Archaeological Reports From The Tabqa Dam Project Euphrates Valley Syria:

Archaeological reports from the Tabqa dam project, Euphrates valley, Syria David Noel Freedman, 1977 Euphrates River Valley Settlement Edgar Peltenberg, 2007-07-11 Pre state ceremonial monuments rich mortuary arrangements forts walled settlements and temples all these occur in a narrow stretch of the Euphrates River valley prior to the rise of Carchemish one of the major capital cities of the Ancient Near East This well illustrated book examines recently discovered evidence from the hinterlands of archaeologically inaccessible Carchemish in its regional context Amongst the 18 contributors Tony Wilkinson characterizes the neighbouring regions of Carchemish Guy Bunnens elaborates on a site hierarchy within the valley and Gioacchino Falsone appraises unpublished records from excavations at Carchemish itself These material culture studies are important for those interested in the emergence of complex societies that do not conform to the Mesopotamian paradigm The Archaeology of Syria Peter M. M. G. Akkermans, Glenn M. Schwartz, 2003 This was the first book to present a comprehensive review of the archaeology of Syria from the end of the Paleolithic period to 300 BC Syria has become a prime focus of field archaeology in the Middle East in the past thirty years and Peter Akkermans and Glenn Schwartz discuss the results of this intensive fieldwork integrating them with earlier research Alongside the major material culture types of each period they examine important contributions of Syrian archaeology to issues like the onset of agriculture the emergence of private property and social inequality the rise and collapse of urban life and the archaeology of early empires All competing interpretations are set out and considered alongside the authors own perspectives and conclusions Broadening Horizons. 3rd Conference of Young Researchers Working in the Ancient Near East Borrell Tena, Ferran, Bouso García, Mònica, Gómez Bach, Anna, Tornero Dacasa, Carles, Vicente Campos, Oriol, 2012-09 Broadening Horizons is a series of international congresses dedicated to researchers including postgraduate students in the early stages of their careers who are involved in a number of different disciplinary areas in the study of the Ancient Near East and the Eastern Mediterranean The general aim of the conferences is to encourage discussion of new topics and to promote the exchange of ideas data and scientific information among students and scholars of many different specialties archaeology prehistory history anthropology archaeobiology and philology throughout the geographical area known as the Ancient Near East The 3rd of these congresses was held in Barcelona Spain from the 19th to the 21st of July 2010 in the Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona following previous congresses which had taken place at Ghent University Belgium in 2006 and at Universit Lyon 2 France in 2007 This volume includes not only the very interesting and diverse set of papers presented in Barcelona but also the invited contributions of the key speakers These two sections are followed by a final paper by the editors about the trajectory of the BH conferences and about the particularities and difficulties confronting young scholars who are doing research in the Near East The Archaeology of Death in Roman Syria Lidewijde de Jong, 2017-07-20 This book sheds new light on funerary customs in Roman Syria offering a novel way of understanding its provincial culture The Oxford Handbook of the Archaeology of the Levant Margarete Laura Steiner, Ann E. Killebrew, 2014 This Handbook offers an overview of the archaeology of the Levant Written by leading scholars in the field it integrates the treatment of the archaeology of the region within its larger cultural and social context and focuses chronologically on the Neolithic through to the Persian periods Excavations at the Early Bronze IV Sites of Jebel Qa'aqir and Be'er Resisim William G. Dever, 2018-07-17 This volume is the final report of excavations carried out in the Hebron hills and the Negev desert in 1967-1980 on behalf of Hebrew Union College in Jerusalem and the University of Arizona They were pioneering multidisciplinary projects that helped to illuminate what was then a poorly known Dark Age in the cultural history of ancient Palestine a nonurban interlude of pastoral nomadic movements over several centuries ca 2400-2000 B.C.E. between the great urban civilizations of the early Bronze Ages Eighteen appendixes by specialists in many disciplines analyze all aspects of material culture and human and animal remains A history of previous scholarship and a synthesis of the EB IV period in both Israel and Jordan