Nurture the Spirit Louise Margaret Granahan,2003 Children develop in so many ways physically intellectually socially and spiritually Story is just one of the ways to foster and support a child s faith development They can find role models in the positive characters in literature and develop empathy for others when they see a different point of view presented Children s Books that Nurture the Spirit is an introduction to quality children s literature for spiritual development The most current and readily available children s literature is reviewed by the author In addition Granahan suggests ways for leaders to use and extend the literature A Common Place for All James D. Bordone,2010 Mr Bordone received his MLS from the Palmer

School of Library Science at Long Island University New York in 1997 He has served as a part time librarian at New Jersey s Montclair State University since 1995 a position he still holds today After working full time as the School Media Specialist at St Mary High School in Rutherford New Jersey for six years Mr Bordone served as director of the Bogota Public Library in Bogota New Jersey In December of 2003 he left Bogota to become a Reference Librarian at the Passaic Public Library in Passaic New Jersey Inspiration to write this book came from his desire to create a brief library history link to the library s webpage Besides reading James passion is computers history and animal rescue He currently lives in Guttenberg New Jersey with his mother and five cats This book documents a chronological history of a library whose roots can be traced to the Civil War period It tells the story of the library s growth from one to nine branches and back to its current status of only one branch documenting the interesting personalities who served it along the way Although the Passaic Public Library may be an ordinary library in an urban community in New Jersey it really is a microcosm of all communities in that it has witnessed an exploding growth of immigrants over the past century and has been challenged financially to provide for this growing community while at the same time it has struggled to keep up with the ever growing and ever changing trend of technology Despite these demands the Passaic Public Library has continued to fulfill its responsibility to the community and the immigrant community in particular by providing programs for both adults and children The Elementary School Library Collection ,1998
