Arab Jewish Relations From Conflict To Reconciliation:

Sufism and Jewish-Muslim Relations Yafia Katherine Randall, 2016-03-31 In Israel there are Jews and Muslims who practice Sufism together The Sufi activities that they take part in together create pathways of engagement between two faith traditions in a geographical area beset by conflict Sufism and Jewish Muslim Relations investigates this practice of Sufism among Jews and Muslims in Israel and examines their potential to contribute to peace in the area It is an original approach to the study of reconciliation situating the activities of groups that are not explicitly acting for peace within the wider context of grass roots peace initiatives The author conducted in depth interviews with those practicing Sufism in Israel and these are both collected in an appendix and used throughout the work to analyse the approaches of individuals to Sufism and the challenges they face It finds that participants understand encounters between Muslim and Jewish mystics in the medieval Middle East as a common heritage to Jews and Muslims practising Sufism together today and it explores how those of different faiths see no dissonance in the adoption of Sufi practices to pursue a path of spiritual progression The first examination of the Derekh Avraham Jewish S f Order this is a valuable resource for students and scholars of Sufi studies as well as those interested in Jewish Muslim relations The Political Economy of Transitions to Peace Galia

Press-Barnathan, 2009-07-05 Much attention has focused on the ongoing role of economics in the prevention of armed conflict and the deterioration of relations In The Political Economy of Transitions to Peace Galia Press Barnathan focuses on the importance of economics in initiating and sustaining peaceful relations after conflict Press Barnathan provides in depth case studies of several key relationships in the post World War II era Israel and Egypt Israel and Jordan Japan the Philippines and Indonesia Japan and South Korea Germany and France and Germany and Poland She creates an analytical framework through which to view each of these cases based on three factors the domestic balance between winners and losers from transition to peace the economic disparity between former enemies and the impact of third parties on stimulating new cooperative economic initiatives Her approach provides both a regional and cross regional comparative analysis of the degree of success in maintaining and advancing peace of the challenges faced by many nations in negotiating peace after conflict and of the unique role of economic factors in this highly political process Press Barnathan employs both liberal and realist theory to examine the motivations of these states and the societies they represent She also weighs their power relations to see how these factor into economic interdependence and the peace process She reveals the predominant role of the state and big business in the initial transition phase cold peace but also identifies an equally vital need for a subsequent broader societal coalition in the second normalizing phase warm peace Both levels of engagement Press Barnathan argues are essential to a durable peace Finally she points to the complex role that third parties can play in these transitions and the limited long term impact of direct economic side payments to the parties Theology of Reconciliation in the Context of

Church Relations Rula Khoury Mansour, 2020-01-31 Christians are called to be peacemakers in a world rife with conflict but how should Christians respond when the source of strife is not outside the church but within it Built on an in depth analysis of three Palestinian church splits this text examines the cultural and theological implications of intra church conflict in Arab evangelical communities in Israel Translating Miroslav Volf s formative theology of reconciliation into her contemporary Palestinian context Dr Rula Khoury Mansour provides a critical evaluation of both Volf s theory and Palestinian peacemaking models Through her research and analysis Dr Mansour develops a Middle Eastern theology of reconciliation and encourages congregations around the world to develop greater cultural and theological awareness in their quest to experience lasting peace within their churches and wider communities

Approaches to Jewish-Arab Interreligious Dialogue and Peacebuilding: Theory and Practice Mollov, M. Ben, 2024-10-01 Religion in its most negative form has and can be the basis of conflict escalation and terror However religion in its more noble and elevated forms can also be a force for peacebuilding particularly between Jews and Arabs If the slow but steady progress toward Israel s acceptance into Middle East continues an interreligious dimension will clearly accompany it as the Abraham Accords demonstrates Yet as the region continues to evolve and new challenges emerge new peacebuilding strategies will be required Approaches to Jewish Arab Interreligious Dialogue and Peacebuilding Theory and Practice follows the genre of scholars and practitioners who have contended that the religious contribution to conflict resolution and peacebuilding has been sorely overlooked particularly in the Middle East Based on the author s rich professional experience this book delves into the complexities of Jewish Arab relations by examining both the theoretical frameworks and practical initiatives that seek to bridge divides through religious dialogue Covering topics such as the Arab Israeli conflict Jewish political tradition and religious diplomacy this book is an essential resource for academicians scholars practitioners in peacebuilding policymakers government officials religious leaders and communities students and educators and more
