International Motion Picture Almanac Quigley Publishing,2008 An Economic History of Film Michael Pokorny,John

Sedgwick,2004-09-09 The economics of the movie industry has been curiously neglected by scholars especially given the material circumstances in which film has been produced distributed and exhibited in capitalist economies and its central importance in the lives of the huge numbers attracted to it as a commodity This book provides an economic framework for understanding developments in film history Film is a peculiar commodity with a unique set of characteristics The topic hence is interesting and covered with aplomb by the contributors to the volume The book includes sections on long term trends in the film industry the transformation of film from a primitive commodity to a heavily branded product the operation of the studio system the end of the studio system in post war America the role and payment of stars Hollywood s approach to risk during the 1990s Experts from the UK and North America have come together in these pages and the result is a readable insightful and enlightening book that will gain many fans amongst those with an interest in the economics of film economic historians film historians and aficionados of the movie industry generally Ghouls, Gimmicks, and Gold Kevin

Heffernan,2004-03-25 The history of horror films and the horror film industry in the 1950s and 1960s The Business

Strategies of the Major Hollywood Film Studios (1929-2024) Guy Di Piazza,2025-02-21 Surveying the strategies employed by film studios to market and produce their most successful films between 1929 and present day this book incorporates multilayered comprehensive analysis on the media industry and how it works Author and business strategist Guy Di Piazza draws on over 25 years of experience and provides insights into the corporate business market and production strategies of the leading motion picture companies through a 95 year history Investigating the initiatives employed particularly for the most successful or premium films allows Guy to evaluate the commercial and creative strategies of the major film studios during four distinct historical periods The golden age of Hollywood 1929 1949 Hollywood in decline and in transition 1950 1966 The new American cinema 1967 1976 and The era of media giants 1977 2024 With extensive business strategy analysis this book assesses the film industry from a commercial and economic perspective to bring better understanding to readers as to how the major studios have evolved over time and what that means for today s digitally connected world Ideal for researchers and advanced students studying film business and the media industry as well as professionals in the film business The Euro-American Cinema Peter Lev,2014-05-23 From as scholar of mass communications an international study of the influence of Hollywood movies on twentieth century European art films With McDonalds in Moscow and Disneyland in Paris and Tokyo American popular culture is spreading around the globe Regional national and ethnic cultures are being powerfully affected by competition from American values and American popular forms

This literate and lively study explores the spread of American culture into international cinema as reflected by the collision and partial merger of two important styles of filmmaking the Hollywood style of stars genres and action and the European art film style of ambiguity authorial commentary and borrowings from other arts Peter Lev departs from the traditional approach of national cinema histories and discusses some of the blends overlaps and hegemonies that are typical of the world film industry of recent years In Part One he gives a historical and theoretical overview of what he terms the Euro American art film which is characterized by prominent use of the English language a European art film director cast and crew from at least two countries and a stylistic mixing of European art film and American entertainment The second part of Lev s study examines in detail five examples of the Euro American art film Contempt 1963 Blow Up 1966 The Canterbury Tales 1972 Paris Texas 1983 and The Last Emperor 1987 These case studies reveal that the European art film has had a strong influence on world cinema and that many Euro American films are truly cultural blends rather than abject takeovers by Hollywood cinema

The New Hollywood Peter Krämer, 2006-03-17 On December 8 1967 Time magazine put Bonnie and Clyde on its cover and announced The New Cinema Violence Sex Art The following decade has long been celebrated as a golden age in American film history In this innovative study Peter Kr mer offers a systematic discussion of the biggest hits of the period including The Graduate 1967 The Exorcist 1973 and Jaws 1975 He relates the distinctive features of these hits to changes in the film industry in its audiences and in American society at large

Screening American Independent Film Justin Wyatt, W.D. Phillips, 2023-05-31 This indispensable collection offers 51 chapters each focused on a distinct American independent film Screening American Independent Film presents these films chronologically addressing works from across more than a century 1915 2020 emphasizing the breadth and long duration of American independent cinema The collection includes canonical examples as well as films that push against and expand the definitions of independence The titles run from micro budget films through marketing friendly Indiewood projects from auteur driven films and festival darlings to B movies genre pics and exploitation films The chapters also introduce students to different approaches within film studies including historical and contextual framing industrial and institutional analysis politics and ideology genre and authorship representation film analysis exhibition and reception and technology Written by leading international scholars and emerging talents in film studies this volume is the first of its kind Paying particular attention to issues of diversity and inclusion for both the participating scholars and the content and themes within the selected films Screening American Independent Film is an essential resource for anyone teaching or studying American cinema

