This book examines how heteronormativity in higher education can be interrupted and resisted Located within the theoretical framework of queer and critical pedagogy and based on extensive empirical research the author explores the dynamics of heteronormativity and its interruption on professional courses in a range of higher education institutions

Reactions to attempt to interrupt it were nuanced while strategies of contested engagement avoidance and retreat were expressed heterosexuality was largely unexamined and unarticulated Coming out needs to be a pedagogical act carried out concurrently with the interruptions of other social constructions and binary oppositions The author calls for co created and co held meta reflexive and liminal spaces that emphasise intersubjectivity encounters and working in the moment These spaces must deconstruct and reconstruct pedagogical power and knowledge to promote collective intersubjective consciousnesses and widen the vision of the reflective practitioner to that of the pedagogical practitioner This pioneering book is a call to action to all those concerned with interrupting and problematising presumed binary categories of sexuality within the heterosexual matrix

People in Corporations Georges Enderle, Brenda Almond, Antonio Argandoña, 2012-12-06

Georges Enderle Before presenting some introductory remarks on the topic of this volume I should like to outline briefly the context from which this selection of articles originates It seems to me necessary to emphasise these circumstances in order to make clearer the contours of what is said and what is not said and to understand it better This context involves firstly a general evaluation of the state of the business ethics debate today and secondly considerations of the question of what attitude and strategy should be chosen in order to promote business ethics most effectively On the present state of affairs of the business ethics debate Today it is extremely difficult if not impossible to gain even a rough overview of the business ethics debate in the different countries of Europe and North America Many activities take place in informal circles and on a local and regional level linguistic and other barriers impede the spread of information about them and often they are not even labelled business ethics At the same time so many other things sail under the flag of business ethics that one sometimes wonders if it should not be replaced by another flag for instance new methods of public relations or better motivation of company's employees Yet in spite of these difficulties in defining business ethics activities one statement at least can be made with certainty