conclude the volume which will be a landmark study for many years Early Urbanism on the Syrian Euphrates Lisa Cooper, 2006-08-21 Studying archaeological evidence from sites covering over 200 kilometres of the banks of the Euphrates River this book explores the growth and success of human settlement in the Euphrates River Valley of Northern Syria from circa 2700 to 1550 BC Animals, Ancestors, and Ritual in Early Bronze Age Syria Glenn M. Schwartz, 2024-02-01 Animals, Ancestors, and Ritual in Early Bronze Age Syria: An Elite Mortuary Complex from Umm el Marra edited by Johns Hopkins professor Glenn M. Schwartz is a final report of the excavation of Tell Umm el Marra in northern Syria conducted in 1994-2010 It is likely the site of ancient Tuba capital of a small kingdom in the Early and Middle Bronze periods in the Jabbul plain between Aleppo and northern Mesopotamia Its study advances our understanding of early Syrian complex society beyond the big cities of Antiquity Of particular importance in the Early Bronze excavations are the results from the site necropolis tombs of high ranking persons containing objects of gold, silver and lapis lazuli Separate installations hold kunga, donkey x onager hybrids sometimes along with human infants This site provides the first archaeological attestation of the kunga equids unique in the archaeology of third millennium Syria and Mesopotamia The Face of Old Testament Studies David W. Baker, Bill T. Arnold, 2004-10 Leading scholars provide an overview of current issues in Old Testament studies The Making of Empire in Bronze Age Anatolia Claudia Glatz, 2020-11-12 This book reconsiders the concept of empire and examines the processes of imperial making and undoing in Hittite Anatolia c. 1600-1180 BCE

Ancient Near Eastern Cylinder Seals from the Marcopoli Collection Beatrice Teissier, 2023-11-15 The Marcopoli Collection of ancient Near Eastern cylinder and stamp seals offers a remarkable window into the art and history of Syria and surrounding regions Established in the late 19th century by the Marcopoli family hereditary Italian consuls in Aleppo this collection is a testament to their fascination with archaeology and commitment to preserving relics of the past Under Paolo Marcopoli's stewardship the collection expanded significantly and stands today as a treasure trove of artifacts particularly rich in Syrian seals from the third and early second millennia These seals are invaluable for enhancing our understanding of Syrian glyptic art adding new layers of iconographical data and exceptional artistry to the historical record This catalogue focuses primarily on the collection s cylinder seals providing detailed descriptions and insights into their styles and iconography and classifies the seals based on established conventions The seals broad geographic origins from Syria to southern and northern Mesopotamia and potentially Iran further enrich the collection s diversity This work is essential for scholars and enthusiasts of ancient Near Eastern history and art offering a glimpse into the region s cultural heritage complete with meticulous documentation and cross references to other significant collections A forthcoming catalogue will explore the equally fascinating stamp seals of this collection This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1984 Ebla and its Landscape Paolo Matthiae,Nicoló Marchetti,2016-06-16 The discovery of 17 000 tablets at the mid third millennium BC site of Ebla in Syria has revolutionized the study of the ancient Near East This is the first major English language volume describing the multidisciplinary archaeological research at Ebla Using an innovative regional landscape approach the 29 contributions to this expansive volume examine Ebla in its regional context through lenses of archaeological textual archaeobiological archaeometric geomorphological and remote sensing analysis In doing so they are able to provide us with a detailed picture of the constituent elements and trajectories of early state development at Ebla essential to those studying the ancient Near East and to other archaeologists historians anthropologists and linguists This work was made possible by an IDEAS grant from the European Research Council The Biblical Archaeologist ,1994 Hasanlu V Michael D. Danti,2013-09-24 Hasanlu V provides archaeologists with a new more accurate chronology of Hasanlu the largest and arguably the most important archaeological site in the Gadar River Valley of northwestern Iran This revised chronology introduces Hasanlu Periods VIa V and IVc for the first time Based on new findings the report overturns current constructions of the origins of the archaeological culture in Hasanlu which sought to link the Monochrome Burnished