem summarizes each of the 55 proposals gives brief information about their authors and analyzes the similarities and divergences between them The official position of five states and organizations is included as well as a lexicon of terms used by the authors of the proposals