New Australian Cinema Brian McFarlane, Geoff Mayer, 1992-06-26 The institutions and products of the Australian film industry have been extensively surveyed yet few analyses consider the sources of the film revival that took place in the 1970s and 1980s This book represents a body of thinking about Australian cinema that asks where the origins of films lie The book begins by tracing the indebtedness of Australian cinema to the classical narrative style of Hollywood film making with its firm grasp of melodrama It continues by comparing the problems faced by the high British cinema of the 1940s and 1950s with those faced by Australia in the 1970s and 1980s in the attempts by both countries to establish national film industries New Australian Cinema will increase the scope of the discussion about the revival of Australian cinema and help us to make cultural sense of the films themselves

The Allied Artists Checklist Len D. Martin, 2001-05-16 Allied Artists Pictures Corporation was formed in November 1946 by Monogram Pictures Corporation as a wholly owned subsidiary to handle production and distribution of the high budget films This is a complete filmography of Allied Artists 452 feature films and short subjects Each entry gives date of release running time genre western war drama mystery etc production credits cast a brief plot synopsis and a notes section showing items of special interest Thoroughly indexed Hollywood's War with Poland, 1939-1945 M.B.B. Biskupski, 2010-01-08 During World War II Hollywood studios supported the war effort by making patriotic movies designed to raise the nation's morale They often portrayed the combatants in very simple terms Americans and their allies were heroes and everyone else was a villain Norway France Czechoslovakia and England were all good because they had been invaded or victimized by Nazi Germany Poland however was represented in a negative light in numerous movies In Hollywood's War with Poland 1939-1945 M B B Biskupski draws on a close study of prewar and wartime films such as To Be or Not to Be 1942 In Our Time 1944 and None Shall Escape 1944 He researched memoirs letters diaries and memoranda written by screenwriters directors studio heads and actors to explore the negative portrayal of Poland during World War II Biskupski also examines the political climate that influenced Hollywood films Hollywood's Road to Riches David Waterman, 2009-07-01 This book shows how beginning in the 1950s a largely predictable business has been transformed into a volatile and complex multimedia enterprise now commanding over 80 percent of the world's film business Waterman asks how the economic forces leading to this success have combined to change the kinds of movies Hollywood produces Shared Pleasures Douglas Gomery, 1992 Gomery The coming of sound to the American cinema 1975 The Hollywood studio system 1986 draws upon his earlier work and that of other scholars to address the broader social functions of the film industry showing how Hollywood adapted its business policies to diversity and change within American society Includes 31 bandw photographs Paper edition unseen 15 95 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR World Communications, a Handbook George Gerbner, Marsha Siefert, 1984 The American Disease David F. Musto, 1999-04-22 The American Disease is a classic study of the development of drug laws in the United States Supporting the theory that Americans' attitudes toward drugs have followed a cyclic pattern of tolerance and restraint author David F Musto examines the relationz between public outcry and the creation of prohibitive drug laws from the end of the Civil War up to the present Originally published in 1973 and then in an expanded edition in 1987 this third edition contains a new chapter and preface that both address the renewed debate on policy and drug legislation from the end of the Reagan administration to the current Clinton administration Here Musto thoroughly investigates how our nation has dealt with such issues as the controversies over prevention programs and mandatory minimum sentencing the catastrophe of the crack epidemic the fear of a heroin revival and the continued debate over the legalization of marijuana

The Regional World Michael Storper, 1997-10-31 This pioneering volume proposes a compelling new theory of how regions have sustained their economic viability in the era of multinational corporations Unlike traditional approaches which analyze economic systems in terms of their mechanics inputs outputs prices technology etc this work views them as systems for coordinating human actions and relationships Reconceptualizing the role of learning technology and local institutions in development Storper illuminates the key role of regional economies as building blocks of the increasingly connected world A thought provoking and timely work The Regional World carries resounding implications for educators students and policymakers in economic geography economic sociology and international business It is an essential primary or supplementary text for graduate level courses on economic regional or industrial development and policy and international business
