Bibliographies of the Languages of the World: General and Indo-European languages of Europe ,1990-01-01 This is Volume I of a monumental two volume work a historical record and guide to bibliographic efforts on all the languages of the world which is designed to serve the professional as well as non professional reader as a first point of entry for information about any language By consulting the Bibliography the reader will quickly be able to identify specific bibliographic sources for particular topics of interest and thus rapidly begin to narrow the search for information Although bibliographies of bibliographies have appeared for a few language families this set provides for the first time a comprehensive compilation of bibliographies for all of the languages or language families of the world from the earliest period through 1985 Volume I with nearly 2500 entries in 400 pages covers the Indo European languages of Europe plus Etruscan and Basque as well as general and multi language references including sections on dictionaries dissertations and specialized topics Volume II with approximately the same number of entries will cover all other languages In the Bibliography most entries are annotated to indicate the number of items in each bibliography and how they are arranged some information on the scope and coverage of the work where not obvious from the title whether items are annotated and what indexes are included The Bibliography will long stand as an indispensable reference tool and should be in every library serving readers interested in any aspect of language Season to Taste Caroline J. Smith,2023-05-18 2024 Honorable Mention Recipient for the Emily Toth Award for the Best Single Work by One or More Authors from the Popular Culture Association Between 2000 and 2010 many contemporary US American women writers were returning to the private space of the kitchen writing about their experiences in that space and then publishing their memoirs for the larger public to consume Season to Taste Rewriting Kitchen Space in Contemporary Women s Food Memoirs explores women s food memoirs with recipes in order to consider the ways in which these women are rewriting this kitchen space and renegotiating their relationships with food Caroline J Smith begins the book with a historical overview of how the space of the kitchen and the expectations of women associated with it have shifted considerably since the 1960s Better Homes and Gardens as well as the discourse of the second wave feminist movement tended to depict the space as a place of imprisonment The contemporary popular writers examined in Season to Taste such as Ruth Reichl Kim Sun e Jocelyn Delk Adams Julie Powell and Molly Wizenberg respond to this characterization by instead presenting the kitchen as a place of transformation In their memoirs and recipes these authors reinterpret their roles within the private sphere of the home as well as the public sphere of the world of publishing whether print or digital publication The authors examined here explode the divide of private feminine and public masculine in both content and form and complicate the genres of recipe writing diary writing and memoir These women writers through the act of preparing and consuming food encourage readers to reconsider the changing gender politics of the kitchen
