analyses fiction films in which the protagonists perform at the piano showing how musical performance supports the performance of gender Building on aspects of musical performance and in particular the use of songs performed in films Powrie uses a database of 300 films since 2010 to theorize the intervention of music at critical moments as a crystal song Applying Roland Barthes's concept of the punctum and Gilles Deleuze's concept of the crystal image Powrie establishes the importance of the crystal song which reconfigures time as a crystallization of past present and future The Oberlin
