Larson, 1994 Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications United States. Superintendent of Documents, 1961 Heirs of the Fisherman John-Peter Pham, 2004-11-30 The death of Pope John Paul II and consequent election of Pope Benedict XVI has shed light on a political process that the world has not been privy to for almost twenty six years People from around the world gathered in St Peter s Square wondering who the next Vatican leader would be and how the election process really worked while everyone from international news correspondents to local priests added their own opinions to the debate In Heirs of the Fisherman former Vatican insider John Peter Pham presents a candid portrait of the modern Vatican the only account to reveal the striking changes to papal succession procedures made by John Paul II Blending political and ecclesiastical history Pham goes beyond a mere description of the complex rituals to offer rare insight into the dramatic shifts inside the College of Cardinals whose 100 members now hail from 50 nations around the globe He takes us into the secret conclave where the electors were kept under lock and key until they had selected a new pope He also includes a chapter devoted to the intrigues of the 20th century where the first conclave had an emperor's veto and the last was won by the first non Italian in four centuries because the Italians were bitterly divided With a new Preface Afterword and appendices that include an English translation of the last will and testament of Pope John Paul II Heirs of the Fisherman is an illuminating history and must have guide to this vitally important world event It will continue to be an indispensable reference to observers of future Catholic Church politics

Catholics in England 1950-2000 Michael Hornsby-Smith, 1999-12-01 The year 2000 marks the 150th anniversary of the restoration of the Roman Catholic hierarchy of England and Wales following the post Reformation penal times The centenary in 1950 was celebrated with much reflection but what has happened in the momentous half century since which has witnessed the transformation of the Second Vatican Council The book includes Historical perspectives of the period Testimonies by key participants in post war institutional Catholicism including the Papal Commission on Birth Control World Congresses of the Laity in Rome and a variety of experiences in Catholic organizations and public life Empirical studies of English Catholicism from sociological perspectives Concluding reflections and prospects for the new millennium