Ware Horizon formerly known as the Early Western Grey Ware Horizon to the migration of new peoples into western Iran in the later second millennium B C Hasanlu V shows instead that the Monochrome Burnished Ware Horizon developed gradually from indigenous traditions This reappraisal has important implications for our understanding of Indo Iranian migrations into the Zagros region University Museum Monograph 137 After Collapse Glenn M. Schwartz,John J. Nichols,2010-08-15 From the Euphrates Valley to the southern Peruvian Andes early complex societies have risen and fallen but in some cases they have also been reborn Prior archaeological investigation of these societies has focused primarily on emergence and collapse This is the first book length work to examine the question of how and why early complex urban societies have reappeared

after periods of decentralization and collapse Ranging widely across the Near East the Aegean East Asia Mesoamerica and the Andes these cross cultural studies expand our understanding of social evolution by examining how societies were transformed during the period of radical change now termed collapse They seek to discover how societal complexity reemerged how second generation states formed and how these re emergent states resembled or differed from the complex societies that preceded them The contributors draw on material culture as well as textual and ethnohistoric data to consider such factors as preexistent institutions structures and ideologies that are influential in regeneration economic and political resilience the role of social mobility marginal groups and peripheries and ethnic change In addition to presenting a number of theoretical viewpoints the contributors also propose reasons why regeneration sometimes does not occur after collapse A concluding contribution by Norman Yoffee provides a critical exegesis of collapse and highlights important patterns found in the case histories related to peripheral regions and secondary elites and to the ideology of statecraft After Collapse blazes new research trails in both archaeology and the study of social change demonstrating that the archaeological record often offers more clues to the dark ages that precede regeneration than do text based studies It opens up a new window on the past by shifting the focus away from the rise and fall of ancient civilizations to their often more telling fall and rise

Foreword Tille Höyük 3.1 Stuart Blaylock, S. R. Blaylock, 2010-01-21 This book presents the structures and stratigraphy of the important Iron Age sequence at Tille Höyük a mound at a crossing of the Euphrates in eastern Turkey The site which was excavated between 1979 and 1990 by the British Institute of Archaeology at Ankara revealed ten major structural levels of the Iron Age spanning the period from the 11th century to the 6th 4th centuries BC as well as earlier and later remains and the wide exposure of architecture provides a sequence of intelligible and impressive building plans After the initial discussion of the background and methodology of their excavation the successive levels are carefully described and fully illustrated The earliest Iron Age occupation simple buildings among the ruins of the Late Bronze Age was followed by a major settlement of the Middle Iron Age when the Neo Hittite kingdom of Kummuh was at its height Most impressive architecturally are a large palatial building centred on a courtyard paved with a pebble mosaic which was probably built after the Assyrian annexation of Kummuh in 708 BC and continued in use through the seventh and the excellently preserved Level X with many distinctively Persian architectural features built in the latter half of the 6th or the early 5th century and probably lasting for a substantial time The structures and stratigraphy are also important as the context for the first rigorously established ceramic sequence in this part of Turkey which will be presented together with the other materials and artefacts in the companion to this volume already complete in draft Lying on the fringes of the Mesopotamian world and with contacts with North Syria North Mesopotamia and the Levant rather than with Anatolia or the Mediterranean Tille casts vivid new light on the cultural and political history of the region in the Iron Age Pilgrimage and Household in the Ancient Near East Joy McCriston, 2011-03-14 Examines the continuity of traditions over millennia in the Near East by focusing on the traditions of pilgrimage and household Proceedings of the 6th International Congress of the Archaeology of the Ancient Near East Licia Romano, 2010 6th International Congress of the Archaeology of the Ancient Near East held in Rome on May 5th 10th 2008 www 6icaane.it Foreword
