Billheimer,2007-07-16 Most baseball fans know what links Fred Merkle Fred Snodgrass Mickey Owen and Bill Buckner It s a pantheon of public failure They would be harder put to say what links Eric Byrnes Tony Fernandez and Babe Ruth though these players made misplays every bit as egregious In this smart highly readable history of scapegoating John Billheimer identifies the elements that combine to condemn one player to a life sentence while another gets a wrist slap for the same offense As it turns out the difference between a lower case e in some forgotten box score and a lifetime of ignominy can hinge on a number of factors including timing geography reputation misunderstanding media bias and just plain bad luck current manager of the Philadelphia Phillies Larry Bowa has seen a lot in his 34 year career in baseball so much that Bowa himself recently exclaimed I've been in the game for so long now nothing really shocks me anymore True perhaps but while Bowa may no longer be shocked by what he witnesses on and off the diamond his passion for winning has remained as constant as his love for the game Bowa's initiation into the big leagues began in Philly as a shortstop in 1970 and has spanned the life of three Phillies ballparks During those early years with stints at organizations including the Mets and the Cubs Bowa gained a reputation as a passionate loud mouth Although Bowa himself admits his misdeeds were a result of nothing more than youthful inexperience Since I left San Diego I've never thrown chairs or the food spread again he still has a flame in his heart and a flair to win Looking back on it I was wrong That's inexperience But I still come to the ballpark every day with that burning desire to win I hate to lose and that will never change
