Baseball's Pivotal Era, 1945-1951 William Marshall, 2021-11-21 With personal interviews of players and owners and with over two decades of research in newspapers and archives Bill Marshall tells of the players the pennant races and the officials who shaped one of the most memorable eras in sports and American history At the end of World War II soldiers returning from overseas hungered to resume their love affair with baseball Spectators still identified with players whose salaries and off season employment as postmen plumbers farmers and insurance salesmen resembled their own It was a time when kids played baseball on sandlots and in pastures fans followed the game on the radio and tickets were affordable The outstanding play of Joe DiMaggio Stan Musial Ted Williams Bob Feller Don Newcombe Warren Spahn and many others dominated the field But perhaps no performance was more important than that of Jackie Robinson whose entrance into the game broke the color barrier won him the respect of millions of Americans and helped set the stage for the civil rights movement Baseball's Pivotal Era 1945 1951 also records the attempt to organize the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Mexican League's success in luring players south of the border that led to a series of lawsuits that almost undermined baseball's reserve clause and antitrust exemption The result was spring training pay uniform contracts minimum salary levels player representation and a pension plan the very issues that would divide players and owners almost fifty years later During these years the game was led by A B Happy Chandler a hand shaking speech making singing Kentucky politician Most owners thought he would be easily manipulated unlike baseball's first commissioner the autocratic Judge Kennesaw Mountain Landis Instead Chandler's style led one owner to complain that he was the player's commissioner the fan's commissioner the press and radio commissioner everybody's commissioner but the men who pay him

Canada While his career was a solid one it was less spectacular than that of his friend and Hall of Famer Satchel Paige and so more typical of the experience of most Negro Leaguers Richly embroidered with the threads of black society and of life as a black athlete in a racially divided nation Robinson recounts his long career with the skill and ease of a natural storyteller He covers in remarkable detail the personal perspective of the men the teams and the times that shaped this uniquely American subculture From playing catcher for obscure industrial teams to barnstorming with Satchel Paige he chronologically traces his nationwide path through the 1920s 30s 40s and early 50s The Foreword by John Buck O Neil and Introduction by Gerald Early place Robinson squarely in the world of sports African American culture and American history

Carrying Jackie's Torch Steve Jacobson,2009 The real and painful struggles of the black players who followed Jackie Robinson into major and minor league baseball from 1947 to 1968 are chronicled in this compelling volume Players share their personal and often heart wrenching stories of intense racism both on and off the field mixed with a sometimes begrudged appreciation for their tremendous talents Stories include incidents of white players who gave up promising careers in baseball because they wouldn't play with a black teammate the Georgia law that forbade a black player from dressing in the same clubhouse as the white players the quotas for the number of blacks on a team and how salary negotiations without agents or free agency were akin to a plantation system for both black and white players The 20 players profiled include Ernie Banks Alvin Jackson Charlie Murray Chuck Harmon Frank Robinson Bob Gibson Hank Aaron Curt Flood Lou Brock and Bob Watson Study of Monopoly Power United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Study of Monopoly Power,1952 Committee Serial No 1 Focuses on legislation on antitrust law statute of limitations and U S recovery of damages in antitrust suits Considers legislation to revise price discrimination good faith defense provisions Focuses on distribution costs and nature of good faith price competition Considers legislation to exempt baseball and other sports from antitrust law provisions Jews and Baseball Burton A. Boxerman,Benita W. Boxerman,2016-06-23 This history follows up on the well received first volume and traces the arc of Jews in baseball after Hank Greenberg retired in 1948 During this postwar period Jews saw greater acceptance into the American mainstream as organized anti-Semitism was largely displaced by greater affluence education and a more geographically dispersed Jewish community Jews continued to flourish in baseball new stars like Al Rosen Sandy Koufax and Shawn Green debuted and off the field the era brought more Jewish owners executives sportswriters broadcasters and even a commissioner This book further demonstrates how and why Jews and baseball have continued to grow together A Baseball Book of Days Phil Coffin,2025-02-20 Almost anywhere on a calendar you can pinpoint the date of a memorable baseball moment Jackie Robinson's first game Eddie Gaedel's only game the sale of Babe Ruth to the Yankees and the clause that might have prevented it These and dozens more are recounted in this book chronicling hallmark days From the first no hitter in modern baseball maybe to the deep roots for the first night game in the major leagues this book provides a detailed narrative of the game's most important moments told in 31 singular remarkable days Covering the long path to integration the rise of Dominican players in the game and the infamous banning of the spitter this calendar of the diamond covers baseball from every angle and in every month of the year      Greatness in the Shadows Douglas M. Branson, 2016 Just weeks after Jackie Robinson joined the Brooklyn Dodgers Larry Doby joined Robinson in breaking the color barrier in the major leagues when he became the first black player to integrate the American League signing with the Cleveland Indians in July 1947 Doby went on to be a seven time All Star center fielder who led the Indians to two pennants In many respects Robinson and Doby were equals in their baseball talent and experiences and had remarkably similar playing careers both were well educated well spoken World War II veterans and both had played spectacularly albeit briefly in the Negro Leagues Like Robinson Doby suffered brickbats knock down pitches spit in his face and other forms of abuse and discrimination Doby was also a pioneering manager becoming the second black manager after Frank Robinson Well into the 1950s Doby was the only African American All Star in the American League during a period in which fifteen black players became National League All Stars Why is Doby largely forgotten as a central figure in baseball's integration Why has he not been accorded his rightful place in baseball history Greatness in the Shadows attempts to answer these questions bringing Doby's story to life and sharing his achievements and firsts with a new generation Publisher's website
