Approaches to Jewish-Arab Interreligious Dialogue and Peacebuilding: Theory and Practice Molloy, M. Ben, 2024-10-01 Religion in its most negative form has and can be the basis of conflict escalation and terror However religion in its more noble and elevated forms can also be a force for peacebuilding particularly between Jews and Arabs If the slow but steady progress toward Israel's acceptance into Middle East continues an interreligious dimension will clearly accompany it as the Abraham Accords demonstrate Yet as the region continues to evolve and new challenges emerge new peacebuilding strategies will be required Approaches to Jewish Arab Interreligious Dialogue and Peacebuilding Theory and Practice follows the genre of scholars and practitioners who have contended that the religious contribution to conflict resolution and peacebuilding has been sorely overlooked particularly in the Middle East Based on the author's rich professional experience this book delves into the complexities of Jewish Arab relations by examining both the theoretical frameworks and practical initiatives that seek to bridge divides through religious dialogue Covering topics such as the Arab Israeli conflict Jewish political tradition and religious diplomacy this book is an essential resource for academicians scholars practitioners in peacebuilding policymakers government officials religious leaders and communities students and educators and more

Jews and Arabs in Israel Encountering Their Identities Maya Kahanoff, 2016-04-13 Jews and Arabs in Israel Encountering their Identities reveals the powerful potential of inter group dialogues to transform identities and mutually negating relations Using meetings with Israeli Jewish and Palestinian Arabian students who attend the Hebrew University of Jerusalem as case studies Kahanoff examines the hidden psychological dimensions of the Israeli Palestinian conflict and illustrates how each participant's sense of identity shifted in response to encounters with conflicting perspectives Kahanoff contends that an awareness of the limitations of dialogue without the renunciation of its value is the most realistic basis upon which to build a sustainable agreement This book is recommended for scholars of psychology sociology religious studies political science and communication studies

Dialogue, Conflict Resolution, and Change Mohammed Abu-Nimer, 2012-02-01 This is the first study to introduce the subject of Arab Jewish relations and encounters in Israel from both conflict resolution and educational perspectives Through a critical examination of Arab and Jewish encounter programs in Israel the book reviews conflict resolution and intergroup theories and processes which are utilized in dealing with ethnic conflicts and offers a detailed presentation of intervention models applied by various encounter programs to promote dialogue education for peace and democracy between Arabs and Jews in Israel The author investigates how encounter designs and processes can become part of a control system used by the dominant governmental majority's institutes to maintain the status quo and reinforce political taboos Also discussed are the different conflict perceptions held by Arabs and Jews the relationship between those perceptions and both sides expectations of the encounters Abu Nimer explores the impact of the political context Intifada Gulf War and peace process on the intervention design and process of those encounter groups and contains a list of recommendations and guidelines to consider when designing and conducting encounters between ethnic groups He reveals and explains why the Arab and Jewish encounter participants and leaders have different criteria of their encounter s success and failure The study is also applicable to dialogue and coexistence programs and conflict resolution initiatives in other ethnically divided societies such as South Africa Northern Ireland Bosnia and Sri Lanka where the minority and majority have struggled to find peaceful ways to coexist European Foreign

Policy-Making and the Arab-Israeli Conflict David John Allen, Alfred Pijpers, 1984-01-01 Shared Histories Paul Scham, Walid Salem, Benjamin Pogrund, 2016-09-17 There is no single history of the development of the Israeli Palestinian conflict The Israeli historical narrative speaks of Zionism as the Jewish national movement of building a refuge from persecution and of national regeneration The Palestinian narrative speaks of invasion expulsion and oppression Its no wonder peace remains elusive This volume attempts to present both histories with parallel narratives of key points in the 19th and 20th centuries to 1948 The histories are presented by fourteen Israeli and Palestinian experts joined by other historians journalists and activists who then discuss the differences and similarities between their accounts By creating an appreciation understanding and respect for the other the first steps can be made to foster a shared history of a shared land The reader has the opportunity to witness first hand a respectful confrontation between the competing versions of the Israeli Palestinian conflict Between Enemies Amos Elon, Sana Hassan, 1974 The Arab-Israeli Conflict Gregory S. Mahler, 2023-08-21

The Decline of the Arab-Israeli Conflict Avraham Sela, 2012-02-01 This historical study of international Middle East politics in regional perspective presents a comprehensive analysis of the interplay between inter Arab politics and the conflict with Israel the two key issues which have shaped the Middle East contemporary history and made it simultaneously tumultuous and a focus of international affairs The Decline of the Arab Israeli Conflict addresses the changing political behavior of the regional Arab system in the Palestine conflict from total enmity to negotiated peace with Israel This change is explained as a reflection of state formation process and constant thrust of ruling elites to disengage from compelling supra state commitments stemming from Pan Arab nationalist ideology and Islamic political culture The book scrutinizes the role of Arab summit conferences which since 1964 became the main collective Arab institution for decision making on common core issues foremost of which was the conflict with Israel The summits main role was to legitimize incremental departure from the overburdening Palestine conflict whose powerful collective symbolism threatened states autonomy Summits consensus sanctioned shifts from hitherto established collective Arab norms toward Israel as well as on inter Arab relations in accordance with core actors interests The summits offer a view to the Arab regional system's evolution as a negotiated inter state order based on mutual recognition of sovereign states as opposed to compulsive collectivism in the name of Pan Arabism They were in fact a manipulation of the regional Arab system by primary participants coalitions through employment of financial ideological and political trade offs to resolve inter Arab differences and reach a consensus on redefined collective goals

Anglo American framework of support for a Jewish homeland and the two state theory The book argues that three significant factors have impacted Canada s outlook and actions Firstly Canada s perception and policy towards the Arab Israel conflict have been shaped by religio cultural and historical factors rather than by its acclaimed Liberal Internationalism Second growing economic and commercial interests after the 1973 Arab Israel War and its perceived national interest made it adopt a more nuanced and balanced approach towards the conflict Finally it argues that the elite perception the initiatives by Lester Pearson and the presence of an active Jewish community have had a significant influence on Canadian perception towards the Arab Israel conflict
