Ackerley, 2016-07-28 Many twenty first century evangelical charismatics in Britain are looking for a faith that works They want to experience the miraculous in terms of healings and Godsent financial provision Many have left the mainstream churches to join independent charismatic churches led by those who are perceived to have special insights and to teach principles that will help believers experience the miraculous But all is not rosy in this promised paradise and when people are not healed or they remain poor they are often told that it is because they did not have enough faith This study discovers the origin of the principles that are taught by some charismatic leaders Glyn Ackerley identifies them as the same ideas that are taught by the positive confession health wealth and prosperity movement originating in the United States The origins of the ideas are traced back to New Thought metaphysics and its background philosophies of subjective idealism and pragmatism These principles were imported into the UK through contact between British leaders and those influenced by American word of faith teachers Glyn Ackerley explains the persuasiveness of such teachers by examining case studies suggesting their miracles may well have social and psychological explanations rather than divine origins

The Intelligible World James Lawler, 2014-09-26 Understanding Kant's pre-critical philosophy is central to appreciating his three critiques Overshadowed by the critiques the early work stands on its own as a central contribution to the development of the philosophy of its time In addition it not only prepares the way for the critiques but constitutes a hidden background without which they cannot be adequately understood Here we find Kant's great cosmology which is what Kant later regarded as the thing in itself persisting behind his notions of the noumenon the intelligible world and the postulates of morality Although he finally decided that his grand cosmological vision could not be demonstrated what cannot be strictly known can still be conjectured justifiably believed or postulated Kant's only possible proof for the existence of God remains implicit in the first critique The only writer about whom Kant ever dedicated a major work Dreams of a Spirit Seer Elucidated by Dreams of Metaphysics was Emanuel Swedenborg Kant here explores a conjectural metaphysics of matter and spirit and further formulates the meaning of the intelligible world providing the ontological framework of his later ethics If only one of Swedenborg's documented spirit seeings was valid how feeble must the metaphysical dreams of philosophers themselves seem

Born of Water and the Spirit John Williamson Nevin, Philip Schaff, Emanuel V. Gerhart, 2016-03-29

Born of Water and the Spirit presents essays on the sacraments by the three major representatives of Mercersburg Theology: John Nevin, Philip Schaff, and Emanuel Gerhart. It focuses on Mercersburg's doctrine of baptism and Christian nurture, attempts to correct putative deficiencies of the major Reformed trajectories (e.g., New England and Princeton) and vigorously critiques the anti-sacramental animus of revivalistic evangelicalism. Mercersburg understood baptism as initiating a person (adult or infant) into the sacramental life of the church. Baptism and Eucharist were objective, spiritually real actions that made what Nevin called the mystical presence of Jesus Christ present to Christians, bringing transformative power into their lives. The present critical edition carefully preserves the original texts while providing extensive introductions, annotations, and bibliography to orient the modern reader and facilitate further scholarship. The Mercersburg Theology Study Series is an attempt to make available for the first time in attractive, readable, and scholarly modern editions the key writings of the nineteenth-century movement known as the Mercersburg Theology. An ambitious multi-year project, it aims to make an important contribution to the scholarly community and to the broader reading public who can at last be properly introduced to this unique blend of American and European Reformed and Catholic theology.
