Seeing is Believing, 1950 Film and Industry Directory, 1951 Directory of World Cinema: Africa Sheila Petty, 2014-01-01 Eschewing the postcolonial hubris that suggests Africa could only define itself in relation to its colonizers a problem plaguing many studies published in the West on African cinema this entry in the Directory of World Cinema series instead looks at African film as representing Africa for its own sake values and artistic choices With a film industry divided by linguistic heritage African directors do not have the luxury of producing comedies thrillers horror films or even love stories except perhaps as DVDs that do not travel far outside their country of production Instead African directors tend to cover serious sociopolitical ground even under the cover of comedy in the hopes of finding funds outside Africa Contributors to this volume draw on filmic representations of the continent to consider the economic role of women rural exodus economic migration refugees and diasporas culture religion and magic as well as representations of children music languages and symbols A survey of national cinemas in one volume Directory of World Cinema Africa is a necessary addition to the bookshelf of any cinephile and world traveller
